Big Cash business is Why we can afford to sell at such low prices.

J. G. Chesnutt

King of Small Profits. Cut this ad. out, you may not see it again.

A business firm which has become conspicuous through gambling in corn and railroads reports the receipt of $20 from a Missouri woman who begged them so to invest it as to produce $200. That the folly which prompted this appeal is common the success of catch-penny frauds like the Franklin Syndicate in New York abundantly proves. In this case the woman lost nothing—the brokers returned the money. No one knows better than they that an investment that will yield 900 per cent. profit with safety is impossible.

Neither Morgan nor Rockefeller nor Lord Rothschild could fulfill such a request. Twenty dollars may in some cases be turned into $200 by bucket-shop gambling on stocks, but for every such "success" more than 20 must lose their money. The brokers with their commissions for buying and selling are the only sure winners. Such use of money is no more like "investment" than is gambling on the races. The $20 sent by the Missouri woman had been placed by her husband in the family Bible for deposit later in the savings bank. His idea, as the New York World remarks, was not original or brilliant, but it was excellently safe. Fortunately it can still be carried out.

One Attraction Missing.
"Say," said the young writer who had been engaged by the circus man to write up a prospectus of the show, "I've about exhausted my vocabulary on this thing. Have you a thesaurus?"
"No, by thunder!" said the circus man. "We've only got a rhinoceros, but I'll cable over and buy one."—N. Y. Times.

Appetizing.
Missionary—I have come to save you.
Cannibal Chief—You're just in time. I am almost starved to death.—N. Y. Journal.

Appropriate.
"I notice that somebody says that the pigskin has taken the place of the sheepskin for college diplomas."
"That ought to suit the rooters."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Skeptical.
"They were married in haste, you say?"
"Yes; each was afraid the other would back out."—N. Y. Times.

Success Calendars.

THE publishers of SUCCESS have issued an exquisitely engraved twelve-leaf Calendar. This Calendar is one of the finest examples of the famous Colortype Process, which excels lithography in its beautiful soft tones and colorings. The twelve designs are original paintings made for SUCCESS by America's leading artists, and represent subjects of general and inspirational interest. The original of the one for December, for instance, is a most exquisite painting by the famous artist, J. C. Leyendecker, representing "The Three Wise Men of the East."

The SUCCESS Calendar will be sent entirely FREE of charge and post-paid to any address on request.
