A dollar a year spent for a good newsy paper like the Post will not make you a dollar poorer at the end of the year. It will broaden your opportunities and give you many chances to make a dollar and to save a dollar.

David and J. H. Laudenslager of Salem are doing considerable threshing in their neighborhood, through Penns and Middlecreek Townships.
 They are reliable gentlemen and deserve the patronage of the public.

C. E. Corkins and family of Sunbury mother.

Merchant J. Wilson Swartz has been housed up with kidney and liver trouble being unable to do any work.
 His brother-in-law, Benneville Smith, has been attending to the business for Mr. Swartz during the late illness of the latter.

George Moatz, the son of Milton Moatz, has provided himself with a "sporting" turnout including a handsome driving horse and a pneumatic tire driving wagon. George is a clever young fellow and knows how to have a good time.

John Heinbach of Sunbury, who is well known throughout Snyder County as the man who drives A. W. Pontius' confectionery wagon through here, is undergoing a siege of typhoid fever.
 His many friends in this county hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Dr. J. G. Sallade, who has been spending a few months with her mother, Mrs. C. H. Dunkelberger, has returned to her home at New Ringold.
 She is accompanied by her sister, Lillie Dunkelberger, and her daughter, Mary, who has been in this place for more than a year.

The annual picnic of the Union Sunday Schools of Proxeville was held Saturday. A large number of people from Middleburg and the surrounding country were in attendance. Many of them were pretty thoroughly drenched with rain and will have considerable reason to remember the event.

Frank S. Reigle, who sells organs, pianos and sewing machines all over Snyder County in large quantities last week one morning had the abundant supply of eleven rats in a trap. He has been catching so many rats around his barn which accounts for the elevation of the land around the stable.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE MAGAZINE.
 Official Program of Snyder County Teachers' Institute.

The 46th annual session of the Teachers' Institute of Snyder county will convene in Middleburg, Pa., Monday, Nov. 30, 1903, and the fourth annual publication of the "Teachers' Institute Magazine" will be issued as the official authority of the convention under the direction of the County Superintendent, Prof. Geo. W. Walborn, Freeburg Pa.
 The book will contain all the official announcements of the program, the instructors, entertainments, names and addresses of teachers and directors.
 A few pages will be reserved for advertisements of a clean and respectable nature, at the following rates:—Full page $5.00; half page $3.00; quarter $1.75.

The size of the page will be the same as last year; 6 inches by 9,—the type page 41x7.
 In order to get the book to the teachers and directors in ample time, it will be issued earlier than usual and copy for ads should be sent at once in order to facilitate neat displays.
 This is a splendid means of advertising for schools, colleges, book publishers and school supply houses.
 Send in your copy at once to GEO. W. WAGENSELLER, Publisher, Middleburg, Pa.

 ber 19.

E. S. Stroup, Stroutstown is handling a high grade of Fertilizers, manufactured by the Baltimore Pulverizing Company. Prices range from $13 to $32 a ton. Persons needing a reliable article should call on him.

FOR SALE.—A house and lot situated in Paxtonville is offered at private sale.
 The buildings are in good condition.
 The home is supplied with first-class water, fruits, etc. Write or call on SARAH BOWENOX,
 Paxtonville, Pa.

LOST.—Early this spring a deed was lost between Theodore Fisher's mill near Pawling station and Middleburg.
 Deed was given by Geo. C. Kuster and wife to Lydia Yeager and Chas. Hinkle.
 If it was found, the finder will kindly return to C. F. Hinkle, at Kreamer, Pa.

Many a man is influenced to buy something because he saw it advertised.
 He may now have prior thereto, imagined he wanted the article. But the advertisement aroused desire for its ownership and he purchased. This is one of the ways in which advertisements make business that escapes the non advertiser.

The 3rd Quarterly Conference of Middleburg Circuit of the United Ev.
 Church will be held Sept. 14, at 2 P.
 M. in the Middleburg church. Communion services will be held Oct. 3 and 4. Rev. E. Crumling, P. E., will preside at Quarterly Conference and Rev. A. D. Gramley will assist in the communion services.

Miss Lillian Stetler is enjoying the hospitality of her friend Mrs. Dr.
 Sweigert at Lewistown. Mrs. Sweigert was formerly Miss Mame Bill-meyer, who frequently visited in this place and is well known here. She is the daughter of congressman Andrew Billmeyer of Montour County a sister of Mrs. Gilbert Kulp of Shamokin and who is very seriously ill in the hospital in Philadelphia.

