Samuel Wagner of Mifflin county spent part of last week with Howard Treaster and family.

The cold spell we had last week finished plowing for their next season's corn crop.

DUNDORE.

The year 1903 is thus far very much like its predecessor, cloudy, sunshiny, rain, snow, sleet, cold mild, what a mixture! and it is hoped that it will be crowned with progress and prosperity.

Requie Sechrist is on a fair way of tying the knots for all our young people, and the one on New Year challenges the admiration of all the parties concerned.

The antics of Verdilla made our streets lively on New Year, and what they lacked in quantity they made up in quality.

Jacob Kerstetter, Elias Wolf, and John H. Wise are hauling lime for the benefit of their land.

Potato buyers are persistent and paying 50 cts.

J. D. Reigle has a horse that is on the sick list.

Henry Hoot has a fresh cow for sale.

The Susquehanna Coal Breaker has more orders for coal than they are able to fill.

J. M. Rambo had a good offer for his real estate but prefers to let good enough alone.

The Hoovers intend to establish a rope ferry below the aqueduct.

P. A. Shafer and wife have moved to Jersey Shore where he has steady employment at good wages. The best wishes of their many friends follow them.

W. W. Sholly and L. Strawser of Verdilla were in town looking at the political situation.

A Grocery Store at Sunbury is getting our Merchant's potatoes.

Our Calathumpian band is of the highest order, and on account of their efficiency have gained a national reputation, and expect a call from abroad.

The Candidates for township offices are numerous and it is hoped that our heavy tax payers will keep the township in their control.

There are a number of farms to rent in our township.

The Rabbit season is past but the rabbits are plentiful yet.

BEAVERTOWN.

Prof. G. W. Walborn visited our schools Friday.

Christmas visitors were too numerous to mention at this late date.

The fantastic display on New Year's day surpassed all previous records.

Mrs. Sallie Walter of Sunbury visited her parents, El. Hummel and family.

Absalom Coleman of Salem was seen on our streets Monday.

Cold Comfort from Doctors.

Doctors say neuralgia is not dangerous. This is poor consolation to a sufferer who feels as if his face were pierced with hot needles and torn with a thousand pairs of pincers. A word of advice to him: Stay indoors and use Perry Davis' Painkiller. The blessed freedom from pain which follows this treatment cannot be told. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

By Bribing the Nerves.

with opium a cough may be stopped temporarily, but the inflammation of which the cough is a symptom goes from bad to worse. Do not waste time and money on delusive "cough mixtures." Remember that Allen's Lung Balsam does not merely put the nerves to sleep. It gets right down to the root of the trouble and so cures even deep-seated affections of the throat and lungs.

His Tools.

Good tools, good workman. But what of the man who knows only the tools his grandfather used? Devote lead and zinc is the paint; but some painters don't know it yet.

Many State Chemists.

Have analyzed Devco and found lead, zinc, color, linseed oil, and turpentine drier; nothing else. The maker offers $100 reward for finding anything else.

The Eureka Mfg. Co., of East St. Louis, Ill., want a man with a rig to introduce Poultry Mixture in this county.
