Two octogenarians of Snyder county died the past week, viz: Hohnai Sampsel of Penns Creek and Mrs. Catherine Wittenmyer. Both of them were children of pioneers who settled in this county a century or more ago.

The Selingsgrove Times is offering the Middleburg Post for sale. In one of Joe's deliriums, he must have gotten the idea that we have appointed him our administrator. When the Post is for sale, it will be offered from this end.

Editor Lesher broke Irvin B. Laudenslager's leg in two places. This is a little unusual for Lesher as he generally does not use a leg in that way. He is more familiar with the "pulling" process. It may be that when he could not "pull" it, he broke it.

The people of Central Pennsylvania can now rest easier since another gang of lawless banditti have been captured, one of whom was fatally wounded. Center county is noted for its capturing ability. They captured a lawless bigamist, a gang of robbers and three governments.

Sheriff Taylor of Center county some years ago as a private citizen won the plaudits of the world by setting fire to the home at Woodward, where Edinger had been detaining the officers and resisting arrest for days. This act of valor made him Sheriff. He has proven his worth as an officer by capturing the four robbers in the Seven Mountains Saturday.

LITERARY NOTES.

Success. David Graham Phillips, the author of "The Confession of a Croesus" now running serially in "Success," is the son of an Indian baker, and is about thirty-six years old. For some years he was an editorial writer on the New York "World," but deserted the field of newspapers for that of fiction in which he has been signally successful. "The Confession of a Croesus," is a terrific tirade against wealth fawning, and several critics claim it to be the most severe arraignment that the class of crafty millionaires has yet received. Mr. Phillips is now in Europe, where his next novel, a story of American politics, will be written for "Success."

NATIONAL MAGAZINE.

The sun had gone down behind the hill, the flame had faded from the sky, and over the rim of the circling slopes poured the soft, cool twilight, with a breeze as soft and cool, and a spirit that was prayer. Drifting across the pond as gently as the gray half light, fell a shower of down from the willow catkins. The swallows had left, but from the leafy darkness of the copse in front of me, peering the dreamy, foamy roar of the distant dam, came the notes of a wood thrush, pure, sweet and peaceful, speaking the soul of the quiet time. My boat grated softly on the sandy bottom of the cove and swung in.

20th Century Land Club

An Open Letter.

Dear Members and Prospective Members of the 20th Century Club: The 20th Century Land Club was organized for the purpose of assisting members to purchase lots at Vinas Park, Jersey Shore, Pa. It is one of the most successful and popular plans in the history of business ever introduced. Under this plan each member holding a receipt for $100.00 amount paid in for membership, will receive a lot without fail. The above amount, $100.00, will be credited on the price of $325.00. The plan of distribution will be fair to all. No one will be disappointed, as each member will positively receive a lot. The lots selected for allotment $900 in number, have been picked on all the different streets of the park. Each lot is numbered and a corresponding number will be placed in an envelope, sealed by a committee of three members appointed from the club. Each member holding one or more receipts will be given an envelope for each receipt, which envelope contains a card with a number thereon, stating which lot you will be entitled to. Where there are two or three numbers upon the card the holder will be entitled to the number of lots corresponding, in their words some members will get two or three lots for the price of $325.00. Bear in mind the distribution of the Lots will be made by the committee appointed. If at the time of the allotment the balance of the $225.00 is paid, you will be given a deed at no extra expenses. Or you have a year to pay the balance of $225.00 at the rate of about $188 per month. None of these lots are worth less than $50.00 and as high as $250.00. Members of the club can pay for their lots by bringing in new members. Each member you get to join you will receive a credit of $5.00 on your lot. We expect to make the allotment about July 1, and at that time we hope to pass at least 200 deeds to club members. The gentlemen interested in the Vinas Park proposition are some of the most reliable business men of Wilkesbarre and Jersey Shore. Members need no further guarantee, but what all promises will be faithfully fulfilled. Some question as to this has been raised, principally because the lots are cheap, and are worth more than double the price but we take the means of advertising, as our motto is quick sales and small profits. In conclusion we would advise all that can join the 20th Century Land Club to join at once and get a lot for $325.00, which opportunity you will never have again. Yours truly,

H. F. PHILLIPS, Manager.
