

J. W. WRIGHT ARRESTED

London Promoter, Charged With Colossal Frauds, Held at New York.

CLAIMS KING EDWARD AS FRIEND

Wright is Charged With Wrecking Concern Capitalized at $60,675,000. Members of Royal Family May Be Connected With Gigantic Swindle.

New York, March 16.—J. Whitaker Wright, the London promoter, who is accused of being concerned in colossal frauds in connection with the organization of various financial corporations, was arrested yesterday on the arrival of the French liner steamer La Lorraine from Havre. The arrest was made by two central office detectives at the request of the London police.

Wright was taken to police headquarters and later to the Tombs police court, where he was arraigned before a magistrate and turned over to the United States authorities. He was then taken to the Ludlow street jail.

With Wright on the steamship was a tall, good-looking young woman, who said she was the niece of the prisoner. Her name was on the passenger list as Miss F. Browne. Wright when told that he was under arrest showed no evidence of excitement, and said that he was a friend of King Edward. His principal concern was to avoid publicity, and he asked that his arrest be kept from the newspapers. Wright and his companion were entered on the original passenger list as M. Andreoni and Mlle. Andreoni.

Wright and the young woman occupied one of the finest deck suites on the steamship. Wright was sitting at a desk in his cabin when found by the detectives. When addressed by name, he at once admitted his identity, and on being told that he was under arrest at the request of the London police, said:

"That was a business transaction. I understood that the matter was all settled in parliament. This is a surprise to me. I am willing to go with you. All I want is to get away from here with as little noise as possible. Don't let the newspapers know anything about this."

The financial crash of the companies floated by Whitaker Wright came in December, 1909. There were 11 of these, including the parent company, entitled the London and Globe Finance Corporation, with a total capitalization of $60,675,000. Wright was the managing director.

One of the victims of the crash was the late Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, formerly governor general of Canada and British ambassador at Paris. He consented to be chairman of the London and Globe, and had 25,000 shares in the different companies. With Lord Dufferin on the board of directors were Lieutenant General Gough-Calthorpe, who was colonel of the Fifth Dragoon Guards, and Lord Edward William Pelham-Clinton, master of the late queen's household, and son of the fifth Duke of Newcastle. When the crash came Lord Dufferin was censured severely for his connection with the Wright companies, but in a frank speech to the stockholders of the London and Globe Corporation he declared his position and won the sympathy of the country. His wealth, at one time large, was believed to have been swallowed up in these companies.

Much American money was lost in the failure of the Wright companies. There was a great outcry against the authorities in not prosecuting Wright and his fellow directors of the London and Globe. A fund of $25,000 was raised on the London Stock Exchange to initiate the prosecution of Wright, Arnold White, the author, at a meeting, said the reason the prosecution was not undertaken by the government was that the directors of the London and Globe were sheltering themselves behind members of the royal family. He added that he understood a royal duke had invested his money in the concern, and he believed that "certain hangers-on at court" were using the name of the king and others for the purpose of hiding their own nefarious deeds. Other speakers at this meeting declared that the stockholders of the London and Globe were victims of one of the most "terrible, heartless and gigantic swindles of the present age."

They Blew Out the Gas. Baltimore, Md., March 16.—Margaret Beck, 17 years old, and Louisa Gebel, 18 years old, immigrants from Bavaria, who arrived here Saturday on the North German Lloyd steamer Frankfurt, were found in their room at the home of the former's uncle yesterday, unconscious. The Beck girl has since died and Miss Gebel is in a critical condition. The gas jet was turned on, and it is supposed that one of the young ladies blew out the flame Saturday night upon retiring.

Czar's Decree Does Not Affect Jews. New York, March 17.—Dispatches from two Hebrews in Russia were printed in a local Jewish paper yesterday to the effect that the czar's recent decree proclaiming religious freedom will not affect the Jews. The dispatches are from Baron Horace N. Guenzburg, of St. Petersburg, and E. Sokoloff, publisher of a newspaper at Warsaw.

