

DANGER SIGNALS.

No engineer would be mad enough to run by the flag which signaled danger. What the danger was might not be understood, but he would take no chances. It is different with the average man or woman. They attempt constantly to run by the danger signals of nature and that attempt costs thousands of lives every year. When the appetite becomes irregular or entirely gives out, when sleep is troubled and broken, when there is a loss of flesh, when there is a constant feeling of dullness and languor, Nature is hoisting the danger signal. The stomach and its allied organs are failing in their work and the body is losing the nutrition on which its strength depends. Such a condition calls for the prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and enriches the blood and builds up the body with sound, solid flesh.

"Your kindness to me I can never forget," writes Mrs. Josie E. Clark of Hatteras, North Carolina. "I cannot express half my feelings of gratitude to you. I had despaired of ever getting well. I had been in bad health for twelve years. Had aches all through me, numb hands, cold feet, and everything I ate distressed me. Bowels constipated, was very nervous, depressed and despondent. In fact, I can't express half my feelings to you. When I first wrote you I thought I could never be cured. I have since used six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and my health is now good. You have my honest recommendation to all sufferers. I think there is no medicine in the world so good as Dr. Pierce's."

If constipated use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They cure constipation, biliousness and sick headache. They do not produce the "pill habit."

REUNION OF ARMY OF POTOMAC

Unveiled Monument to General Slocum at Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, Sept. 20.—The reunion of the society of the Army of the Potomac and the dedication of the monument erected in honor of General Henry W. Slocum here yesterday brought an unusual attendance of officers and men. The meeting was held on the battlefield where the Army of the Potomac achieved its greatest victory. General Horatio C. King, secretary of the association called the meeting to order and General H. E. Treman presided. General Brooks, late of the United States Army was chosen president and General King was re-elected secretary. General D. E. Sickles was the leading speaker and addresses were also made by a number of prominent members.

The parade yesterday afternoon under the command of General Lewis R. Stegman moved out Baltimore street to the Slocum statue. In the parade were three governors, Odell, of New York; Stone, of Pennsylvania, and Murphy of New Jersey with their staffs. At the head of the procession was a strong turnout of Post 9, G. A. R., of this place under command of Lieutenant I. S. Stone. Arriving at the monument on Steven's Knoll near Cemetery Hill a vast concourse of people were assembled. The exercises were opened with music by the Seventh Regiment band followed by prayer by Rev. W. T. Pray, of New York, and an address by General D. S. Sickles as chairman of the New York Board of Gettysburg Monument Commission. After music by the Second United States Cavalry band Governor Odell of New York, unveiled the statue during which the U. S. battery fired a major general's salute, and addresses were delivered by General James C. Rogers and Colonel Archibald G. Baxter. Governors Odell, Murphy and Stone were then introduced and made brief responses.

At the Summer Hotel.

Wife—We shall not stay here another day. I have just learned that the Van Smythes are paying twice as much for their rooms as we are for ours, although their rooms are not a bit better.

Husband—I don't see that that is any reason for leaving.

Wife—How stupid you are! Can't you see that the proprietor thinks the Van Smythes have more money than we? And he'll take good care to let every one else know it, too.—Brooklyn Life.

Didn't Know Her.

When the ark was just over Genoa Mrs. Noah burst forth at poor Noah: "Who's this Joan of Arc?" "You are keeping her dark!" "O, no; I don't know her," said Noah.—Princeton Tiger.

Needless Precaution.

"Don't move," said the burglar, showing his revolver, "and don't make a noise, or I'll—"

"Say, you needn't worry," the man whispered. "I'm just as anxious as you are not to have her wake up until after you get away."—Chicago Record-Herald.

YORK COUNTY ROBBED

Treasurer Thompson, Charged With Embezzlement—$73,576 Missing.

York, Pa., Sept. 23.—A sensation was created last night, when the report of H. E. Landis, the accountant who had been examining into the county's financial condition, was made public. Some months ago County Commissioner Jeremiah Hildebrand accidentally discovered that there were apparent stealings of county funds. He had an expert accountant appointed, and last night's report is the result. It is shown that the discrepancy for 1900 is $9,889.95; for 1901, $55,276.77, and for 1902, $8,409.95, a total of $73,576.67. This was done by abstracting bills, by having them repaid and by altering amounts of bills. It was expected that there would be wholesale arrests, but only one was made, that of County Treasurer William O. Thompson, against whom there are ten informations, charging forgery, embezzlement and keeping false accounts.

