Shine Party.

Last week a gaily party was camped at Faust's Barn in Seven Mountains. Forest Hall, in which, Valley Narrows. The party consisted of F. L. Magee and wife, Mrs. W. C. Magee and daughter Mary, of Napoleon; Lewis Magee and daughter, Mrs. Homer Klockner and Mr. Homer of Lewisburg; Prof. W. F. Magee and wife of South Bend; Mrs. A. C. Magee and wife of Keeshau; Mrs. Susan Miller and daughter of Hiram; Mrs. Kelly of Cowan; Mrs. J. W. Cowan; and the writer of this paper.

Among the visitors Wednesday were Peter Stahl and daughter of Manapque; Mrs. Dora Brown, Mrs. Miller and wife and family, Mrs. J. B. Miller of Millington.

The ladies brought a bountiful supply of good things to eat. There were five chickens, twelve eggs, cake and mince pie, other delicious things. A few of the men spent a portion of the time fishing and hooked 30 speckled beauties.

The night was so cool that the most of the party were comfortably under cover and blankets. The visit was very pleasantly spent and the party broke camp Friday evening.

Mrs. W. K. Stankovich of Beaver Springs spent part of the past week with relatives in this place.
