water, throwing him in the whirlpool, his gun boots weighing him down.
Keller succeeded in keeping his head above the water until Amos Lauden slayer seized him and drew him into his boat.
Looks bad for Directors.
It has just come to light that detectives, disguised as book agents, have been circulating among school directors in a number of Schuylkill county townships and have discovered among other things that the directors almost without exception demand a percentage on all orders and elect teachers with the understanding that the teachers shall pay over a percentage of their salaries.
The evidence will be presented to the district attorney in a few days. Don't let that be the case in our vicinity.
All Were Battered.
Word comes from Wake, Ark., that Rev. Jno. J. Cox had a strange malady accompanied by yellow jaundice. For 12 years, physicians were baffled and though everything known to the profession was used, the trouble remained. One day he began to use Electric Bitters and in a week, a change for the better came and, at length he was entirely cured. It's the most reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble.

MRS. IRA C. SCHUCH DEAD.
The End Came Suddenly at Her Home in Sellingrove.
The many friends of Mrs. Ira C.
Schuch will be grieved to learn of her death which occurred at her home at Sellingrove at about 3 o'clock Thursday evening. The circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Schuch are sad in the extreme, dying in child birth and the child surviving the mother.
Mrs. Schuch before her marriage was Miss Laura Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Richter. Deceased was one of Sellingrove's most prominent and estimable ladies and the news of her death has caused a pall of gloom and sadness to be cast over the town in which every one loved her and she was called upon to sincerely mourn her death. Mrs. Schuch was widely known in her own county and throughout the State and her death will be mourned by many. Her husband, Ira C. Schuch, was a prominent citizen of Sellingrove, and she was a devoted wife and mother.
She was born in Sellingrove, Pa., and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
John P. Richter. She was educated in this county and was a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church. She was married to Mr. Ira C. Schuch in 1885, and they had four children. She was a devoted wife and mother and her death is a great loss to her family and to the community. She was buried in the cemetery at Sellingrove last week.

opened. This ferry is in direct line with Snyder county and the Shamokin says if they would build bridges he will accommodate the public.

The readers of this paper will learn that there is at least one hundred diseases that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.
