Boarding House at Portage, Pa., Blown Up to Hide Double Crime.

TWO DEAD AND TWO INJURED

Finding of Bodies After the Explosion Revealed Mysterious Crime - Between $800 and $900 Missing-Many Other Buildings Damaged.

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 10.-A dastardly attempt to hide robbery and murder resulted in the wrecking by dynamite of an Italian boarding house at Portage, this county, early yesterday morning. Two persons are dead, two are injured and a score of others had miraculous escapes from death when the explosive let go. The concussion broke the windows in all the buildings for nearly a square and did some other damage. The dead are: Tony Grillo, aged 44; Mrs. Tony Grillo, aged 41.

Ralph Tellilido and Joe Destavo were seriously injured.

The scene of the affair was an Italian boarding house occupied by Grillo, his wife, three daughters and about 25 boarders.

When the explosive let go the inmates were hurled in all directions, but the most of them escaped serious injury. The bodies of Grillo and his wife were found buried beneath the ruins of the building, which was completely demolished. The boarders are all employed about the railroad at Portage. They had no occasion to use dynamite, and none of the explosive was known to be in the house, yet persons familiar with its use say that at least 25 pounds must have been put off under the room where Grillo and his three little girls slept. It was stated that Grillo had between $600 and $700 and his wife $200 more in the house, but none of the money has yet peen lound, and the theory is that it was stolen by some one who killed the couple and then exploded the dynamite to cover the crime. Evidence wnich developed yesterday afternoon tends to strengthen this theory.

The coroner's examination disclosed the fact that Grillo's head was crushed as if by some heavy instrument, and his ribs were all caved in. Further investigation is being made.

Among the places damaged were the Exchange, Doney's and Yerkley's Hotels, the offices of Stricker & Coffield, | cout before Christmas at a Alexander Wright's jewelry store and Silverman & Goodman's general store, The entire population of the town was to-day. We will surprise our aroused. Shortly before the explosion a man was seen running away,

A WOMAN'S AWFUL CRIME

Confessed to Killing Husband and Burning Body In Kitchen Stove.

Monticello, N. Y., Feb. 9. - Mrs Lafayette Taylor, of Centreville, Sul. Comfortables, Underwear, and Hvan county, yesterday confessed to Goods. Come in and sec having killed her husband. Lafayette trouble to show goods, Taylor, and burned the body, on January 25 to escape detection. Taylor disappeared on the night of January 25 and was supposed to have deserted his family. On February 5 Mrs. Taylor attempted to sell a horse to a Centreville man, who would not buy for fear Taylor might come back and claim it. Mrs. Taylor fold him to rest easy on that point, for she had killed him and burned his body.

The 14-year-old daughter of the Taylors was asked about the story her mother had told about having killed her father. She said the story was true. Mrs. Taylor was arrested, and yesterday made a full confession.

Her story is that her husband, who was a hard drinker, came home on the night of January 25 very drunk and began to abuse her. She secured a revolver, which she had purchased a few days before, and tried to frighten him. He attempted to take it from her, and in the struggle it went off, the bullet striking him over the eye and killing him instantly. She was so frightened for fear of being arrested for murder that she decided to cut up the body and burn it. Her 14-year-old daughter witnessed the shooting and helped her to cut up the body in small pieces with an axe and burn it in the kitchen stove, together with the clothing of the victim. The burnt bones were ground fine and fed to the hens. The blood spots were covered up with paint.

Mrs. Taylor says sne confessed because the crime haunted her. The daughter has not been arrested yet.

Endorse Slave Pension Bill.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 9 .- At the regular meeting yesterday of the R. E. Lee Camp, United Confederate Veterans, a resolution endorsing Senator Hanna's bill to pension former slaves was introduced by the state historian, Judge C. C. Cummings, and passed by an almost unanimous vote. The resolution urges that Texas representatives in congress support the Hanna measure to the extent of rewarding ex-slaves who remained at home, within the ages set forth in the bill or those who went with their masters in the war, but that those be excepted who were inlisted in the United States volunteer service and already are on the pension list.

Earthquake at Owensboro, Ky. Owensboro, Ky., Feb. 9.-A distinct earthquake shock was felt here at 6.45 o'clock last night. Pictures were shaken from walls and tables in the second stories of many houses. The shock was also felt at several other Kentucky towns and by some in Illi-

His Own Crafty Way.

Fusilby-Human nature is a funny thing. It was said I had quit drinking, and everybody I met asked me to take something.

Glassby-And you couldn't accept. Poor fellow!

Fusilby-Oh, yes, I accepted every time. It was I who started the reformation story, you know .- Boston
