REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Next Tuesday between the hours of 7 a. m., and 7 p. m., will occur one of the most important elections that have occurred since the Presidential election two years ago. The principles involved in this fight are as important to the people of Pennsylvania as were those in the national campaign two years ago. The Republican party has nominated men of standing and ability. On the state ticket we have the Hon. Samuel W. Pennypacker for Governor; William M. Brown for Lieutenant Governor, and Isaac Brown for Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The ticket, headed as it is, by one of the most learned judges of the courts of Pennsylvania, a man whose judgement has been unimpeached, and has only been criticized by the Democrats since he became a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people of Pennsylvania. We have had sufficient experience with the administration of Robert E. Pattison, that we do not need any more. The right way for every voter to do is to get on the right side of the subject, put his mark in the circle at the head of the first column, and vote the entire Republican ticket.

For Congressman, the Hon. Thaddeus M. Mahon has been nominated in the 17th district of Pennsylvania. He is too well known to need any further comments from us. The Post last week gave quite a lengthy description of his career in the Legislature and also what he has done for his constituents. A man who has served for many years in congress is better able to accomplish something for his constituents than a new man.

Besides, party principle is involved and Mr. Mahon's opponent would represent a vote for principles contrary to the prosperity of the country.

Going down more particularly to our county ticket the people of Snyder County have nominated for Assemblyman, Francis C. Bowersox, of this place. This nomination was given un-animously, a compliment which has not been extended to any one for many years, except in case of the second term. Mr. Bowersox has been superintendent of the public schools of Snyder county and is known by every man, woman and child in the county, so that no one need hesitate to give him his hearty support. He has always been a full-fledged Republican and a hearty party worker. Do not fail to vote for Bowersox.

For the office of High Sheriff, Charles E. Sampsell of Centre township has been nominated. Mr. Sampsell is one of the hardest and stiffest Republicans that can be found anywhere in Snyder county. Once defeated for the nomination, he did not become a sore head, but was outspoken in favor of the successful candidate. Mr. Sampsell certainly deserves the vote of every Republican in the county and no doubt will get the votes of many Democrats.

D. Norman App of Monroe Township was nominated for county treasurer. He is one of the most successful and most enterprising farmers we have in the county today. He is a large stock raiser and a congenial and enterprising citizen. He is always ready to lend a helping hand in any progressive movement and will never be found wanting in the Republican column.

For County Commissioners, Harrison Moyer, of Middleburg and Jonathan Reichenbach, of Perry township have been nominated. For County auditors, C. M. Arbogast of Perry, and John M. Boyer, of Sellingsrove. For coroner Dr. A. J. Herman, of this place.

In the case of the last five mentioned there is no opposition and they will certainly be elected but they should be given as large a vote as possible in order to show the strength of the Republican party.

Do not allow anything trivial to prevent you from going to the polls and doing your full duty next Tuesday. Vote the entire Republican ticket by placing a mark in the circle at the top of the first column.

Judge Pennypacker is making a good impression upon the public platform. He has the faculty of hitting from the shoulder. That he is honest goes without saying. His utterances show it and his unimpeachable record upon the bench for many years proves it.

HENSEL TAKES WATER

The Democratic Ex-Attorney General Refuses to Accept Quay's Challenge.

The defiance of Senator Quay to Democratic ex-Attorney General W. U. Hensel, and Democratic camp followers generally, demanding that he reveal the names of members of the legislature whom he (Hensel) said were bribed, was met with a back-down. Hensel failed absolutely to name any one.

It was in Philadelphia, at the Academy of Music on Saturday night last, and a more complete political back-down was never seen in state politics. Hensel was the star speaker at the Democratic mass meeting. When he came to Senator Quay's defiance, uttered in Pittsburg the night before, he endeavored to turn it aside.

Instead of answering Quay's demand that he give the names of the bribed and bribers, he invited Senator Quay to make his queries on that subject of some one else.

The Philadelphia Press had this to say of the Hensel fiasco:

"Disappointment was the central feature of the Democratic meeting at the Academy of Music last night. The big auditorium was only half filled at 8.30 o'clock, when the managers, who had been hopefully awaiting the arrival of more persons, reluctantly forced their star attractions onto the stage and called less than 1,500 people to order.

The chief disappointment, however, was for the comparatively small number of persons present—most of them had been attracted by the Pittsburg challenge of Senator Quay to former Attorney General Hensel to be specific in his charges of corruption and name the members of the legislature who were bribed, the amounts they received and the men who paid them. Following the many charges of bribery and this bold note of defiance to the Democrats from Senator Quay the expectation was general among those who went to the Academy of Music last night that Mr. Hensel would say something sensational. He did not, however.

The Press then gives some quotations from Hensel's back down speech, refusing to give names or specific facts.

What Mr. Hensel failed to say was that all rumors of bribery concerned Democrats, members of his own party, and for that reason he did not dare to mention names.

This ended the Democratic sensation begun by Pattison, Hensel & Co. and promptly squelched by State Chairman Quay.

The American Plan.
Foreigner—What do you Americans do when the officials you elect fail in their duty to the public, and line their own pockets?

American—Do? Why, sir, we hold indignation meetings—yes, sir; and sometimes, sir, our righteous wrath passes all bounds of propriety, and we actually burn them in effigy—yes, sir.

"What do you do next?"
"Next? Why—er—we go back to our business, forget all about it, and elect 'em again."—N. Y. Weekly.
