

BROSIOUS BROS.

Buy All the Suits of A

Big (New York)
Clothing House and

Will Have a Big Sale
HERE NOW IS YOUR CHANCE

$4.98

For Suits that were made to sell at seven to eight dollars, all colors and sizes.

$7.48

For Suits that were made to sell at nine and ten dollars.

Such Bargains do not come every day, so be lively, don't wait till all the best ones are picked out.

BROSIOUS BROS.,
SUNBURY, PA.

As the Twig is Bent.
Bacon—That fellow's mother says that when he was a baby he was always putting his toe in his mouth.
Egbert—Yes; and he's been putting his foot in it ever since.—Yonkers farce.
The
after which the patience of Angela.
during which tighter—I've prayed and time to go to things only seem to grow worse with me.
Senator Copeias—Have patience, my child—just look at the chaplain of the house and senate!—Puck.

It All Depends.
"How's business?" asked the stranger who had drifted in.
The shopkeeper eyed him suspiciously for a moment before replying.
"Do you want to buy or sell?" he inquired at last.—Chicago Post.

Struck a New Note.
Tommy—Uncle Henry's got the rheumatism in a new spot this morning.
Dicky—How do you know?
Tommy—His swearin' is different from what it generally is.—Chicago Tribune.

And Put Him in the Shade.
Hewitt—What became of the girl that you used to say was the light of your life?
Jewett—Another fellow came between me and the light.—Judge.

Eggactly.
Customer—How much are eggs?
Dealer—Twenty-one cents.
"What do you charge 21 cents for?"
"For eggs."—Harlem Life.

How It Looked.
Edith—She says her face is her fortune.
Ethel—How unfortunate!—Puck.

A Test of Patience.
Aigy—She's deuced clever! She learned how to skate quite well under my instructions in just ten minutes.
Ethel—Oh! That wasn't cleverness; that was patience. Most girls would have learned in two.—Puck.

Lucky Chicago Man.
Dearborn—I am living with my sixth wife.

Wabash—And yet you say you never had any luck.
"Where is the luck?"
"You said you were living, didn't you?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Never Hit Him at All.
The Judge—What did you hit this man with, anyway?
Prisoner—I didn't hit 'im wit' anything, yer honor.

The Judge—But look at him. He's in a horrible condition. Surely you didn't do that with your fists.
Prisoner—No, yer honor. I ketch'd 'im be the heels and bumped 'im agin a brick wall a few times. But I didn't hit 'im wit' anything wanst.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Dizzy?

Then your liver isn't acting well. You suffer from biliousness, constipation. Ayer's Pills act directly on the liver. For 30 years they have been the Standard Family Pill. Small doses cure. All druggists.

Want your mustache or beard a beautiful brown or rich black? Then use BUCKINGHAM'S DYE for the Whiskers.

THANKS FOR PENROSE

Presented With Resolutions From Various Granges.

INSURGENTS ARE LEFT BEHIND

Men Who Bolted the Republican Caucus On the United States Senate-ship Are Not Popular As Candidates For Re-Election.

(Special Correspondence.)
Philadelphia, May 12.—Since President Roosevelt has signed the oleomargarine bill, the measure which is designed to protect the pure butter interest of the country, Senator Penrose has been the recipient of many letters of congratulation over the successful fight made by him in the senate in favor of this legislation.

There has been a large demand for copies of the principal speech made by him on this subject from members of the various granges, as it was regarded as one of the most forcible and convincing addresses made during the course of the debate.

Senator Penrose has gotten many letters enclosing resolutions adopted by various organizations of farmers and dairymen that advocated the passage of this bill.

Here is a sample resolution passed by the Spencertown Grange, No. 1,035, of Tioga county:

Whereas, The Hon. Boies Penrose, by speaking and voting for the Henry oleo bill, has shown himself a friend of the farmers of this state;

Therefore, Be it resolved, that this grange extend to Hon. Boies Penrose a rising vote of thanks, with the assurance that his action thereby will be remembered by the members of this grange.

(Signed) L. M. SPENCER,
Master.

G. H. SPENCER,
Secretary.

Senator Penrose has received probably a hundred of such resolutions, and his mail almost daily includes additional expressions from similar organizations.

Senator Penrose will probably be called upon to draft part, if not all, of the platform of the Republican state convention to be held at Harrisburg on June 11 next, and it can be taken for granted that he will see to it that the Republican organization of Pennsylvania shall be committed to all needed state legislation for the protection of the farm and dairy interests of the commonwealth.

