A MARVELOUS INVENTION.

Wonder never ceases. A machine has been invented that will clean and hang wall paper. The result of inventions and discoveries seems to be unlimited. Notable among great discoveries is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It has done a world of good for weak lungs and saved many a life. Physicians have used it and conquered Grip, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and Consumption. Their general verdict is: "It is the best and most reliable medicine for throat and lung troubles. Not Easy to Catch.

"Gracious, mother, these young millionaires are growing more and more cautious every day!"

"Why, what is it now?"
"Mr. Van Castorbilt refused last night to accompany me to dinner without a chaperone."—Brooklyn Life.

Ready to Be Tempted.

Willie (who has eaten his apple)—
Mabel, let's play Adam and Eve. You be Eve and I'll be Adam.

Mabel—All right. Well?
Willie—Now you tempt me to eat
your apple, and I'll give way to temptation.—Tit-Bits.

Visions of Rest.

"Oh, John," exclaimed the proud mother, as her husband came wearily up the front steps, "baby is beginning to walk!"
"Good!" ejaculated the midnight
martyr. "Now he can do his own floor-walking at night."—Chicago Daily News.

Insomnia.

"Good morning, sir," said a stranger,
addressing Rip Van Winkle, as the latter came down out of the mountains from his 20-year sleep, "and how are you feeling this morning?"
"I am feeling bum—very bum," replied Rip, in the usual grumbling way of mankind. "Why, I never slept a wink all night."—Boston Post.

To get rid of Her.

Mae—How did Bessie raise the money to go abroad and study music?
Ethel—The neighbors took up a subscription, I believe.—Puck.

Willing to Help Her Out.

Mollie—What a long name that heress has.
Chollie—Yes; but if I had my way
she'd not have it long.—Yonkers Statesman.

Disclaimed.

Wife—I heard that you made the remark that I was talking you to death.
Husband—Nonsense! I merely said
I wished you would.—N. Y. Herald.

Often the Case.

"What a sharp voice she has,"
"Yes, but somehow her words always blurt."—Philadelphia Be-tin.

His Oversight.

He—Why didn't you answer
letter asking you to marry me?
She—You didn't enclose a stamp.
Town and Country.

Suits and Overcoats.

SUITS.

We have an excellent line of fall and winter suits which we offer at the following low prices:
