

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE ANNOUNCEMENT.

audience that has ever assembled here at an entertainment of the lecture course. Everyone was pleased with the entertainment furnished. Moweaqua Call-Mail. Ritchie's feats of legerdemain are marvelous, and he wins the good will of the audience from the start with his pleasant humor and gentlemanly demeanor.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 26, 1902.

The Brockaway Jubilee Singers. "The Greatest Company of Colored Artists that has ever appeared here," has been the universal verdict of press and public wherever this superb attraction has appeared throughout America. The old Washington Hall was filled to its utmost capacity last night to welcome the Jubilee Singers. The singing was excellent in every particular. Each number was followed by hearty applause and in some instances the encores were so numerous and persistent that it seemed as if the audience were loath to let the singers go. Daily Standard, Watertown, N. Y.

THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 27, 1902.

Eli Perkins (Melville D. Landon). Subject—Philosophy of Wit and Humor, and Stories Around the Stove. We append the following press notices: He packed the Opera House and delighted his audience.—Louisville Courier-Journal. Ely Perkins' humor before our Y. M. C. A. was quaint, instructive and irresistible.—St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette. The most amusing, laugh-provoking and instructive lecture ever listened to in Bloomington.—Bloomington (Ill.) Pantograph.

A Foolish Question.
Dora—Oh, I'm in such distress of mind and I want your advice. I am loved by three men, and I don't know which to accept.
Clara—Which one has the most money?
Dora—If I knew that, do you suppose I'd waste precious time running around for advice?—N. Y. Weekly.

Very, Very Different.
She—But how do I know you love me?
He—Why, I can't sleep nights, thinking of you.
She—That proves nothing. Pa can't sleep nights thinking of you, but I hardly think it is love.—Judge.

A Victim of Wealth.
Patience—I told you her money would come pretty close to turning her head.
Patrice—Well, has it?
"She used to be a brunette; now she's a pronounced blonde."—Yonkers Statesman.

Talking It Over Outside.
"She always said she preferred to be the wife of one of the plain people, but they say the man she married is heir to a fortune."
"Still she's got her wish all right. I never saw a homelier chap than he is in my life."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Queer Wish.
He—How charmingly you sing.
She—Do you really think so?
He—Oh, yes, indeed, I never listen to you without wishing you were where my folks in Colorado could hear you.—Chicago American.

Taken by Storm.
He stole a kiss! So quick 'twas done
She did not know what he was at,
He never stole another one—
She gave them to him after that.
—Philadelphia Press.

JUST WHAT HE HAD NEEDED.

The Curate—Well, and what did you think of my sermon?
The Farm Bird—Capital. The very thing I wanted. I hadn't slept a wink for a week.—Moonshine.

Accidents Will Happen.
Landlady—Yes, sir; two chickens went into that soup.
Boarder—Never mind, ma'am, never mind. No harm done; no one would ever suspect it. I assure you.—Brooklyn Life.

Great Learning.
Kind Lady (horridly)—My child, I hope you don't swear!
Small Boy—Naw, not much; but I'm learnin'. Say, youse other hear my paw!—Ohio State Journal.

Digging for It.
"When a man is working hard, why do they say he is digging away?"
"Because, my boy, he is after the root of all evil, and how else can he reach it?"—Chicago Post.

Salting and Salting.
"Well, 'salting' a mine may be a good way to sell it to folks what want to buy anything, but it don't work with other things," remarked Johnny Upbeecreek to his friend, Willie Hayrick.
"Been tryin' it?" asked Willie.
"No; but a feller I sold a string of fish to the other day came back inside an hour and said he would lek me if I didn't give him his money back. He was real mad just because I'd sold him some salt mackerel, out'n the grocery store."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Colds

"I had a terrible cold and could hardly breathe. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it gave me immediate relief."
W. C. Layton, Sidell, Ill.

How will your cough be tonight? Worse, probably. For it's first a cold, then a cough, then bronchitis or pneumonia, and at last consumption. Coughs always tend downward. Stop this downward tendency by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Three sizes: 25c., enough for an ordinary cold; 50c., just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1., most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.
J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

In Keeping.
"I really believe he married her only because he wanted a good housekeeper."
"And now I suppose he wishes he could give her a month's warning."—Brooklyn Life.

Proof Positive.
Green—How do you know that Scribbles and wife are such a loving couple?
Brown—Because she reads everything he writes, and he eats everything she cooks.—Chicago Daily News.

Now What Did She Mean?
He—Nice dog! Have you taught him any tricks since I was here last?
"Oh, yes; he will fetch your hat if you whistle," said she, sweetly.—Tit-Bits.

House Paint.
