Through our Early Buying Comes the Saving.
Prices have advanced to such an extent on all bedding materials that other stores who did not place their orders early in the summer are forced to charge more for the same kinds than we do.
Another Advantage Gained too
The size is larger and the weight heavier than what we sold last year at the same price—we buy cheaper and so sell cheaper than a year before.
Take as an example the Gray Cotton Blankets we are selling at 50c a pair. The price today on the actual market is 57c wholesale. Last year our 50c Cotton Blankets were 10-4 size and weighed 11 pounds; this year the size is 11-4 and the weight, 21 pounds. While the supply lasts, the price will remain 50c a pair, last year's price for this same size was 75c.
Other qualities in Cotton, fancy colored borders, white and gray finished edges, 11-4 size $1, 1-25 and 1-50 a pair. Worth today's price, $1.25, 1-50 and 2-00 instead.
11-4 Gray Wool Blankets, fancy borders of Blue and pink, $2.25, 2-50, 3-00, 4-00 and 5-00 a pair.
Muney All-Wool Blankets are unsurpassed for fineness—finest Wool Blanket made, 100 per cent. wool, pink and blue borders.
10-4 size, $5 a pair; 11-4 size, $6.50 a pair. Scarlet same price.
Muney Omega, made from finest white California wool, pink and yellow, red and blue borders 11-4 size $10; 12-4 size, $12 a pair.
Australian Wool Crib Blankets, white with pink and blue borders, 32 x 42 inches, $2 a pair; 36 x 50 inches $2.25 a pair.
New and Stylish Silks.
We have planned great things for our silk department this fall. One of the most interesting sections of the store. We always have a satisfying assortment of the newest and most favored silks.
Large Plaid Taffetas.—Plaid will be more in evidence this fall than ever before, used largely for waists. Our line includes all the most fashionable color combinations, at $1.25 per yard.
Shepherd Plaids in white and black are very popular. We have all the wanted size checks at 89c a yard.
Changeable Taffetas.—A superb quality in all the new colorings, must see them to appreciate their loveliness. Make handsome gowns and linings, at 89c a yard.
Fancies—The handsomest products of the silk makers. To describe them is out of the question, at $1.00 and $1.35 a yard.
Black Taffetas.—The "bread and butter" of the silk business. Constantly a stir at the counter near. We the sited residence on Sassafras street to Wm. W. Dreese for $1150.

Miss Fox of Beaver Springs had her Millinery opening in Sheriff Specht's room the beginning of the week.
Sheriff Row sold the personal property of F. E. Specht Tuesday.

MRS. HENRIETTA A. S. MARSH

Woman's Benevolent Association of Chicago.
Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh, President Women's Benevolent Association, of 927 Jackson Park Terrace, Woodlawn, Chicago, Ill., says:
"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks and nothing helped me until I tried Peruna. I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.
Independent Order of Good Templars, of Washington.
Mrs. T. W. Collins, Treasurer I. O. G. T., of Everett, Wash., has used the great catarrhal tonic, Peruna, for an aggravated case of dyspepsia. She writes:
"After having a severe attack of la grippe, I also suffered with dyspepsia. After taking Peruna I could eat my regular meals with relish, my system was built up, my health restored, and I have remained in excellent health and vigor now for over a year."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.
If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
