

FRUIT OF THE LOOM

Men and women of taste and judgment go into ecstasies over the wonderful patterns, textures and colors which are "the fruit of the loom." But there is one they rarely consider, and that is the frail and faded woman, old before her time, because necessity compels her to work under conditions, which send her more favored sister to bed and the doctor's care.

The diseases which weaken and torment weak women, may in almost all cases be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. J. Dennis, of East College Street, Jacksonville, Ill. "Words cannot express what I suffered. I sought relief among the medical profession and found none. Friends urged me to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed ninety-five pounds. Now I weigh one hundred and fifty-six pounds—more than I ever weighed before. I was so bad I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pain, and such distress every month, but now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

AMNESTY FOR FILIPINOS

President Roosevelt Grants All Insurrectionists a Free Pardon.

THEY MUST SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

Independence Day Was Made the Beginning of Civil Rule Throughout the Islands—General Chaffes Relieved As Military Governor.

Washington, July 1.—The president has formally declared the restoration of peace in the Philippine archipelago; he has placed the islands under complete civil control and has extended general amnesty to the Filipinos who have been in rebellion. These three things, marking one of the most important chapters in Philippine history, were accomplished through the issue of three separate orders and proclamations, one by the president, over his own signature, extending amnesty; one through Secretary Root, by the president's order relieving General Chaffes from his duties as military governor, and a third, which takes the shape of a general order addressed to the entire army of the United States in which Secretary Root takes occasion to express the president's high appreciation of the work it has accomplished, both in Cuba and in the Philippines.

The amnesty proclamation is as follows: Whereas, Many of the inhabitants of the Philippine archipelago were in insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the kingdom of Spain at divers times from August, 1896, until the cession of the archipelago to that kingdom to the United States of America, and since such cession many of the persons so engaged in insurrection have until recently resisted the authority and sovereignty of the United States; and

Whereas, The insurrection against the authority and sovereignty of the United States is now at an end and peace has been established in all parts of the archipelago, except in the country inhabited by the Moro tribes, to which the proclamation does not apply; and

Whereas, During the course of the insurrection against the kingdom of Spain and against the government of the United States, persons engaged therein, or those in sympathy with and abetting them, committed many acts in violation of the laws of civilized warfare, but it is believed that such acts were generally committed in ignorance of those laws, and under orders issued by the civil or military insurrectionary leaders;

Now, Therefore, be it known that I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution do hereby proclaim and declare, without reservation or condition, except as hereinafter provided, a full and complete pardon and amnesty to all persons in the Philippine archipelago, who have participated in the insurrections aforesaid, or who have given aid and comfort to persons participating in said insurrections, for the offenses of treason or sedition, and for all offenses political in their character committed in the course of such insurrections pursuant to orders issued by the civil or military insurrectionary authorities, or which grew out of internal political feuds or dissensions between Filipinos and Spaniards or the Spanish authorities, or which resulted from internal political feuds or dissensions among the Filipinos themselves during either of said insurrections;

Provided, however, That the pardon and amnesty hereby granted shall not include such persons committing crimes since May 1, 1902, in any province of the archipelago in which at the time civil government was established, nor shall it include such persons as have been heretofore finally convicted of the crimes of murder, rape, arson or robbery by any military or civil tribunal organized under the authority of Spain or of the United States of America, but special application may be made to the proper authority for pardon by any person belonging to the exempted classes, and such clemency as is consistent with humanity and justice will be liberally extended; and, further,

Provided, That this amnesty and pardon shall not affect the title or right of the government of the United States or that of the Philippine Islands organized under authority of the United States by way of confiscation or otherwise; and,

Provided, further, That every person who shall seek to avail himself of this proclamation shall take and subscribe the following oath before any authority in the Philippine archipelago authorized to administer oaths, namely: I, _____, solemnly swear or affirm, that I recognize and accept the supreme authority of the United States of America in the Philippine Islands, and will maintain true faith and allegiance thereto; that I impose upon myself this obligation voluntarily without mental reservation or purpose of evasion, so help me God.

RECEIVERS FOR ATLANTIC MATCH COMPANY

Trenton, N. J., July 8.—Judge Kirkpatrick, in the United States circuit court, yesterday appointed Henry L. Holmes, of Camden, and E. J. Patterson, of Plainfield, receivers for the Atlantic Match Company, of Camden. The receivers were appointed upon the application of Frank Tilford, of New York, who claims that the liabilities of the company are about $180,000, in addition to a mortgage of $250,000 on its plant. The company, it is charged, is being operated at a loss of about $7,000 a month.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson in the International Series for July 20 1902—The Ten Commandments: Duties to Men.

THE LESSON TEXT.

