The fire that occurred on Wednesday of last week in the home of Harry Good was very destructive, as very little was gotten out of the up stairs, the most of the furniture was however gotten out down stairs the loss will fall heavily on both Harry Good and Amon Wagenseller who lived in part of the home.

Our citizens are determined to be up-to-date as a number of them are remodeling and repainting their houses, which improves the appearance of the town as well as the buildings painted.

Miss Myers of Lock Haven is a guest at the Ladies Dormitory.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

On account of the long and excessive dry weather our farmers are making hay and the crop will be only a half crop and farmers are discouraged, but as long as the world standeth, there will be seed time and harvest.

VAST SOCIAL POWER.

Placed in the Hands of Mrs. Paget by King Edward.

His Majesty Consulted Her as to the Adviability of Permitting the Prince of Wales to Visit New York.

The advice of an American woman may determine whether or not the Prince of Wales will visit this country to attend the dedication of the New York Chamber of Commerce's new home. Decision on the question awaits the return of King Edward from his spring cruise, and it is believed in court circles that probability incline toward its acceptance.

It is thought likely that the king, to whom the prince has deferred the question, will be largely guided by suggestions of Americans in London society.

It is said that Mrs. Arthur H. Paget (the daughter of Paran Stevens, of New York) has been consulted as well as Secretary White, of the United States embassy, in his private capacity. Mr. White has been personally gratified with King Edward for many years.

The prince of Wales has no intimate friends in the Anglo-American set. Indeed, it may be said generally that his friends are not the king's friends. He does not cultivate millionaires, but has his friends among the oldest aristocrats, who rather look down on the "Marlborough house set" as money worshippers and notoriety-hunters.

The prince is extremely quiet and unobtrusive—in truth, he is rather shy and has none of the snobbish bluntness which carried Prince Henry of Prussia so far. He has a good deal of his father's tact, and, under the tutelage of Gen. Bigge, his private secretary, he always does the correct thing.

In court circles it is almost assumed that if the prince goes to New York he will go in a semi-private capacity, for if he should go as the official representative of King Edward there would arise many awkward questions of precedence and etiquette which it would be desirable to obviate.

It is suggested, says the New York World, that an easy and graceful way of treating the invitation would be for the prince to get command of the newest battleship, and accompanied by two cruisers cross to New York. In this capacity he would simply be a naval officer and would secure rest and privacy by residing aboard his own ship.

Anyway it is not thought that the German precedent of crossing in an ocean liner would be followed, as such a method of approaching the United States is held to be peculiarly unfitting in a representative of the greatest naval power in the world.

It is very probable that this scheme may be adopted if a visit is found to be possible.

The prince's suite would be small, consisting only of six members. There would be two gentlemen-in-waiting, including Hon. Derek W. Keppel (a brother of George Keppel, who is well known in Chicago); a military and naval attache, Gen. Sir Arthur Bigge, private secretary, and Sir Donald Mackenzie Wallace, the prince's historiographer.

All invitations to the prince would be forwarded to Gen. Bigge, who would submit the arrangements for the prince's approval.

MRS. ARTHUR H. PAGET (Daughter of the late Mr. Paran Stevens, of New York.)

Save Sleep for His Firm.

There is a man in New York city who holds down a hilarious job. He serves a big firm in the capacity of buying entertainer. The buyers whom he entertains suppose him to be a junior partner in the firm, but he isn't. He is simply a buffer between the firm and the buyer. He saves sleep for the firm, and big heads and that morning feeling. He bears the brunt of the buyers' stored-up skittishness. The average buyer has an anticipatory glitter in his eyes from the minute that he sets foot in town. There is much that he desires to see. This buyer entertainer shows it to him. Sometimes he meets a buyer who nearly outdoes him in the high-ball home stretch about two o'clock in the morning; but, as a rule, he gets the buyer to his hotel in a safe condition.

Alone in Her Old Age.

Mrs. Mary Elvira Gillespie, at the age of 84, has just been admitted to a hospital in Denver. She is the mother of 37 children, among them being 15 sets of twins. Strange to say, all of the children have drifted away from her, and she knows not the address of any of them.

THE NEW WOMAN.

Miss Alice Cohn, writes from 476 Eleventh Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., as follows:

"Having had poor health for a great many months and now having it restored makes me feel very grateful to Peruna. I suffered a great deal during my monthly periods, had severe pains, and was generally depressed, but can truthfully say that a few bottles of Peruna has removed all pain and made a new woman of me."—MISS ALICE COHN.

The coming of what is known as the "new woman" in our country is not greeted by everyone as if she were a great blessing. But there is another new woman whom everybody is glad to see. Every day some invalid woman is exclaiming, "I have been made a new woman by Dr. Hartman's home treatment." It is only necessary to send name, address, symptoms, duration of sickness and treatment already received to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., and directions for one month's treatment will be promptly forwarded. The medicine can be obtained at the nearest drug store.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Easy Enough.

"I'm fixed," said the young doctor. "I've got a big enough practice to keep me in easy circumstances for life."

"But suppose you should lose half your patients?"

"I'd just double my bills on the others."—Philadelphia Press.

Self-Approval.

"The members of your legislature stand by you loyally."

"Of course, they do," answered Senator Sorghum. "It's another evidence that honesty is the best policy. I never promised a member one cent for going back on somebody else that I didn't pay him."—Washington Star.

Entirely Fresh Supply.

"Edith, didn't I tell you only last week that I wished you would forget those slang expressions?"

"Yes, mamma, and I did forget those that I used then; these are some fresh ones."—Yonkers Statesman.

On the Contrary.

Specialist—"The trouble with you is that your joints don't articulate well. Victim of Rheumatism—Don't they? If I move this elbow joint you can hear it a block away!"—Chicago Tribune.

No Truth in It.

Ted—Faint heart never won fair lady. Ned—It does in these days. I know half a dozen girls who just threw themselves at an old millionaire who was said to have heart disease.—N. Y. Sun.

Willing to Accommodate.

"Is this, then, to be the end?" he sadly said.

"Oh, I hope not," she replied. "I shall still reserve three nights a week for the theater, if you say so."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Her Idea of It.

Fond Mother—Did you succeed in making an impression on young Goro last night?

Truthful Daughter—No, mamma. We occupied separate chairs all the evening.—Chicago Daily News.

Had Her Revenge.

"He told his wife she ought to take cooking lessons."

"Did she?"

"Well, yes. She sent for her mother to come and give her a three-months' course."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Result of Experience.

"He is a man of very strong nerves. He seems to be able to view the most excruciating suffering without a tremor."

"Naturally. He's a dentist."—Chicago Post.
