

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson in the International Series for April 20, 1903—Paul's Journey to Jerusalem.

THE LESSON TEXT

1. Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the 10th and sailed into Sidon, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unload her burden.

2. And finding Zenas, who had been with us at Sidon, we returned to him, and he accompanied us to Caesarea.

3. And when we had accomplished these things, we departed and went our way, and they all went with us to the ship, and we kissed one another and we bade one another farewell.

4. And when we had taken our leave of one another, we took ship, and returned to Jerusalem.

5. And when we had finished our journey from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted with them one another.

6. And the next day we that were of Paul's company entered the house of Theophilus, and we gathered into the house of the brethren, which was one of the synagogues.

7. And when we had said our prayer, we said unto them, Brethren, ye know that I have been in the presence of the high priest, and have been with him in bonds, and have suffered many things for the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

8. And when I had said these things, they were silent for a while, saying, We have heard thee say that thou art a Pharisee, and art so bound, and yet thou art here speaking against the law and the prophets.

9. Then Paul said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

10. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

11. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

12. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

13. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

14. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

15. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

16. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

17. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

18. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

19. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

20. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

21. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

22. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

23. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

24. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

25. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

26. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

27. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

28. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

29. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

30. And he said, I have lived in good conscience toward God, and toward man, until this day.

A Boy's Love Story. 'I have a love story for you, George. I have a love story for you, George.'

Isaac Murdoch's Dream. 'Newark, N. J., April 12.—Isaac Murdoch, a sailor on the steamer Harry A. Hall, became violently insane and tried to murder the crew.'

In These Up-to-date Times. 'Mrs. Odell, I am in a very bad way, and I am all right, and that you think I am all right.'

Kind Old Gentleman. 'Little boy—Yes, sir, and I will give you a show—change of dress.'

Maternity of Sex. 'Mrs. Odell, I am in a very bad way, and I am all right, and that you think I am all right.'

There are a couple of... 'Mrs. Odell, I am in a very bad way, and I am all right, and that you think I am all right.'

Her Idea of It. 'Laurie—He is such a funny man, Mary—What do you mean by that?'

Laurie—Why, he dresses well, you know, and smokes a pipe, and—

and that sort of thing.—Detroit Free Press
