CHARGES MADE PUBLIC

S. W. Tulloch Gives Mr. Payne Information on Postal Scandals.

TROOPS MAY BE CALLED OUT

Matters Not of Record Known to Few -"Those Interested, Who Will Not, and Others, Clerks, Who Dare Not Talk."

Washington, May 18.-The full text of the formal charges of irregularities in the administration of postal affairs preferred by Seymour W. Tutloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, has been made public by Mr. Tulloch. The charges are embodied in a letter to Postmakter General Payne in response to the latter's request to be furnished any information that would substantiate published statements of Mr. Tulloch. Some of the matters complained of will be investigated immediately by the inspec-

Mr. Tulloch says that in all instances of irregularity and favoritism, the proper allowances, records, vouchers, etc., were most carefully executed and kept, as a rule, and little information can be ascertained by their investigation; that the real facts, behind the allowances and vouchers, are not of record and are known to few-"those interested, who will not, and others, clerks, who dare not talk." "For upwards of 19 years," the letter recites, "the conduct of affairs between the Washington city post-office and the post-office department was regular; then came the first break, the precursor of a system of allowances to the Washington post-office on account of departmental expenditures which afterwards led to irregularities, abuses, extravagance, and my removal SUNBURY, PA. as an obstacle on June 30, 1895. Mr. Shepard, then chief of the salary and allowance division, desired a file case for the use of his office. His requisitions were turned down by his superior officers. Later vouchers were present ed to me for a file case, accompanied by an allowance for its payment out of the funds of the Washington office, made by Mr. Shepard, and signed by the first assistant postmaster-general. I directed the contractor to obtain a certificate of delivery of the goods. Mr. Shepard refused to acknowledge the receipt of the goods, fearing an exposure during the audit of the vouchers, and I refused to pay for the case until some one was willing to father the same. Soon after the McKinley administration came into power the first assistant postmaster-general sent his clerk down to me with a voucher for a lump sum for traveling expenses. accompanied by an allowa. Car their payment from the funds of the Washington office. Such a demand was irregular on its face. But the official became very angry at the idea of a mere cashier attempting to make any suggestions to him, and refused to amend and itemize his voucher. The postmaster-general explained to him that I had only asked for what was required by the auditor and according to of Mindanao, have appeared in the viprecedent. The postmaster, upon his return, stated the official had said: Look here, now this is a new administration and a new crowd and we intend to create our own precedents." The auditor for the post-office department finally sent word through the postmaster that on account of the feeling shown in the matter, if I would inclose the vouchers in my next account its informality would be overlooked. An inspection of the Washington accounts will show many similar subsequent payments of traveling and other expenses on account of departmental and other officials without the usual departmental checks.

"Considerable feeling was manifested towards me in the office of the first assistant postmaster-general because I would not pay vouchers for service or supplies upon personal request or by direction over the telephone. "I was credibly informed at that time that the matter so prepared, with perhaps other evidence, was said before Postmaster - General Smith by Fourth Assistant Bristow, who requested the appointment of a commission to investigate the office of the first assistant postmaster-general This was refused by Mr. Smith, who looked upon it as another manifestation of the relations existing between Perry S. Heath and Mr. Bristow."

On the question of favoritism in appointments, he says: "A clerk in my office. Charles W. McWhorter, informed me that an employe in the mailing division, whose name he gave me at the time, had told him that he had been approached by another employe, recently transferred to the office, who had stated he had been authorized to pick out seven men in the malling division for promotion July 1, 1899, provided those promoted would divide with high officials in the postoffice department

"On account of the intimate-relations between the department and the serba directions often accompanied the written orders and were far more interesting. For example, the postmaster one day to Countess Spottiswoode Mackie, of brought me an allowance of the first Lonie, Mc one of his white caps assistant postmaster-general, salary as a present for the academy at Naza- and allowance division. July 27, 1898, rett Ky The cap was presented to appointing Emma Jones and Fannie the counters in the house of the Mis-R. Winans in cleaners, or charwomen, somery Sustem of the Sacred Heart for one year from July 1, 1898, at $600 in the presence of Cardinal Vincenzo per annum. Handing me the allowance, he stated it was the order of the department that the names of the women should not appear upon any pay-roll; that the parties designated shoul not know that the other was in receipt of any money or had any connection with the office. He also stated the offices in Poto Rico were in aramount, and the accounts were very much confused. The records of the de-partment should show whether these balances were collected in full or not, and if not, may it not be asked why the department did not proceed against the parties in arrears upon their bonds, paid for, contrary to custom, by the government itself by order of the first assistant."

Mr. Tulloch also says many politicians and friends of officials were appointed to some office or other for the milicary postal service and sent to Cuba and Porto Rico and never performed any service whatever. "Free trips" to those places became the fashion, and salaries were continued for some time after the return of the favorites.

SCENES OF WILD DISORDER

King Edward's Coming Visit to Ireland Makes Trouble.

Dublin, May 19.—Scenes of extreme disorder were witnessed at a meeting of citizens here in the Rotunda in support of the Irish parliamentary fund, owing to the presence of members of the Gaelic League, who are opposed to giving King Edward a friendly welcome on his coming visit to Ireland Timothy Harrington, Lord Mayor of Dublin, was in the chair. While John Redmond was addressing the audience Mrs. McBride, formerly Miss Maude Gonne,, advanced to the platform and interrupted the proceedings asking Lord Mayor Harrington whether he intended, as head of the municipality, to oppose the presentation of an address of welcome to the king. Mr. Harrington replied in an evasive way. Mrs. McBride insisted on a direct answer, whereupon scenes of the wildest disorder occurred and prevented John Redmond from continuing his speech.

The members of the Gaelic League tried to storm the platform amid cries of "Put them out." Flerce collisions between the Gaelic Leauguers and the other members of the assembly ensued. Chairs were hurled to and from the platform and many persons were injured in the desperate efforts made to eject the disturbers and restore or der. John O'Donnell, member of parliament for South Mayo, was badly injured in the head during the scuffle. Many persons fied terror stricken from the hall

John Redmond persevered in continuing his speech and eventually a semblance of order was regained and a resolution in accordance with the object of the meeting was carried.

Hours in Yosemite Park.

Berenda, Cal., May 19. - President Roosevelt broke all records for Yosemite Park travel when his coach came from Yosemite to Raymond, where his train awaited him, in 10 hours of actual travel. The distance is 69, miles. The president declared he never felt better in his life and his looks bore out his words. He had lost all appearance of being tired and his eye was bright. The run from Awahanee to Raymone was the dustiest of the trip, and the president and his traveling companions were badly in need of baths when they reached their train. Thomas and Belle Berry, young colored women, have been jailed on the charge of murdering Jesse M. Richardson, an infant, also colored. The baby had been placed in the charge of the Thomas woman by its parents. The accused women lived together. It is alleged that Belle Berry had frequently shown her ill will for the child. During the night they occupied the same room and in the morning the baby was found dead, evidently having been potsoned. When arraigned the Thomas woman declared that Belle Berry gave the child bodbug polson. A nearly empty bottle of this poison, containing corrostve sublimate and carbolic acid was found in the room.