She Is Dying For Love at 13. Pottsville, Pa., March 16.—Tired of life at 12 years of age, Bessie Confehr lies at her home in Branchdale, near here, critically ill from drinking three ounces of laudanum. Despite her tender years, the girl was disappointed in love.

MURDERS FOR $100 EACH

Philadelphia Police Have Startling Evidence Against a "Doctor."

MANY GRAVES TO BE SEARCHED

Mrs. W. G. Danze and "Dr." Hoossey Held For Death of Woman's Husband—Murder By Poison Instead of Divorce.

Philadelphia, March 14.—Charged with having poisoned her husband, William G. Danze, who died 18 months ago, Mrs. Catherine Danze, of 2525 North Fourth street, was committed to prison yesterday, without bail, and George Hoossey, a negro "herb doctor" and fortune teller, who, it is charged, sold poison to the woman, was also held without bail as an accessory to the alleged crime.

The woman has been under arrest several days, but pending a further investigation she was not arraigned until yesterday afternoon. The principal witness against her was a private detective who was detailed to look into the manner of the husband's death. His investigations led him to call on "Dr." Hoossey, the detective feigning illness. While he was being treated for "kidney trouble" the detective told him he was having trouble with a woman, and after further conversation the "doctor" volunteered to sell him a powder that would kill the woman in three days. The "doctor" said he had given a woman some powder more than a year ago to get rid of her husband. The woman promised the "doctor" $100, but only gave him $51.

A city detective then took up the story and told of having found two boxes of rough-on-rats in the negro's store. He also told of Mrs. Danze's arrest, and testified that she admitted having secured a drug from Hoossey, which she put in her husband's coffee in order to cure him of the drinking habit; that he was a hard drinker and abused her. She further admitted, the detective said, that she paid Hoossey after she had collected $3,000 insurance that was on her husband's life.

A chemist testified that the package the negro intended to give the private detective to kill the fictitious woman contained 160 grains of white arsenic. The body of the husband was exhumed Thursday afternoon and the vital organs were turned over to a chemist for investigation. This will take several weeks, and pending his report no date will be set for the inquest.

Mrs. Danze, who has a daughter 19 years of age, and a son 18, has always borne a good reputation. The physician who attended the husband in his last illness assigned rheumatism of the heart as the cause of death. The physician said he had been a chronic sufferer from this disease.

Well-known physicians in all sections of the city have reported cases to the district attorney that will probably lead to the opening of many graves and to the holding of as many inquests by the coroner. In each of these cases the patient first appeared with a minor complaint, which grew progressively worse and which, just before death, manifested what are now recalled as the usual symptoms of arsenical poisoning. In each of these reported cases there is a story of insurance, disturbed domestic relations, or an affair of next of kin. It is said Hoossey's home was visited frequently by many women, most of whom wore heavy veils, who bought his deadly poisons.

A clean sweep was made of all the physicians in the northeastern section of the city who have signed death certificates within the past two years that specify heart lesions as the cause of death, and seven of these practitioners were closeted with Assistant District Attorney Shoyer for several hours, during which time they went over their office records in the mortality cases, and frankly stated their suspicions. In each of these a thorough investigation was ordered, and the local managers of all life insurance companies were asked for information concerning the policies paid upon the risks in the cases.

It is not believed, however, that "Dr." Hoossey was knowingly a party to any extensive plan to murder people for insurance money. This theory is based upon his moderate means. Being uncommonly shrewd, Hoossey would have demanded a large share of any proceeds derived from any policies issued on the lives of his victims. His specialty seemed to be the clearing up of disturbed domestic relations by deliberate murder, with the insurance feature as a secondary incident of his work. His price, according to the memorandum found in his shop, was invariably $100. Some of his patrons are only referred to by numbers, others by hieroglyphics that nobody but himself will ever be able to solve, but there can be no mistake about the entry "$100" that appears after each of 34 entries made on the same record with the $51 entry which admittedly applies to Mrs. Catherine Danze and the $10 entry which identifies the case of Detective Gavin, who says he contracted to have his wife murdered by Hoossey for $100.

