

Little Liners.

and the Bustle of the Seat, Told in Brief Paragraphs.

ore or Less Prominent.

Population and Events of Interest Satisfy Curiosity and Quench the Thirst for News.

on have opened a new Ley made a trip to Selins-gler of Penns Creek was at town Monday.

Winters of New Berlin marks of Lewistown paid parents in Franklin.

Shaeffer of Mt. Pleasant Middleburg Monday.

and Charles Newman of it spent Sunday in town.

red Schoch paid a visit to Mifflinburg, and vicinity.

Zechman and Son of township were in town Monday is not the only way to they can be sold by the b of Franklin dropped in business call Thursday of Pawling has had a very of pneumonia during the

ly Fasold of Sunbury is time with J. M. Leeser

ays, a most desirable interesting prices at Swartz

Ferry of the lower end of

as a County Seat visitor

foreman of the Eliza-

the present visitor

Hannan and M. Mill-

grove were at the County

Wittemeyer, Jr., is now

New Orleans on a business trip.

F. Specht and daughter spent several days with urand.

Saufer and wife Sunday to the latter's brother, willing.

W. E. Houseworth of transacted business at the Saturday.

ichman left Tuesday for here he has secured em-

a bakery.

mme, daughter of Wm.

of Middlecreek township,

neumonia.

or of Union township has store at Produce, a new est established.

oyer, the popular insur-

Selinsgrove, was at the last Thursday.

n Womeldorf left Satur-

course in music at Al-

at Myerstown.

Lbbie Dunkelburger's

on last page. She offers in millinery.

Winey of Beavertown

ay of last week in this any of her friends.

nyder of Cleveland, Ohio,

o his grandfather, John urday and Monday.

Riegel and daughter,

a visit to friends and reeburg last week.

ius of the firm of Bro-

in of Mt. Pleasant Mills

ounty Seat Monday.

erized for Ladies' Shirt

varieties and at bar-

Swartz & Graybill.

alley of Kratzerville has or a remittance sent in Commissioner Derk.

ade, one of the Editors town "Herald" was at y's capital last Friday.

ck is seriously ill near

He is not expected to re-

Died Tuesday night.)

coctor for a prescription

Middleburg Drug Store

Wines and Whiskies for tf.

J. G. Snyder of Beavertown was at the County Seat Tuesday morning.

Chas. A. Meiser of Thompsontown was a Middleburg visitor this week.

The Middleburg Drug Store has added a full line of pure Wines and Whiskies for medical use. tf.

Work on the Lutheran parsonage is progressing rapidly. It will be a credit to the town and congregation.

You can get pure Wines and Whiskies for medical use at the Middleburg Drug Store. tf.

Dr. J. R. Damm, one of the professors of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, was at the County Seat Saturday.

Mrs. Dr. I. G. Barber and Children of Danville paid a visit to her sister, Miss Amanda Wittenmyer in Franklin.

Miss Jessie Sampson, who had been visiting friends at Penns Creek, returned home and is again the belle of the ball.

The County Commissioners had a meeting last Friday to settle up the bills for the Pinestreet bridge at Selinsgrove.

H. G. Frederick of Millersburg was in town Monday night to interview the town Council on a water works proposition.

Chief Burgess John F. Stetler spent Monday night in Newport to meet the School Board on some building plans and contracts.

Clark Boyer, who had been to East Pittsburg returned to his home at Paxtonville, and was a Middleburg caller Saturday night.

Levi Cooke of Winfield and Hon. Joseph C. Bucher of Lewisburg were at Snyder County's capital last Thursday night.

C. G. Bingaman of Paxtonville, formerly of this place, has gone to Lewisburg to accept a position as motorman on the trolley line.

Calvin G. Stroup, clerk in his father's store at Stroptown, was a Sunday visitor to this place. Cal has a

Geo. S. Romig, the efficient blacksmith of Selinsgrove, passed through town Wednesday of last week with a handsome well-bred Stallion.

Dr. Walter has put a glass front and a glass side in the office of the Central Hotel. This makes a remarkable improvement in the appearance.

When you want to talk to this office by 'Phone, call 202, Middleburg. Orders for Subscription, Job Printing and Advertising can be sent by 'Phone.

WANTED: 100 girls good wages, light clean work, permanent position.

SUSQUEHANNA SILK MILLS,

Sunbury, Pa.

Geo. D. Fisher of Selinsgrove was at Middleburg last week representing the Continental Casualty Company. He insures against accident and sickness.

F. E. Bower is kept busy attending to his practice both in Union and Snyder Counties. He has an office both in this place and in Lewisburg.

Ex-County Commissioner Phares Herman, Charles Bodorf, John M. Moyer and Frank Richter of Selinsgrove were at the Court House Friday.

Rev. B. F. Houston of Indianapolis delivered a temperance lecture Sunday evening in the Lutheran Church. Prof. W. D. Blair of Mifflinburg sang several solos.

You can get Wines and Whiskies anywhere, BUT when you want the best, for Medical use, get a prescription from your Doctor and go to the Middleburg Drug Store for it. tf.

The contract for the New Bridge at Centreville was awarded to the York Bridge Co., as their bid was the lowest presented. It was lower than the bids for a wooden bridge.

