

Published Every Thursday Morning
GEO. W. WAGENSSELLER, A. M. EDITOR AND OWNER
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Advertising Rates, 25 cents per line, nonpareil measurement for first insertion, and 20 cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

Republican Standing Committee
Adams—C. P. Piss, J. T. Shawver,
Beaver—H. H. Dantz, A. H. Muser,
Centre—T. E. Mohr, J. W. Sarnoff,

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET
STATE TREASURER
William L. Mithous, Delaware Co.
AUDITOR GENERAL
William P. Snyder, Chester county,

COUNTY TICKET
Prothonotary—G. M. Shindel,
Register and Recorder—J. B. Arbogast,
Associate Judge—J. Frank Koller,

We read in the newspapers of one county after another taking advantage of the Sprung good roads law, whereby supervisors can get an appropriation from the State.

James Russ, proprietor of the Commonwealth Hotel at Harrisburg, has entered suit against the Commonwealth for the recovery of that old, old bill of $5,911.16 for supplies furnished members of the legislature on the famous junket to New York in April, 1897, to attend the General Grant monument dedication ceremonies.

The Post is gratified to note the progress and advancement of Susquehanna University. During the last ten years there has been a steady growth. At that time there was but one building. Then Gustavus Adolphus hall was put up, the Chemical laboratory, the Ladies Dormitory and Dining Hall and now the Alumni Gymnasium.

LITERARY NOTES
New Idea Woman's Magazine
Everything of interest and importance to the life and comfort of a home-maker in the summertime, from gossamer bathingsuits and the various wares of sewing cherries, is touched upon in the Midsummer Number of the "New Idea Woman's Magazine."

of fashion, and the stories are extraordinarily interesting.

Woman's Home Companion.
Soda is one of the least expensive and most indispensable articles in kitchen use. Acid fruits, such as gooseberries, rhubarb and plums, require less sugar if a little soda—half a teaspoon to one quart of fruit—is put in before the sugar.

A Fake Report.
The Philadelphia "North American" Monday published a telegram from York stating there was a probability that Dr. Enders, president of Susquehanna University, would probably be elected president of Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg.

The annual commencement of Susquehanna University is in progress at Selinsgrove this week. L. W. Walter, a son of Isaiah Walter of Franklin township, is one of the graduates of the college department.

Rev. W. S. Ulrich, wife and child of Scenery Hill are visiting their parents.

Mrs. Mary Henning of Philadelphia visited among friends last week. She said she liked old Selinsgrove yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline of Williamsport attended the commencement exercises and were present at the graduation of their daughter in the dept. of oratory.

Mrs. Frank Hahne and Mrs. Holmes of Look Haven are visiting the former's brother, Wells Holmes.

Rev. C. P. MacLaughlin of Chicago came up from General Synod which was held at Balto, to spend a few days with his father-in-law H. L. Phillips and family.

Carroll Bolig of Monessen is at home with his parents for a few days.

Rev. Jac. Stover, wife and child are the guests of Mrs. S's, parents Jac. Houseworth and wife.

Rev. J. B. Guiney and family are welcome guests of Mrs. G's, parents Jno. A. Forster and wife.

Rev. E. L. Sigmund, D. D., Pres. of Carthage College, spent several days with his aunt, Mrs. F. J. Schoch, and took in the scenes of his boyhood days.

Mrs. Sonies of Pine Summit is being entertained by Prof. Noetting and wife. She witnessed the graduation of her son in the college.

Samuel Gemberling, one of our aged citizens, died Saturday morning. He was aged about 92 years, has been a member of the Old Fellows for many years, and will be buried by that organization.

Our band gave a twilight concert on the campus of the college Saturday evening.

The town can feel proud of its band. They are making rapid improvements in their playing.

Samuel Graham of Harrisburg, a former resident of this place, is visiting friends.

Miss Jennie Miller is on an extended visit to Phila.

Miss Katie Erchart of Balto. is being entertained by her cousin, Mrs. Dr. Foelt.

Rev. H. D. Hoover and wife are taking in the commencement.

Miss Lehr of Milton is being entertained by Mrs. Noetting.

Sick Headache? Food doesn't digest well? Appetite poor? Bowels constipated? Tongue coated? It's your liver! Ayer's Pills are liver pills; they cure dyspepsia, biliousness. 25c. All druggists.

Want your mustache or beard a beautiful brown or black? Then use the BUCKINGHAM'S DYE for the Whiskers.

WEST BEAVER. Some parties who were wishing for rain and got it are now wishing for it to stop; some are not satisfied no matter how the world goes.

Our merchants are laying in a big supply of buckets for their huckleberry trade this season as they are expecting a big crop.

James Steely has been on the sick list for the past week.

The strawberry war is over. The result was both sides defeated with no loss of life.

Some parties have ordered tents which will be put up along Jacks mountain this summer during the huckleberry season.

