George White, Murderer of Miss Bishop, Burned at Stake.

HE CONFESSED THE CRIME

Mob of Several Thousand Stormed Wilmington, Del., Workhouse, and, Securing White, Took Him to Scene of Crime and Burned Him-Prison Guards Fired on Crowd, Wounding

Wilmington Del June 23 - A porthern mob led by a Virginian, burned a pegro at the stake within a few miles of Mason and Dixon's line The victim was George F. White, a negro just out of the workhouse, who was accused of having feloniously assanited and stabbed to death Miss Rejon S. Bishop, the 17-year-old daughter of the Rev. Dr. E. A. Bishop. The crime was committed last Monday afternoon, and ever since then there have been mutterings of lynching the

An effort was made Sunday night to see White, but it failed. Last night, however, as a result of the law's slow ness and much agitation on the part of those who cried for vengeance, a mob that was estimated at 4000 men and boys gathered in the neighbor hood of Price's Corner, four miles from here. They came from everywhere, including Wilmington and the small towns to the south of the Price's Cor

The real leaders were few in numbers, but they did their work well. It was after 10 o'clock when the march to the workhouse a mile away, was takes up. The chief warden of the workhouse and his guards, who have been on almost constant duty since the pegro was landed in the prison, had been warned of the coming of the mob, and prepared to defend the man at all costs.

Armed with pistols, shotguns and other weapons, the mob soon reached the jail. A battery of railroad ties soon carried away the great outer door of the workhouse. What was going on inside the lockup was not known to the mob, nor did it seem to care. The fallure of the county court to No. give White a speedy trial is in a great agedy. The citizens of Wilmington and those in the vicinity of the scene of the crime wanted an immediate trial,and Atttorney General H. H. Ward laid the matter before the court on Thursday, with that end in view. The court, however, did not equalifier haste expedient, and the trial was set for the September term of court. With this decision of the court the marmerings of mob violence became louder, and the indignation of the people grew hourly. Sunday night two small crowds gathered in the vicinity of the jail, but they were soon dispersed. The coroner's inquest was held yesterday, but the authorities, fearing that harm would befall the negro, he was not taken from the workhouse, and the inquest was proceeded with without his presence. The verdict of the jury was that Miss Bishop came to her death "from the effects of an assault committed upon her by one George White, a negro."

HANNA AND VICE PRESIDENCY Says If He Is Nominated He Will Decline to Accept It.

Cleveland, O., June 22.-In an interview Senator M. A. Hanna reiterated his recent statement that he was not and would not be a candidate for the vice presidency, and if his nomination was made that he would decline to accept it. He said further that his ambition did not lie in the direction of the White House, and that nothing could induce him to alter his decision in the matter.

When the refusal of the vice presidential nomination by President Roosevelt was cited to Mr. Hanna as an illustration of how public men sometimes change their views in such matters, and when it was intimated to him that the convention might force the nomination for the vice presidency upon him, Mr. Hanna said that men in public life who know him know very well that nothing can be forced