INSURGENTS TO BE LEFT HOME.
Attention is now being directed to the personnel of the coming state legislature, although many counties have yet to name their candidates.

In this city the party leaders have agreed upon nearly all of the candidates to be supported at the primaries to be held in the first week in June.

Two of the most conspicuous insurgents in the last legislature, David Martin and J. Bayard Henry, will not be renominated for the state senate. Neither of them is a candidate. Martin will be succeeded by former Register of Wills Hackett and Henry's place will be taken by Representative Harrison, both of them stalwart Republicans.

Of the thirty-nine members of the last House of Representatives from the Quaker City but thirteen will be renominated. None of those who bolted the senatorial caucus will go back. The next delegation from Philadelphia will be conspicuous from the large number of young Republicans who will figure on the floor of the house. Under the present leadership the young men of Philadelphia are coming to the front in the Republican organization and they are being given recognition in a practical way.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CANVASS.
There have been but few important developments in the several contests for Republican nominations for congress throughout the state. The fight between Congressman Mahon and former Senator Hummel for congressional honors is becoming interesting and both candidates are on the go throughout the district. Congressman Butler, of the Delaware-Chester district, has been assured of renomination without opposition and Congressman Wanger, of Bucks and Montgomery, says he is not the least concerned over the suggestion of a new man being taken up for his place.

While there has been some litigation regarding the right of the chairman of the Beaver county committee to refuse to allow Congressman Acheson to register for the Beaver county primaries, the supporters of Acheson predict that he will ultimately be named to succeed himself. On the other hand Lawyer Cunningham, of Beaver, is making a hard fight.

Up in the Wayne, Susquehanna, Bradford, Wyoming district the conferees failed to reach an agreement at their first meeting with M. E. Lilley, of Bradford; Homer Green, of Wayne, and present Congressman C. Fred Wright, of Susquehanna, the candidates. Wyoming has no candidate, but instructed her delegates for Congressman Wright. The outcome of this deadlock is awaited with interest.

Congressman Deemer, of the Lycoming district; Jack, of Indiana; Connell, of Lackawanna; Palmer, of Luzerne; Patterson, of Schuylkill; Cassel, of Lancaster; Olmsted, of Dauphin; Dalsell and Graham, of Allegheny; Sibbey, of Venango, and Bates, of Crawford, are among those who will have no trouble in securing renomination.

It is predicted that Pennsylvania will increase her Republican representation in the next congress.

Of the congressmen-at-large Congressman Crow will not be a candidate from his home district, but Congressman-at-large Forrester, of Philadelphia, has been agreed upon by the leaders for the nomination for congress in his home district. This will bow out Congressman James Rankin Young, the present member from this district. It is understood that Congressman Young is to be given another office.

A SMALLER FIELD

Race For the Governorship Narrowed to Three Candidates.

SOME LIVELY CAMPAIGN WORK

Elkin, Watres and Pennypacker Are Now the Only Recognized Rivals For the Republican Nomination For the Governorship.

(Special Correspondence.)
Harrisburg, May 12.—With the developments of the last week the gubernatorial race has practically been reduced to a struggle between three competitors for the Republican nomination.

The canvass for delegates is still being conducted upon the most strenuous lines and the champions of the rival aspirants are kept busy watching the game of their opponents and striving for advantage at every point.

The last week formally disposed of two of those who had been mentioned among "the home favorites," but who were never regarded as dangerous factors, Senator W. C. Sproull, of Delaware, and United States District Attorney James B. Holland, of Montgomery county.

Sproull had been honored with an indorsement from his county convention and the delegates to the state convention from Delaware were instructed to vote for him. He concluded that he was not to be considered seriously by the state leaders and withdrew in a letter in which he said he hoped the movement to harmonize the party would be successful. The delegates from Delaware afterward met and indorsed Judge Pennypacker for governor. Mr. Holland, recognizing that he, too, had no show, did not allow his name to go before the Montgomery county convention and made no opposition to an indorsement of Judge Pennypacker.

BOOMING PENNYPACKER.

The Philadelphia Republicans, representing all factions, have gotten down to the work of booming Judge Pennypacker for the governorship. They are having their ward clubs and committees meet and indorse his candidacy. They have appointed committees to canvass the state in his interest and are organizing delegations to go to the state convention to cheer and shout for him when the clans gather in Harrisburg prior to the opening of the state convention on June 11th.

