M. P. ARNOLD.
M. P. Arnold was born in Chapman Twp. sixty one years ago and died at Port Trevorton one day last week.

The news of his death sent a pang of sorrow all through this community where he spent so many years of usefulness. He served his country nine months during the Civil War, taught in the public schools for fifteen years and was Justice of the Peace twenty years. He resided in town until about a year ago when he moved to Milton. Failing in health he returned to his old home a few weeks ago where he died at the home of his son Edwin of a complication of diseases. In his younger years he was married to Salome Shaffer. This union was blessed with nine children who with their mother remain to mourn the loss of their father.

The children are John married to Jennie Herrold; Frank married to Dillie Muller; Annie married to Wm. Herrold of Milton; Carrie married to Wm. Neitz; Wm. married to Sallie Wise; Wesley married to Mary Stroh; Edwin married to Clara Hynde of town; and Mayme and Chas. who resided with their parents. The funeral took place at the U. B. Church Saturday. Rev. Searle and Rev. Haney and Rev. Seilhamer officiated. Interment in St. Johns cemetery, Chapman.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured.
with LOCAL APPLICATIONS as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

FOR FREE ADVICE
Every Woman Should Write Dr. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium.

Mrs. Joseph Lavelle, of Dr. C. Hartman writes: "I began to suffer from the most distressing condition of the female system, and after trying every other medicine without success, I was told by a friend to try Dr. Hartman's medicine. I took it for a few months, and my condition improved so that I could now do my usual work. I am now a healthy woman, and I feel that I owe my recovery to Dr. Hartman's medicine. I have never had any more of the trouble, and I can say that every suffering woman should try it before it is too late. I have never had any more of the trouble, and I can say that every suffering woman should try it before it is too late."—Columbia Jester.

In view of the great number of women suffering from some form of female disease and the many who have written to Dr. Hartman, the eminent specialist on female catarrh diseases, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of any case as he makes application of his medicine during the summer months without charge. Those wishing to become patients should address The Hartman Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.
