The Tuscarora Oil and Gas Company.

The Tuscarora Oil and Gas Company, recently organized, is offering stock at 25 cents per share (par value $1.00). This company, as soon as sufficient cash is subscribed, will immediately sink a well and thoroughly test the gas and oil fields of Juniata county.

Well known experts say that oil and gas exist in paying quanities and if it is there this company will soon know.

The directors are all well known men to our citizens and know that they will handle the affairs of the company in a manner most advantageous

The directors are: William Hertzler, Ex-State Senator, Port Royal, Pa.; T. K. Beaver Ex-Member of Assembly, Academia, Pa.; A. G. Shool, Editor, Mifflintown, Pa.; Will L. Hoopes, Attorney, Mifflintown, Pa.; A. M. Worstall, Electric Engineer, Phila. Pa.; O. M. Copelin, Manager Boyd Stickney & Co., Harrisburg, Pa.; J. B. Kurtz, Attorney, Altona, Pa.; Dr. I. N. Grubb, Physician, Thompsontown, Pa., William J. Campbell, geolgotist, Reed's Gap, Pa.; Wm. E. Nankeville, Theatrical Manager, N. Y.; Carl F. Espenschade, Deputy Collector Internal Revenue, Mifflintown, Pa.; H. B. Martin, New Jersey Corporation Guarantee & Trust Company, Canden N. J.

The Tuscarora Oil and Gas Company has under lease what is considered by all experts to be the most promising land in Juniata county, and that oil or gas will be struck in this section at at less depth, thus saving thousands of dollars in drilling over any other section of the county.

The subscriptions to this company are coming in very rapidly and the prospects are very favorable for early drilling.

John S. Kauffman of Franklin township spent last Thursday in Sunbury settling a guardian account.

Walter L. Main's Enormous Shows.

The Manager of the above Circus agrees to come to Middleburg early in the fall if they can secure free license, free bill boards, free grounds and permission to hang bills in windows without giving free tickets.

They ask these concessions for the reason that the town is small and the business men will secure large benefits and should grant these concessions. Mr. Main agrees to bill the country heavily for many miles and run excursion trains on the railroads. They have two trains of 53 cars, a three-ring circus and one of the best shows on the road. This show should bring 10,000 people to town and is worth in a business way the concessions asked.

Peter Rigel Dead.

Peter Rigel, son of John Rigel and his wife, Catherine Bingaman, was born at Beaver Furnace Oct. 27, 1824, and died at his home at Middleswarth June 25, 1903 at the age of 78 years, 7 months and 28 days.

He was married to Matilda Middleswarth, born in 1827, a daughter of the Hon. Nor Middleswarth, a statesman of National reputation in his day.

Of the ten children born to the deceased and his wife, the first three, Ephraim, Angeline and Jane died in their youth.

1. Amanda married A. A. Ulsh, a merchant and Postmaster at Middlecreek.

2. William H., married Mary A. Maurer was County Treasurer three years and now resides at Beaver Springs.

3. Hon. Peter P., of Beaver Springs, an Associate Judge and Insurance Agent, who is well known all over the county.

4. Harriet, married J. P. Potter of Decatur, Mifflin County.

John M. and Howard reside in Spring township.

Deceased was a member of the Masonic Fraternity. He was the oldest Mason in Middleburg Lodge No. 316 and the next to the oldest Mason in the county, Hon. Jere Crouse, being the oldest. He first became a Mason August 5, 1865, in La Fayette Lodge No. 151, Selinsgrove, from which he withdrew in 1868 to connect himself with the new organization at this place and he is the first of the Warrant Members to die.

He has been in feeble health for several years and was gradually growing weaker until death summoned him to a peaceful rest.

The funeral took place Sunday and was attended by a large number of friends.

SAMUEL REARICK.

Samuel Rearick of Beavertown died June 19, 1903 at the age of 74 years, 10 months and 27 days. He was married June 12, 1850 to Mary Ann Haines. To this union were born three sons and two daughters. Two of the sons are Lutheran Ministers, Rev. J. M. of Center Hall and Rev. H. of West Hamilton.

He was a faithful member of the Lutheran church and in addition to church work a leading citizen having two sons in the Ministry. He was buried last week at Beavertown.

Isaac Hoffer.

Monday Isaac Hoffer of Spring township passed to his reward. He was 77 years old and a grandfather of Editor A. M. Hoffer of Beaver Springs.

Cider Making.

I will operate my cider press in Franklin this year and invite all my patrons to bring their apples in to my mill. I will begin to make cider Thursday July 23. After that, the days will be Tuesday and Thursday of every week until otherwise notified.

A Paying Occupation.

The most profitable employment a young man of energy can engage in is that of learning telegraphy. Operators and managers are in demand. Salaries range from $30.00 to $100.00 per month. More young people should qualify themselves for telegraphers. Our graduates are all employed. We can also furnish a book containing 30 lessons in telegraphy for 25 cents. Send for circulars containing full information. Address, The Cleveland School of Telegraphy, Cleveland, Ohio. 6-4-3m

Theory and Practice of Advertising.

This book is written by a practical advertising man and is written in a practical advertising way. It tells you how to write an advertisement, how to display it, where to place it, how much to pay for it, and how to tell when the results from it are satisfactory. Contains over 100 pages of advertising forms and plans. Every one who has anything to sell should have a copy of this book. Price only $1.00. Address, The Cleveland School of Telegraphy, Cleveland, Ohio. 6-4-3m

You all get Wines and Whiskies anywhere, BUT when you want the best, or Medical use, get a prescription from your Doctor and go to the Middleburg Drug Store for it. tf
