Obituary of Jas. E. Kline.

James Elias Kline, second son of Daniel and Mary Kline, was born in Beaver twp., Snyder Co. Pa., Dec. 3, 1842 and died of "Uremia" Thursday 2:30 p. m., April 30, 1903, at Troxelville, Pa., with a smile playing on his face he sailed into the haven of eternal rest at the age of 60 years 4 months and 27 days. His bark reached the heavenly shore just two weeks after his brother-in-law, and brother-in-love—Jas. Aurnand.

Mr. Kline was married to Leah Klose on the 21th day of May 1866, by Rev. J. G. A. Spach. Their union was blessed with 3 children, 2 daughters, Mrs. Philip Ocker and Mrs. Chas. M. Ingram both of Troxelville, and one infant son who, no doubt, waited these many years for "papa". He was a brother to the Rev. D. P. Kline, deceased, formerly a prominent minister of the Central Pa. Conference of the Evangelical church, and a nephew of the Rev. E. Stambauch of precious memory.

He was soundly converted to God in his own home in 1878 while Rev. S. Smith was serving the McClure charge and joined the Evangelical church during his pastorate. He was a devoted member of the Troxelville congregation and served the same for a number of years as Supt. of the Sunday school, Assistant Class Leader, Steward, Member of the Building Committee when the church was erected in 1875, Trustee and sexton of the church. He will be missed in his home, in the church and in the community. He was a grand man, a manly man, a pious man a man of positive convictions and had the courage to declare and defend them. He stood by his convictions and stood long enough to be counted. You could depend on what he said. He disliked shams and butter-flyism, loved the truth, had a deep fellow-feeling, and moved as a champion for right and righteousness. His home was always open to the "Itinerant" preacher of the Gospel and delighted to spend the evening hours around the comfortable fireside discussing Bible truths and important measures pertaining to the church. He was a constant reader of the "Evangelical" and paid for its weekly visits to other houses. He was a very liberal supporter of the church and always gave to all the benevolent collections cheerfully.

In the seclusion of his hospitable home across the way from the sanctuary, he lived, moved and had his being in the immediate circle of his loved ones, until out of the stormy days of tempestuous "April", with its aches and pains, his ransomed spirit took its flight to the peace of "May". "Kissed days of an eternal 'May'". His case was of such a nature that, at times, he suffered intense pain; but he endured it all with patience and Christian fortitude. He trusted in Jesus. He did not murmur nor complain.

Sister Kline has lost a loving husband, and his children a good kind father. There was something peculiarly good about him. He sounded no trumpets, called no attention to his doings, but worked on in the vineyard of the Lord to the tune of fidelity. It may be said that he goes from us when his goodness and influence was at the greatest, his wisdom most widely confessed, his words most respected, and his services most appreciated. Like some long-suffering wave that rises on the bosom of the deep until it crests in whiteness, and at its climax flings itself into the sky, so, our brother's life gathered volume and value through all the years of his pilgrimage until April 30th, 1903 it reached the summit and swept into heaven. May all his loved ones and his associates in the work of the Lord meet him there. Amen. Interment at Troxelville, Pa. Text-words used Heb. XI. 13. 15. Funeral May 3d, by A. D. Granley.

VESSEL DISABLED AT SEA

Passengers and Crew of Vera Cruz III Had Thrilling Experience.

HAD 433 IMMIGRANTS ABOARD

Was Driven Far Out of Her Course and All Hands Nearly Perished From Thirst—Finally Wrecked on North Carolina Coast.

Norfolk, Va., May 12.—The 433 shipwrecked Portuguese immigrants from the barkentine Vera Cruz III, driven ashore at Ocracoke Inlet, N. C., last Saturday night, are still being cared for on the coast. A revenue cutter will carry them to New Bedford, Mass., whither the barkentine was bound when she anchored off the North Carolina coast Friday for food and water, and later was wrecked. Of the immigrants 300 are men. One man died from starvation. The others are well. The barkentine lies high and dry and may yet be saved. Norfolk wreckers have left for the scene. A thrilling story of the experience at sea of the barkentine came to Norfolk over the government sea coast telegraph from Hatteras, N. C.

The Vera Cruz, bound from the Cape Verde Islands to New Bedford, Mass., was within 135 miles of Massachusetts coast two weeks ago when a terrific storm carried away the vessel's sails and drove her far out to sea.

It was thought the craft would founder, and most of those aboard abandoned all hope of ever reaching shore again. Jury sails were finally rigged, but another storm carried them away.

The barkentine arrived off Ocracoke helpless Friday afternoon. The immigrants aboard had been drinking sea water for five days to prevent perishing from thirst and food of all kinds had given out. The immigrants' baggage and portions of the ship's deck load had to be burned for a fire to make as good a portion of salt water as possible. The captain, on arriving North Carolina coast, decided never would put to sea again. Human freight. That night a storm drove the ship ashore. The immigrants are destitute and dependent entirely on charity. The government takes charge of the revenue cutter Houtwell. The Merritt and Chapman Co. Company first intended to send a steamer to make an attempt to save the Vera Cruz, but high and dry, but later was abandoned and Agent W. S. or left here by rail to make an attempt of the vessel for the purpose of ascertaining if she is worth

VIOLATED EIGHT-HOUR LAW

Warrant Issued For the Arrest of Government Contractors.

Washington, May 12.—The police court has issued a warrant for the arrest of Sidney C. Lee, Bradner and Samuel C. Edwards, contractors in charge of government excavation of reservoirs in construction here on the charge of violating the eight-hour law. The complaint was made by John Johnson, colored, who claims that he and 28 colored men were brought here from Richmond, Va. April 28, to work as laborers, on a promise of $1 per day, with board and lodging, on an eight-hour basis. The laborer claims the men not only have not received any money, but have had to work 10 hours a day; that they were quartered in a stable with horses, the men sleeping on hay, and that later they were notified that their services were no longer needed.

Rock Miners Get Increase.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 11.—As a result of the recent agitation, the rock miners in the Wyoming region will receive 10 per cent. advance in wages, the same as decreed the coal miners, dating from April 1. Some of the men received their advance on Saturday last and others have been promised it this week. The difficulty is not all settled. However, as the rock men demand 10 per cent. back pay on all money earned since November 1, and there is still a question whether they will receive this. The matter will be placed before the board of conciliation.
