Mrs. Henry R. Tobias, who has been sick for some time, is not improving as rapidly as her friends would like. Dr. S. P. Vogelsteller of Selinsgrove was called in consultation with Dr. J. P. Eastwood.

Frank C. Riegel and family, Mrs. Rotherstein and Mrs. Geo. W. Wagenseller attended the choir convention at Freeburg Saturday. They report having heard spendid music. Freeburg rightfully has the reputation of being a musical town.

R. S. Strom, storekeeper, is handling a high grade of Fertilizers, manufactured by the Baltimore Pulverizing Company. Prices range from $25 to $32 a ton. Persons needing a reliable article should call on him. tf.

A lady named Helen Rote found a pocketbook in church and reported the matter to the preacher. Next Sunday the reverend gentleman announced from the pulpit that the party that lost the pocketbook last Sunday could go to Helen Rote for it.

There is a young lady in Selinsgrove who is six feet four inches tall, and she is engaged to be married. The man who won her did it in these words: "Thy beauty sets my soul aglow—I'll wed thee, right or wrong; man wants but little here below, but wants that little—long."

Call on A. E. Sole in the new shaving and hair cutting parlor for your head cleaned with a refreshing shampoo and a clean towel to each patron on the north side of Market square opposite Central Hotel. Satisfaction guaranteed. tf.

Henry J. Reeder of Akron, O., is on a two weeks' visit to his old home and relatives in Middleburg. It is nine years since he made his former visit here. He is proprietor of a prosperous meat business in Akron. He reports the town booming with rubber, oatmeal, printing and other establishments.

M. Millner wishes us to announce that he will open a Dry Goods and Notion Store in Sunbury, Pa., on 3rd. Mr. Millner was in business in Snyder County a little over 10 years and he won a reputation for honesty and fair dealing. He extends an invitation to all his friends in Snyder County to patronize him at his new stand in Sunbury.

Grace Beaver Upstairs.

Last Thursday evening at high noon at the home of Jacob Beaver and wife, their daughter Ida, was married to Wilmer Lesher, son of David Lesher of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. K. Deen, pastor of the Lutheran church of this place.

For the past six years the groom has been employed in Akron, O. Recently he has moved to Cleveland, Akron the bride and groom will make their future home.

The bride is a cultured christian lady, a leader in church and Christian Endeavor Society work. The young couple have many friends here where they were born and raised. All extend their best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

The wedding party left on the 2:58 train for Altoona, where they visited the bride's sister, Mrs. Metzger, before departing for Akron.

Williams Grove Picnic.

The 26th Annual Great Grangers' Picnic Exhibition will be held at Williams Grove the week beginning August 24th. The Exhibition of Farm Machinery will surpass that of any former years, and undoubtly will be the greatest ever held in the Eastern States. The beauty of the exhibit will be that so much of it will be running. Five saw mills, two shingle mills, six road traction engines and threshers, four road crushers, together with numerous feather cutters and other small machinery will make the grand old Grove a hive of industry. A splendid stock exhibit is promised.

During the week the platform of the large Auditorium, which seats 2,000 people, will be occupied by prominent Grangers, Agriculturists, Educators and Politicians.

The evening entertainments will consist of concerts and illustrated lectures. On Thursday and Friday evenings, Frank R. Roberson in illustrated lectures.

A special effort has been made to put on an up-to-date midway, excluding the best tented attractions obtainable. Nothing immoral or objectionable will be tolerated, and any women or child can attend any show on the ground without fear of being offended.

No admission fee to the grounds and reduced rates on all railroads. For rates, consult your ticket agent.

Daniel's Legislative Hand-Book.

Listen to the Goose Honk Her.

Miss Hess of Hoeing Mill has been foretelling the weather in reading the breast bone of the goose for seventy five years, says that the weather that we are having is the coolest that he has ever experienced at this season of the year. He predicts early frosts and says that he would not be surprised if the corn crop would be seriously damaged. He says it is little to early to predict what the Winter will be.

The Heroine Ran Again.

Monday morning while Mrs. William Nagle of Centreville was cooking fire to do her washing the fire was a little slow and she poured oil on the fire from a can. The can exploded and set fire to the clothing. She rolled in the wet grass and by assistance the fire was extinguished, but not until she was severely burned.

A Great Sewer Will Be Built.

We have just received the most complete line of the Liberty Institute and State Normal series of Reminders. We venture that this series is the most prominent means of the excellent catalogue of different subjects we are handling in the state. The [illegible] of our system of drilling troops, service, the passenger elevator (still here) and the excellent courses of instruction place this school in the lead.

The complete preparation for teaching, including tuition is free for county pupils, expenses are as low as in most private training schools.

The catalogue used is a work of art and can be profitably read at the close of the school year. The next term will open Monday, September 7th.

Write to Principal J. C. Wilson, A. M., Ph. D., for copy of catalogue.