If you have a late item of News, call us up by 'Phone, No. 202, Middleburg, and let us have it. If you do not have all the particulars, send us what you have. We will do the rest.

Mrs. E. C. Arland will have her Summer Millinery opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. She will have a large number of ready trimmed hats. Read her ad in the Post.

W. A. Lutz and wife of Shippensburg spent several days in town visiting friends. Mr. Lutz just returned from Chicago where he secured a contract to supply Sears, Roebuck and Co. with a large supply of pants from his factory.

The June Court advertising appears in the Post this week.

J. W. Stiever of Pleasant Mills was in town Tuesday afternoon.

Preaching in the U. B. church Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Communion services after the sermon. All are invited to attend. N. A. Kiracofe, Pastor.

Wm. P. Seifred was awarded $5433 against the P. R. R. Co. by our courts Feb. 1902. The case will come up before the Supreme Court next week.

Stetler's Cornet Band appeared on the streets Saturday evening and gave a delightful open air Concert on Market Square. The citizens are always glad to hear this excellent musical organization.

The Memorial tablet, purchased in honor of Rev. I. P. Neff, will be unveiled Sunday morning in the Luhteran church. Revs. I. P. Neff of Jefferson county and J. H. Weber of Sunbury will make addresses.

The case of Wm. P. Seifred, vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company tried in our courts will be taken to the Supreme Court. Seifred secured a verdict here and the Railroad Company has appealed the case to a higher tribunal.

Rev. Elias Noll and wife of New York spent Sunday in town. Rev. Noll preached sermons Sunday morning and evening in the Reformed church and in the afternoon at Artley's church. By many he is considered a favorite applicant for this charge.

Fred Kurtz, Editor of the Lewisburg Journal and wife, John Bucher, assistant Cashier of the Lewisburg National Bank and Miss Elizabeth Stewart of State College, were guests at the Washington House Saturday evening till Sunday afternoon.

Swartz & Graybill invite the public in general to examine the beautiful line of Ladies' Shoes and Oxfords and fine dress shoes for men. These shoes are made of good leather and are offered lower than ever before.

If you wish a Spring hat or bonnet trimmed in good style. Go to A. Schneiders at Fort Trevorton. Special days May 1 and 8, Thursday and Friday. You will find Mrs. J. G. App there with a full line of trimmed hats and bonnets. Give her a call.

Our town had an overdose of smoke and dust last Thursday evening. The smoke was so thick that every one thought there was fire in the town. It has since been learned that this was the experience of every town in this section of the state. Mountain fires caused the smoke.

Have you ever read any of Swedenborg's Works? If not, will you send me your address enclosing a stamp or two and I will mail you one of his books FREE. State whether you want it in English or in German.

ADOLPH ROEDER,
80 Cleveland street,
Orange, N. J.

Dr. S. D. Diffenderfer, Dental Graduate, formerly of Beaver Springs, Pa., offers his service to the public. He is equipped with the latest methods in Dentistry. All work guaranteed. Office on East Market Street, in John Moatz's Building, Middleburg, Pa.

Beginning in May he will visit the following towns on days below:

McClure Hotel, first Monday of each month; Beavertown Hotel, first Tuesday of each month; Beaver Springs Hotel, third Tuesday of each month; Freeburg, Empire House, third Wednesday of each month. tf.

Social for Rev. Noll and Wife.

Monday evening a pleasant Social was given by Mrs. John N. Brosius in honor of Rev. Noll and wife of New York. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and social conversation.

Those present were: Misses Mollie Bolender, Claire Winey, Dilla Stetler, Sisie Winey, Elva Baker, Carey Willis, Mrs. I. H. Bowersox, Anna, Helen and Marriet Brosius.

Refreshments were served Rev. and Mrs. Noll left Tuesday for his parents' home in Reading.

Ran into a Fence.

Thomas R. Johnson and friend of Lewistown passed through this place Monday on an automobile. On their way home their auto ran into a fence this side of Beavertown and broke off two posts and smashed a lot of paling.

The boys straightened up their vehicle, paid $3.00 for a broken fence and started for home.

SWINEFORD.

Aaron Kline of Fremont spent Sunday in town.

Joseph Musser and wife spent Saturday at Freeburg.

Dora Weaver of Melserville spent Saturday in town.

W. B. Winey and family attended a funeral near Richfield Saturday.

Steilinger Bros. are having a double set of stringers placed in their siding.

Misses Dora Libby, Besie Smith and Bertha Beaver spent Sunday out of town.

Reuben Fensterbush, who had been staying at Mifflinburg, returned home to stay.

Saturday afternoon the Tannery was shut down on account of a broken shaft.

W. B. Winey bought a tract of wood land of John Remlinger, Sr., last week.

Wm. Aurand, agent of the Clement's estate, shipped a car load of lumber Saturday.

W. B. Winey is shipping 300 tons of Rock Oak Bark to Lancaster, Pa., this Spring.

Kathy Shamach of Kissimee, who had been working at the Eagle Hotel for the past eight months, returned home to stay.

We will have a special line of Ladies white shirtwaists on opening days.

L. DUNKELBERGER.