to National Guard Association. NO TROUBLE RAISING SOLDIERS Mr. Roct Says With With National

Government as Quartermaster and National Guard Looking After the Spirit, We Can Have an Army the World Cannot Contend With.

Columbus, O., May 5 .- The Inter-6. First and final account of Alfred Specht, state National Guard Association of Executor of the estate of Sophia Klock, late of the United States opened here with 25 states and territories represented. Major General Dick, Ohio National Guard is presiding. Secretary of War Root and Assistant Secretary Sanger, with astaff of regular army officers, are present. Secretary Root made an address before the convention. Speaking of the new militia law, he said:

Some supposed that immediately after the passage of the new law a code of decisions would be issued, defining certain parts and passages of the bill. Nothing could have been more unfortunate than such a belief. The code is very broad; it will have to be applied to many conditions arising in different communities, some rich, some poor, and the questions will have to be handled as they arise and with all the leniency possible to meet such conditions.

"There are only two ways of raisvoluntary service. The National Guard is the great school of the volunteers. It is not intended that the national government shall pay the expense of maintaining the guard, but it is intended that it shall add to the J. H. WILLIS, REGISTER, efficiency, the strength and the dignity of the guard.

"A question now being considered is the minimum of the company, and its is a serious one. It should not be fixed so as to kill the organization of ple, but no one has thus far had the a company in the rural districts, where the young men are not so numerous as in the cities. The required five days' training is also to be considered-what kind of training, and many other things are to be determined

"Lines should be laid down so that the regulars and the National Guardsmen will be drawn closer together. It too often happens that jealousies exist between the officers of the two branches, but that will be avoided by honest and sincere work. After the year the officers of both branches left thinking a great deal more of each ed by the other.

"There will never be any trouble in raising soldiers; the trouble will be in the limit of supply and transarrangement and or "nization. With being hurried to Monetir. the national governit LQ performing the quartermaster's part of the work and the national part of the work, and the National Guard looking after the spirit, we can have an army that the whole round world cannot contend with.

"The whole question of efficiency rests with the officers and men of the regular army and the National Guard. and it needs but the application of the new law in sympathy and kindness, and with due consideration for others, and we cannot go astray." and we cannot go astray." The other speakers were Assistant Secretary of War Sanger, Representative Conrey, of Massachusetts; Colonel W. H. Hall, U. S. A .; Judge Advocate General Davis, U. S. A.: General Royster, of North Carolina; General Stewart, of Pennsylvania, and General Spencer, of New Jersey,

KILLED BY BREAKING SCAFFOLD Three Sheet Metal Workers Plunge to Death at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, April 2 .- As a result of the breaking of a scaffold at the Union Station William Nelson Adams, Charles Carman and Isador Rosenberg, sheet metal workers, are dead and two others are injured. All of the victims are Philadelphians, and were part of a gang of 13 brought here by D. Lupton Sons & Co.

The cause of the accident will never be known. The scaffold on which the men were working was 75 feet above the tracks of the train shed on which they were working, and when picked up the three men were dead. John Ehret and David Moore, though bruised and cut, managed to hang to a portion of the scaffold until rescued by fellow workmen.

a crowd of 1000 people at a street corner, killing seven men and seriously injuring 30 more. Fifteen hundred Polanders from Toledo came up to Detroit on a special Lake Shore train to celebrate a holiday. They left the train at the corner of Dequinder and Canfield streets and went over to St. Josephat Church, where they spent the day with that congregation.

The Lake Shore tracks run out Dequinder street, and a special train was to stop for the Toledo excursionists at Canfield avenue. Accompanied by hundreds of their local friends, waiting for the train, the excursionists jammed Canfield avenue some time before the train was due, in readiness for the special. When the train was sighted the crowd pushed across the track and on to the Grand Trunk American fiyer came thundering in The police department was notified, rushed to the scene. The victims were scattered along the track for a distance of two blocks.

Lanterns were procured and the work of rescue began immediately. The scene reflected by the light of the lamp was horrible. The mangled and crushed bodies were gradually recovered and sent to the hospitals when there was a flicker of life left, and to