(Exodus 20:13-17.)
13. Thou shalt not kill.
14. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
15. Thou shalt not steal.
16. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.—Matt. 19:19.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The two groups of five commands each have been variously characterized: those on the first table religious, those on the second, ethical; the first, the laws of piety, the second of probity; the first, duties to God, the second, duties to men. With every right there is a corresponding duty to respect that right wherever it is found. We are apt to talk more about our rights than our duties. The "Ten Words," perhaps recognizing this peculiarity of human nature, emphasize the duty side. Much of what was said in the New Testament of the inferiority of the law to the Gospel would probably never have been said but for the immense development of ceremonial law that came later. In the Decalogue is a real revelation of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. 6. "Thou shalt not kill." Better, "Thou shalt do no murder." The word murder sends our thought back of the outward act to the motive that prompted it. It is in the motive that the blame-worthiness or praiseworthiness of an act resides. This was Christ's way of judging, and of this very command He said: "Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time: Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment; but I say unto you, that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgment." The command does not say whether or not it is ever justifiable to kill, but Moses, who would be supposed to know the true interpretation of the command, believed it was. Space forbids a discussion of the ethics of self-defense, of war and of capital punishment, but they will naturally come up in the class.

7. "Thou shalt not commit adultery." After the sacredness of human life comes the sacredness of the home. No nation can be sound and strong without that. Christ reminds us here too that there is impurity in thought as well as in act. "Man looketh on the outward appearance, but Jehovah looketh on the heart." Do we not make a great mistake when we treat only one sin as "unfaithfulness." The traitorous heart may show itself in many kinds of unfaithfulness, and it is the traitorous heart that deals the death blow to the divine institution of the home. 8. "Thou shalt not steal." The right of property is recognized and protected in the eighth commandment. The command is not: "Thou shalt not take the property of another." That may be stealing or it may not. The right of property is essential to solid national life. What are some of the "respectable" ways of stealing in business and out of it? 9. "Thou shalt not bear false witness." The right of every man to his own reputation and the duty to respect the similar right of his neighbor is here stated. The primary reference is to perjury, but the principle is the same whether the lie is told in court or elsewhere. Truthfulness is essential to the well-being of any community or nation. May not truthful words in reality "bear false witness," and so is not this command like the others in that the point of it lies in the purpose back of the words? 10. "Thou shalt not covet." etc.: This may also be called a New Testament commandment. It throws its light back over the others and makes us see that righteousness is not an external thing but a matter of the heart. Sin is forbidden, not simply crime.

WORDS OF JESUS.

Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets; I came not to destroy, but to fulfill.

Sixth Commandment.—Ye have heard that it was said unto them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment; but I say unto you, that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say unto his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of the hell of fire.

Seventh Commandment.—Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery; but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

Whole Table.—Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy: But I say unto you, Love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you;

That ye may be sons of your Father who is in Heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans do the same?

And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles do the same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your Heavenly Father is perfect.

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.
No one can keep the second table of the law in its spirit without loving his neighbor as himself.

It is not necessary that one should slay his brother to be at heart a murderer.

There are many ways of stealing besides taking things surreptitiously. Many a false witness is borne by those who say nothing, when by speaking they could vindicate.

You may flee the plague-city, but you cannot run from your own heart when it is infected.

STEPHEN B. ELKINS.

West Virginia Senator Who Has a Little Misunderstanding with the Grand Army.

United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins, who is charged by Dr. Lees, of West Virginia, with misrepresenting his war record in order to gain admission to membership in the G. A. R., makes no mention of having been a union soldier in the biographical sketch of his life, which appears in the congressional directory. Senators and representatives themselves furnish the data of these biographies. According to the entry under Senator Elkins' name he was graduated at the Missouri state university in 1860, was admitted to the bar in 1864, and emigrated that year to Mexico. If he took part in the war on either side the senator sees fit to omit mention of it. The directory sketch gives no account of his doings between 1860 and 1864.

the rafters of the shed or barn. The box is lifted to the desired height, then a crosspiece is passed through the rings suspended from the joists. The block and tackle are then removed and used for hoisting the other end of the box. The same procedure makes it easily possible to remove the hayrack. If desired, a block and tackle can be used for each end.—Orange Judd Farmer.

Fertilizing Value of Soot.

Soot is composed of small unburned particles of fuel which float up with the smoke and are deposited upon the chimney or flues. It is largely carbon with small quantities of nitrogen, potash and phosphoric acid. The fertilizing value of soot is hardly worth considering, yet it often gives results, especially on light or cold soils. It gives a good mechanical effect, and darkens the color of the soil, thus warming it by increasing its capacity for retaining heat. On light soil we should expect some benefit from its use.—Rural New Yorker.

Raising quail for market.

Raising quail and pheasants is being successfully done by E. J. Wilson, an Ohio breeder, who feeds the young chicks on ants and eggs until they are two weeks old. After two weeks, he feeds hard-boiled eggs made fine, a little clover chopped fine and occasionally a little curd, or curd daily instead of eggs. Quails can be raised in the same way with much less bother, for at a week old they can be let run with their bantam mother, and she will take the best of care of them, and bring them in to roost every night.—American Agriculturist.

This is Not a Patent Medicine Ad.

For years I had been a sufferer with chronic stomach trouble, pressure of gas and distress of my bowels. I contracted what the doctors pronounced a low type of malaria. I could not take solid food at all, and only a very little of the lightest of diet would create fever and vomiting. The druggist sent me a box of Ripans Tabules, saying he sold more Ripans than anything else for stomach trouble. I not only found relief, but believe I have been permanently cured.