Sensational Escape From Jail. Jackson, Miss., March 17.—Four prisoners confined in the city jail here made a sensational escape yesterday by sawing their cell bars. The men were George Thomas and John Burns, United States prisoners; J. E. Leland and W. E. McDonald. It is said that the men were assisted by a mysterious woman dressed in black, and who is said to have been in the jail previously. Leland and McDonald were confined on a charge of burglary, and McDonald was under sentence of 27 years for bigamy.

RANDOM NOTES.

The church at Jerusalem was a center of will proceed gleavor. From various sources we learn that Peter was a missionary to the Jews as far as Babylon and Rome; Andrew to Scythia, Asia Minor and Greece; John to Asia Minor, especially Ephesus; Jude to Assyria and Persia; Thomas to Syria, and perhaps Persia and India; and James to Egypt and Palestine. Antioch, 300 miles to the north, later became a new center.

EFFECT OF TOBACCO.

Figures from Colleges Show That Nicotine Stunts Growth of Students.

Nicotine interferes with growth, and its effect in that regard is very measurable. At Yale during the four years' course the nonusers of tobacco, although taller when they enter, gain 24 per cent. more in height and 16.7 per cent. more in girth of chest than do the habitual users. Dr. Hitchcock, of Amherst college, found even greater differences. The difference in the lung capacity is very striking in the two classes, and has been noticed by all observers. It shows the effect of tobacco on the respiration, nicotine being a potent depressor. As regards the effect of nicotine on the mental processes, it is more difficult to interpret the meaning of statistics. Out of the highest scholarship men at Yale only five per cent. use tobacco, while of the men who do not get appointments, 60 per cent. use it. It is not necessary to interpret this as meaning that mental decrepitude follows the use of tobacco by young men, for there are other factors to be considered; but it is certainly not conducive to the best work.—World's Work.

Regarding Prayer.

God within will be our guard without. "Father" is the key-word to all true prayer. The light from Heaven can never lead astray. Prayer is the anchor that holds us fast to God. The stream of life rises not above its source. The best prayer for more power is the practice of that you have. He has a beggarly idea of prayer to whom it is only begging. Prayer is a holy art, in which the best of us are but beginners.—Ram's Horn.

The Sin and the Sinner.

Hard living does not make easy dying. Secret sins are the secret of nearly all sin. The sense of guilt adds stings to our griefs. All social problems center in the sin problem. There are no sins that a man may keep to himself. Selfishness is the cause of sin and sacrificing service its cure. He who bears false witness against his neighbor bears true witness against himself.—Ram's Horn.

Sick Headaches and Dizzy Spells, Weak, Nervous, Wretched, Tired, Until Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Me.

Are you in a "poor condition"? Are you almost ready to give up from exhaustion, nervousness, headaches, backaches, and dizzy spells? No need to mention the details of a run down or "poor condition" to those who are suffering. Better to tell you of Nervine, the remedy sold on a guarantee to help you, and restore your poor weakened nerves to life, strength and health.

"Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has done a great deal for me. In the fall of 1897 my health was in a very poor condition. Extreme nervousness, dizzy spells and sick headaches made me most miserable. I had been under the care of our local physician for some time, but got no better. I was on the verge of nervous prostration. Had no appetite, and could not sleep. I grew worse as the dizzy spells continued and lost flesh and strength. Oh! those awful days. A lady friend who had taken Restorative Nervine advised me to try it. I bought a bottle at the local drug store and when it was one-half gone I noticed that the medicine was helping me. I continued taking it according to directions until I had used three bottles when I felt so much better. I stopped taking it. I feel that my present greatly improved health is all due to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I am grateful for the benefit I received and recommend the Nervine widely on its merits as a nerve tonic and restorative."—Mrs. P. M. HOOBROOM, Dalton, Mass.
