of most Washington 405 and 930. Add to the suffering from thirst of a 200 and Fertilander, along the side of the which many most have the people "murmured" against Moses, implying something like an incipient rebellion. Then Moses cried to the Lord. In answer to Moses' prayer, he was shown how the bitter waters of Marah might be made sweet. In answer also to Moses' prayer, God revealed Himself as the "Lord that health thee." 'The people are reminded (in verse 26) entry, wilderness and might yet have to undergo severe suffering, yet if they great deal of money. would "diligently hearken to the and Hazelton > find Moses resorting to prayer. In answer God promised the quails and the manna, and showed Moses that the sufferings of the people had come as a test. The Lord was trying to impress upon them the lesson of trust, one of the most important lessons an individual or a nation can learn-trust in the kindly providence of God. God further showed to Moses, and Moses faithfully declared it to the people, that the "murmuring" of the Israelites was not so much against Moses as against God Himself. Moses found it hard to inspire in his followers that they were really following the guidance of Jehovah. Kidneys Healthy?

Remember-the Kidneys are the most wonderful organs. Your very life depends upon them. Nine-tenths of all sickness is caused by diseased and ne-glected kidneys. If healthy they filter all the impurities out of the blood. Rheumatism, dyspepsia, constipation, liver disease, bladder troubles, biliousness, headache, blood disease and female weakness are all the result of diseased kidneys.

Do you know Dr. Kennedy's