The action of the Lawrence county delegates in indorsing Judge Pennypacker is understood to mean that they expect the backing of the judge's friends for their favorite for the lieutenant governorship, former Senator William M. Brown, of Lawrence county. Senator Brown's friends fought the Elkin men in Lawrence and succeeded in bagging the state delegates and they are in a position to deal with the Philadelphians in the framing of a slate before the convention. The leaders back of Judge Pennypacker are known to be friendly to Senator Brown and if Pennypacker shall succeed in getting the nomination it is believed Senator Brown will stand a good chance of getting second place on the ticket.

ELKIN'S STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN.

The campaign being waged in behalf of Attorney General John P. Elkin has not been relaxed in the slightest particular. The attorney general is directing his own forces and he is busy night and day.

Luzerne county was a storm center last week when former Lieutenant Governor Watres' admirers in the first Luzerne district, comprising the city of Wilkesbarre, challenged Mr. Elkin to a public debate. The "Indiana county plow boy" promptly accepted the challenge and the debate took place on Friday night before an audience of several thousands. The candidates avoided personalities, but each made a spirited address, in which he set forth his claims for the nomination. Mr. Elkin's address dwelt largely upon the developments in the political situation which led up to Senator Quay's request that he retire from the race. He reiterated his determination to continue in the canvass until the state convention shall name its candidates and demanded that the people be given an opportunity to express their preferences at the primaries in the gubernatorial canvass.

The delegates election in the Wilkesbarre district took place on Saturday and the Elkin delegates won. The vote was quite close. The Elkin men now claim that they have nine of the ten delegates from Luzerne. In another claim from the Elkin headquarters they count Armstrong and Forest counties, which held primaries on Saturday. In Dauphin county the Elkin men declare they will have the full delegation. The primaries in Dauphin take place on the 17th inst.

Colonel Watres seems not to be dismayed by the result of the Luzerne county elections, although this county adjoins his home county of Lackawanna. The colonel says he will keep up the fight until the roll shall be called in the state convention and that he is still hopeful that he will be agreed upon as a compromise candidate for governor.

GELNETT BROS.

NEW STORE

We are now prepared to show to our Spring and Summer trade a very handsome line of Ladies' and Gents' Oxford Ties, all new and of the latest styles.

Ladies' Patent Leather Oxfords, $1.50

Ladies' Plain Vici Kid Oxfords, 85c.

Gents' Patent Leather Oxfords, $3.25

Gents' Dangola Oxfords, $2.00 to $2.75

Also a good variety of Children's Oxfords and Slippers.

Now is the time to buy your fly nets while we have a good variety to select from fine buggy nets, 90 lash, $2.60

Fine buggy nets, 72 lash, $1.00

Heavy nets, $1.75 to $3.00 each.

HAMMOCKS and SPREADS—we have a nice lot of Hammocks to suit all for 75c to $1.35, Top spreads, 60c to $1.00 each.

Now is the time to buy your Paints

We sell the Shirwin Williams ready mixed

Paints,

The Best Ready Mixed Paints

on the market and is guaranteed to give satisfaction.

It will spread more square feet per gallon than any other paint and is guaranteed not to scale and will wear better than lead and oil.

Gelnett Bros., Middleburgh, Pa.

A STUDENT OF PRINTERS' INK

Who thoroughly masters the solutions to knotty points of advertising published each week in that publication and applies them to the practical side of his work, will find a balance at all times on the right side of his bank book.

THE BUSINESS MAN

Who reads the "Little Schoolmaster of Advertising" and profits by its advice, will find the goods leaving his shelves and counters and he will hear the big round dollars jingling in his till.

THE PROFESSIONAL AD WRITER

Who produces clever work and writes business bringing ads, always reads PRINTERS' INK. It teaches you to avoid waste in advertising and it is recognized as a text-book on advertising the world over.

Published weekly, $5.00 a year. Ten cents a copy. Address,

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.,

10 SPRUCE ST., N. Y.

Willing to Humer Her.
Doctor—You say you always burn this lamp in your room all night?
Woman—Always. I can't sleep without a lamp.

Doctor—My dear madam, I can give you a few simple chemicals which you can easily mix before retiring. They will give off just as much blood-poisoning and sleep-inducing gas as a lamp, and won't be half so much trouble.—N. Y. Weekly.

What Thin Folks Need

Is a greater power of digestion and assimilating food. For the Dr. King's New Life Pills work wonders. They tone and regulate the digestive organs, gently expel poisons from the system, enrich the blood, improve appetite, make healthy flesh. Only 25 cents at Middleburg Drug Co., Gray's Garman & Co., Richfield, Pa., Dr. W. Sanspeel, Pennsboro, Pa.