KEEPING CONSTANTLY AT IT IS THE KEY TO SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISING.
You cannot spurt much and win. A business career that goes by fits and starts will not pay so well in the long run as a business that follows a course mapped out for it and keeps increasing its advertising as the business demands it until the maximum is reached. There is a maximum for a small business beyond which it is not economy or policy to go.—Brookline Chronicle.
Our columns furnish the key to successful advertising in this community.

Notice to Subscribers.
At various times we have been clubbing the "Farm News" published at Springfield, O. In each case we paid for it a year. No longer.
We learned from some of our subscribers that the publishers are in the habit of continuing the paper after the expiration of the time paid and when several years have elapsed send the subscriber a bill.
In order that there may be no misunderstanding concerning the matter, all subscribers of the Post who are getting the "Farm News", are reminded that we offered and paid for only one year and that those who do not wish to pay for it are advised to refuse it when the year paid for has expired.
If you are satisfied with it and wish to pay for it, you can accept it as long as you see proper, but we simply want to let you all know the conditions.

CAUGHT IN A COAL DIGGER.
Harry Fisher's Frightful Experience in the River at Sunbury.
Harry Fisher, aged about twenty-two years, who resides in Shamokin Dam, was severely injured while digging coal in the river Friday morning, and had a narrow escape from meeting a horrible death.
Fisher is employed on the Coryell digger, which left Shamokin Dam Friday morning, to dig coal in the North Branch, near the island. About nine o'clock, while attending to his work, his clothing in some manner caught in the shafting and machinery and the unfortunate man was whirled around through space at a rapid rate of speed. Fisher's fellow workers noticed his pre-dilement and realized that prompt action was necessary in order to save the young man's life rushed to his rescue and the machinery was stopped and he was released from his perilous position. An examination showed that Fisher was severely injured and while he was being taken to his home at Shamokin Dam, on the digger, several of his friends came to Sunbury and summoned Dr. Hard to attend to his injuries. Dr. Hard visited the injured man and after making a thorough examination found that his injuries were not of a serious nature. The extent of his injuries are severe bruises about the head and face and badly shaken up. Fisher's clothing was very badly torn, being stripped from the body at different places and had it not been for the quick action of his fellow employes he would have been seriously injured and perhaps killed.

Pennsylvania gives Pennacker about 165,000 majority, Mahon carries the district for Congress, and the entire republican ticket is elected.