Enoch Baker has been confined to the house for the past week or so with inflammatory rheumatism.

Al Wagner is slowly improving from his severe attack of rheumatism.

The old soldiers at this end are all quiet in regards to their attending the G. A. R. reunion in Cal. August 31th.

Some parties are talking of replanting corn as soon as the weather permits.

A big crop of wheat is expected if nothing happens. It is too soon to talk about the oats and corn crop.

Hurley Wagner and family of Stony Lonesome paid their friends a visit at Loyell Sunday.

Georgetown spent last week with her parents.

Minnie E. Eyer of Selinsgrove spent a few days with her sister, where straw berries are abundant.

Dundore gives a lovely premium to all who buy at his store.

The heavy rain of last week have started the Coal Breaker.

Annie Hoover on the Island had a carpet sewing festival one day last week and among the participants were: Rosie Seiter; Leneetta Musina; Maria W. Dundore; Minnie Eyer; Lydia Hoover; Agnes Moyer, and Molly Hoover.

The engineers of the new railroad have the canal along here well marked with stakes and now business is becoming in anticipation of better times.

Wilson Bingsman, Daniel Wolt and Eise Troup are working for the N. C. Railway with headquarters at Milersburg.

Cherries few. Penches not plentiful. Apples half a crop. Potato bugs full crop.

Squire Seehrist's strawberry patch is a money maker.

Norton Hendrix is taking care of his bee colony.

H. F. Blessing was in town and is deeply interested in the new railroad.

Rev. J. H. Keeler and wife have returned from a very pleasant trip to S. C. Dundore and family at Pennscreek.

Birds are more numerous than usual and their music as charming as ever.

Maria W. Dundore picked 3 bu. of strawberries from a small patch in her garden.

BEAVERTOWN. The funeral of John S. Smith (of whom was made mention in last week's issue) took place last Thursday forenoon at 9:30 a. m. at his residence; a large concourse of relatives, friends and acquaintances from Lewistown, McClure, Troxelville, Beaver Springs, Middleburg and New Berlin and other places followed his remains to their last resting place.

Miss Lillian Stetler and Mrs. George Steininger of Middleburg spent Thursday in town.

Mrs. Dr. Frank of Centre Co., accompanied by her nephew, Randal Miller, are the guests of Dr. E. M. Miller and wife. Randal will stay to spend the summer.

Mrs. W. F. Fesse and son, Chas. Earl, are spending a week in Middleburg, the guests of Mrs. F's, parents, E. K. Freyman and wife.

John D. Smith, of Kansas, was called here by the sudden death of his father, John S. Smith.

Miss Edna Winey visited relatives and friends in Middleburg, recently.

The German Medicine Co., has been here selling medicines and giving nightly entertainments for the past week.

Mrs. Lizzie Howell spent several days at McClure last week.

Rev. J. C. Kauffman and bride returned Friday afternoon and Saturday went to McClure where they were tendered a reception; they expect to take up their abode in the Lutheran parsonage in a few days.

Chas. E. Freed has been suffering from inflammatory rheumatism for the last two or three weeks.

SELINSGROVE. The Misses Gortner have taken an extended trip to New York State.

Rev. Fred. Bergstresser of Tyone was the guest of his father last Thursday.

Dr. Spangler and wife have taken a trip to Nebraska.

Mrs. Dr. G. A. Harter (nee Gaugler) is visiting her parents.

CASTOR OIL For Infants and Children The Kind You Have Always Bought

MIDDLEBURGH MARKET Butter..... 16 Wheat..... Eggs..... 16 Rye..... Onions..... 60 Corn..... Lard..... 12 Oats..... Tallow..... 4 Potatoes..... Chickens..... 10 Bran per lb..... Side..... 11 Middlings..... Shoulder..... 12 Chop..... Ham..... 15 Flour per bushel.....

The Happiest Woman Is the hardworking one best satisfaction comes of performed. Only it is necessary keep the bowels regular and the organs active.

Dr. King's New Life Pills They render service gently, roughly 25c at Middleburg Store, Graybill & Garman Dr. J. W. Sarnoff of Penna.

First National Bank of Middleburg Pa. Capital, $50,000 Surplus, $50,000

G. ALFRED SCHOCH, Pres. W. W. WITTENMYER, Vice JAS. G. THOMPSON, Cashier

DIRECTORS G. Alfred Schoch, W. C. F. W. W. Wittmeyer, A. J. N. Thompson, Jas. G. Thompson

Accounts of Individuals, Corporations Solicited

20th Century Land Club

An Open Letter. To the Members and Prospective Members of the 20th Century Club. The 20th Century Land Club was organized for the purpose of assisting members to purchase lots at Vinas Park, Jersey Shore, Pa. It is one of the most successful and popular plans in this line of business ever introduced. Under the plan each member holding a receipt for $10, amount paid in for membership, will receive a lot without fail.

H. F. PHILLIPS, Real Estate, Jersey Shore, Pa.