W. Philip Shelly, formerly the foreman of the Sunbury "Evening Item", spent several days in this place. He left Monday morning to accept a similar position in connection with the Daily Publication of the "Democrat & Sentinel" in Lewistown. One of his duties in connection with that office will be to learn to operate a linotype machine. Mr. Shelly was formerly connected with this office and a very faithful and energetic fellow he was.
 He is entitled and thoroughly deserves this promotion and the Post extends to him its best wishes for a very large success.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL FAIR.
 50th Annual Meeting of Brook Park, Lewisburg, to be Big Event.

The Fiftieth Annual Fair of the Union County Agricultural Society will be held at Brook Park, Lewisburg, September 29th and 30th, and Oct. 1st and 2nd, and promises to be the best exhibition ever given by this, one of the oldest fair associations in the State.
 The grounds and buildings have been improved, the premium list revised and increased, and no expense will be spared to make this semi-centennial meeting a star event. The managers have arranged for some very fine attractions for the daily exhibitions in front of the grandstand. The race track is considered one of the best half-mile tracks in the state, and you can expect some fine trotting this season, as a number of fine steppers have already been entered. A large and spacious grandstand, with private boxes for those desiring comfortable seats during the track events. Excursion rates, on all railroads. By sending your name and address to C. Dale Wolf, corresponding secretary, Bucknell, Pa., you will receive pamphlet containing premium list, purses and all information in regard to Union County's Great Fair.

Two Colored Men Captured.
 Charged with statutory rape, in Lewistown, they escape to Snyder Co., and are captured.
 Last Friday morning Theodore Redmond was arrested on the train at Beavertown and Bird Jackson in this place in the afternoon. It is alleged the two colored men enticed two girls by the names of Morrison and Mc-Gauglin, age 15 and 16 years to accompany them to McClure, where the girls were recovered. The men were taken to Lewistown where they are awaiting trial on a serious charge preferred by the girls.

Cuts Grass at 91.
 Jacob Lauver of Kreamer, aged almost 91 years cut grass with a scythe Thursday of last week. He did it with the same even steady movement that actuates much younger arms and legs.
 Some time ago he cut quite a quantity of wood for domestic use. He is a well preserved man and one of the oldest men in Snyder county.

Any young woman who aspires to Red Cross membership or to nursing service in any capacity can get full information by addressing The Philadelphia School for Nurses, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa. The movement is designed especially to benefit young women in small towns and rural communities.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.
 The Democrats of Snyder county held their primary election Saturday and their convention in this place Monday.

Chairman Leshner advertised the convention for 11 a. m., but said he would not call the meeting to order till one p. m. Some one rang the court house bell, shortly after 11 a. m. The delegates assembled, elected Jay G.
 Weiser, temporary chairman and they received the returns. Meanwhile Leshner appeared upon the scene and made an effort to secure the papers. He finally yielded to the will of the convention and the following nominations were made:

Associate Judge, John Field.
 Prothonotary, J. G. Hornberger.
 Register and Recorder, R. Lloyd Schroyer.
 District Attorney, Jay G. Weiser.
 Jury Commissioner, Jacob Jarrett.

After the nominations were made Paul Billhardt and George Holsapple made speeches paying their respects to Chairman Leshner. Billhardt objected to Leshner carrying at the head of his paper, "The only Democratic Paper in Snyder county," while he supported Republican candidates.

Washington Township Inscriptions.
 The Post has published all the tombstone inscriptions of Snyder Co., except those of Washington Township.

Hummel's Re-union.
 The first Hummel's re-union, which was held at Clement's park on Aug. 27, proved a great success; representatives of the family and their friends having gathered to the number of nearly three hundred. In the forenoon a permanent organization was effected by the election of the following officers:

Pres. Wm. E. Hummel of New Columbia; Vice-President, Benj. Hummel of Shamokin Dam; Secretary, S.
 H. Reichley of Milton; Treasurer Jacob Hummel of Lewisburg. In the afternoon very interesting family history interspersed by amusing anecdotes and reminiscences, was delivered by W. E.
 Hummel followed by very appropriate addresses by Rev. Womelsdorf and W.
 C. Burns. Fisher's Orchestra of Sunbury furnished excellent music and with the other entertainments and amusements all enjoyed a very pleasant and memorable day.

J. P. Yoder of New Berlin is having the buildings on his farm east of town treated to a coat of paint. A. J. Cross-grove has the contract and has a force of men at work. Harry Dunkelberger, who is married to a daughter of Henry Miller is the tenant and a careful energetic farmer.

Joseph L. Marks will move his distillery and warehouse to Swineford below Cluser's store. This will make it more convenient for him to look after the plant. He traded his water right at the present site to the Water Co., and the Water Co., in turn gives him perpetual water for his distillery.
