Lesson in the International Series for April 5, 1903-Paul's Farewell to Ephesus.

THE LESSON TEXT. (Acts 10:12-08.) 28. Take heed therefore unto yourselves and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which He hath surchased with His own blood. 29. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. 30. Atso of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn everyone night and day with tenrs.

And now, brethren, I commend you 22. to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

23. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. 34. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these bands have ministered unto my necessi-ites, and to them that were with me. 25. I have shewed you all things, how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said; "It is more bissed to give than to receive."

36. And when he had thus spoken, he unceled down and prayed with them all. 37. And they all wept sore, and fell on

"aul's neck and kissed him, 28. Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him into the ship, GOLDEN TEXT.-Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He

Both are important, and he who has the gift of a persuasive public speaker can strengthen his work incalculably by means of the personal touch. LOVE LETTERS FROM PENNELL

Witness Was Deathly Pale While on the Stand, and Was Forced to Tell of Her Relations With Pennell-Subjected to Rigid Cross-Examination.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 24. - Mrs. Alice Hull Burdick, widow of Edwin L. Burdick, underwent a merciless examination by District Attorney Coatsworth yesterday afternoon at the resumption of the inquest into the death of her husband, who was murdered on February 26. Mrs. Burdick was on the stand when court adjourned. With a package of letters in his hands, some of which were written to Mrs. Burdick by Arthur R. Pennell, co-respondent in the divorce proceedings instituted by Mr. Burdick, and time he first made love to her in New Haven in 1898 until 1901, when these relations were renewed, after Burdick had forgiven his wife and had taken her back to his home for the sake of their children. Mrs. Burdick was deathly pale while on the witness stand. She answered questions in a low, faltering tone, evading a direct answer whenever possible, and reluctantly admitting facts when the district attorney pitllessly read extracts of the love letters written to her by Arthur R. Pennelli

Mr. Contsworth showed the witness a letter written from New York by Pennell and addressed to Mrs. Rathlick. She said it was his handwriting, but she did not remember having geo yet it.

They related to Mrs. Burdick's appeal to be taken back, which was finally accomplished. She admitted meeting Pennell in another house after being taken back. It was after the incidents related by Mrs. Burdick yesterday that Mr. Burdick sent her away from home the second time. Her second exile from home began last Thanksgiving and lasted until after the murder of her husband.

"Men hall arise who shall speak perverse things and even draw away disciples from the true faith." In view of this condition Paul first rays: "Take heed therefore unto yourselves." and secondly, "unto all the flock." He had just reminded these representatives from Ephesus that he was "pure from the blood of all men. "This was in reference to Ezckiel 3:18, "When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require of thy hand."

Georgetown, Del., March 21. - The state closed its case yesterday in the trial of Elmer Collins, charged with the murder of his wife. IIda, on their farm in April of last year, and the defendant took the stand in his own behalf. When Collins took the stand he detailed his movements at the time the murder was committed, and positively denied that he had committed it. He also contradicted the testimony of the Rhor les girl, who testified of her relation with the defendant. During the recit of the details surrounding the discovery of the body, Collins broke dot a and wept.

Charles F. Richards opened the case for the defense by saying: "We will show you that there were tracks leading across the field and that a man was seen crossing the branch that morning, and that a strange man on a bicycle was near the place on April 11. And if the court will allow us will prove that this is the man who committed the murder."