MAY GO TO LONDON.

Dr. Gonsaulus, the Noted Chicago Preacher, Thinks of Accepting Call from City Temple.

Dr. Frank W. Gonsaulus, pastor of Central church and president of Armour institute at Chicago, may accept a London (England) pastorate in one of the most important non-conformist churches in the British capital. According to word cabled from London, the church is believed to be the famous Congregational City temple, founded and presided over by Dr. Parker, who is now aged and seeking a rest. Dr. Gonsaulus filled this pulpit last Sunday, and preached to a great audience on "The Cardinal Points of Anglo-Saxon Civilization." The call to London would include an offer of the control of some institution such as Armour institute. Re-

SOLDIER KILLED IN A ROW

Stabbed After a Quarrel Over a Bottle of Beer.

Salem, N. J., Sept. 22.—In a row over a bottle of beer, Private Cornelius Whittall, of the Sea Coast Artillery, was stabbed to death on a lot in the rear of Belden street Saturday night. Whittall came to Salem, as many of the fort soldiers do on Saturday nights, for a good time. He fell in with William Lacey and John Ryan at a saloon, and they started out together with some bottles of beer. On the way they got into a fight over the beer. Whittall was a giant, standing over six feet in his shoes, and the other men are small. In the fight one of the soldier's antagonists drew a knife and gave a fierce lunge. The blade struck Whittall in the right breast, cutting a deep gash several inches long. Whittall died in about ten minutes after he got the knife wound. Ryan and Lacey were arrested. Whittall comes from Faubus, Ky.

Fairmount, W. Va., Sept. 23.—By an explosion of gas in the Stafford mines of the New Central Coal Company near here yesterday, four men were killed, six badly wounded and several others were hurt. Superintendent Stewart was at the mine when the explosion occurred and took charge of the rescued miners. The most serious cases were sent to the hospital. All the bodies were recovered.

HAS TO PAY HIS OWN BILLS.

A few days ago Senator Clark, the Montana multi-millionaire, went into a Butte barber shop for a haircut and a shave. When he asked the price at the end of the service the barber replied: "Your son, Charley usually gives me five dollars." The senator quietly asked the regular fee, and when told it was 50 cents, handed out a half-dollar and went his way, with the remark to the barber: "My son Charley has a rich father, and I have not!"

Possibly wheat was the corn so plenty in Egypt when famine drove thither Joseph's unnatural brethren. Wheat went with other precious things into the mummy cases and sealed jars stored in royal tombs. To-day, says Everybody's Magazine, acres by the thousand laugh in bearded grain, said to have sprung from sparse kernels plundered by a ruthless explorer from a royal mummy's hand. Does it whisper now—this new-old Egyptian wheat—to its constant friend the sun, of Rameses and Pharaoh? Of Isis, the sacred bull, of Isis, Egypt's Ceres? Of Osiris? The great Sphinx? And Memnon's head, singing to hail the sunrise? If it would but speak aloud so mortals could comprehend, how our wisdom might be broadened; What a recasting of history must be wrought—and how we boasting moderns might hide diminished heads!

A Michigan fruit farmer who mourned the absence of children from his fireside sent to Michigan Man's a founding home Adopted Family for a party of children, from which he and his good wife might select a little son and daughter for adoption. The institution sent a party of 22 bright little boys and girls for a brief outing on his farm. The farmer and his wife are said to have become so attached to all of them that they could not make a choice, and therefore have adopted the whole bunch of 22 children. Now there will be no more lonely, silent fireside for the farmer during the long evenings of winter; and then think of the delight of 22 pairs of nimble little hands and their 22 nimble little fingers when berry-picking season comes on next year.

For many years there has been a constant struggle between the manufacturers of projectiles and those who make armor plates. No sooner would some one discover a method of making "indestructible" plates or battleships than somebody else would invent a shell that would pierce it. Another armor would be constructed that would resist this projectile. Now the government experts come to the front with the statement that they have a shell that will penetrate any battleship armor and blow it up. If this is true, then it will be necessary for all the navies to find some method of protection. Where this competition will end nobody can tell.

RIPANS

I have experienced a wonderful result in using Ripans Tabules I was seriously affected with indigestion and heartburn. A friend suggested trying Ripans, and I was surprised at the improvement. On making application a few years ago for policy of insurance I was refused on account of a weak heart, but the same company passed me recently, and I gave Ripans Tabules credit for the health I am enjoying. I can certainly recommend them to any one suffering with palpitation of the heart or indigestion.
