The Ivy Club Celebrates the Fourth.

The Ivy Club, of Middleburg, gave chool will be held at Salem next a lawn party at the home of Miss Marcia App at Mahantango, on the eve of July 4th. Many friends responded to invitations. The members made great preperations and being aided through the hospitality of the App family, the party was indeed a grand success. Music was furnished by the McKees orchestra and the display of fireworks was magnificent. The evening was spent in the different games of interest and choice refreshments were served in liberal proportions. After lunch the guests were compelled to retreat to the roomy mansion for protection during a thunderstorm. Here they were enterup a jolly fishing party in Buf- tained by Miss Holman, of Liverpool, who recently returned from Chicago where she had received instructions in oratory. She soon convinced the mer rymakers of a wonderful talent as an > order. Many of the friends remained over of the ladies who, with the strains and excitement of the evening on th in minds, fancied they were in fairy land mascurading in double file. Breakfast was served in due time afterwhich the guests departed feeling very thankful that thare was an Ivy club and an App family.
