Convention of Synod.
 The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Central Pa., met in fiftieth regular convention, in the Lutheran Church of Beavertown, Rev. I. P. Zimmerman, pastor; Wednesday evening, Sept. 30, 1903.

The Pres., Rev. J. M. Rarick, opened his sessions with a sermon from Matt. 28:20, after which the Holy Communion was administered to members of Synod.

The President's report, giving a general view of the "Activities of the Church," was decidedly encouraging. Two new churches were dedicated and considerable improvement in church property in the way of parsonages, etc. was reported.

The present membership of Synod is 9574; who contributed for benevolence $100,16.00, and for all objects, a grand total of $75,000. In accomplishing this result, the Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies, were important factors.

The general work of the Church, Missionary and Educational, was most interestingly and forcibly presented by representatives sent by the Boards and Institutions. Special attention was called to the fundamental work of Education, for the support of which the General Synod, at Baltimore, decided to raise a fund of $1,000,000, within the next five years.

The Tressler Orphans' Home at Loysville is in splendid condition and caring well for the Orphans of the Church.

It was decided that, at the next convention, the Semi-Centennial of the Synod be celebrated by appropriate exercises. Rev. C. L. McConnell, was appointed historian orator, for the occasion.

Synod was informed that it's indebtedness on account of the Theological Seminary, at Gettysburg, was cancelled, because the necessary money has been secured from other sources.

The Woman's H. & F. M. Society, through its President, Mrs. W. H. Schoch, rendered a most gratifying report.

This society, with a membership of 800, contributed for missions, $1550. Synod earnestly urges the remaining 4000 women of the Synod to enlist in this noble work, and add their prayers and gifts to the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth.

At the impressive Sunday evening service, four young men were licensed to preach the gospel for one year, and J. B. Langham of Marysville, was ordained to the office of the Holy Ministry, by the laying on of hands.

After re-electing the old officers, Pres. Rev. J. M. Rarick, Secretary, Rev. W. D. E. Scott, Treasurer, J. A. Price, Statistician, Rev. T. C. Houtz, Synod adjourned to meet in Belleville, Pa., Sept. 1904.

The Convention was marked by harmony and charity. Its sessions were well attended and the services throughout were most enjoyable and inspiring. The Synod will long and gratefully cherish the memory of the cordial and open-hearted hospitality of the people of Beavertown. W. K. D.

MR. HINGSTON, THE NEW YORK PHOTOGRAPHER over Runkle's store in Middleburg is doing a big business. His one Dollar Photographs are splendid. Now is your chance to get excellent photographs. Do not miss it.

THE JURY MUDDLE.
 Tuesday morning when the case of Mr. Seifred vs. the P. R. R. Co., came up, testimony was presented to show that the jury wheel was not filled according to law. The law specifies that the Jury Commissioners shall each drop one name in at a time alternately. This was not done. The court postponed the case for next term and ordered the Jury Commissioners to refill the wheel and place in 100 names.

Court then adjourned until Thursday at 1:30 p. m.

Our President.
 Our President a man is he,
 To weaker frames he power instills;
 When others tremble like a tree,
 He standeth firm as Albion's hill.
 He stands for right to rich and poor,
 To evil thoughts he gives no place;
 When villain would to wrong allure,
 He shows them soon a Lincoln's face.

The bribers with a smile declare,
 "The nest have yielded he will too";
 But ere the end they are aware,
 That they have met their Waterloo.
 He's brave in battle for the right,
 He showed this down on Cuba's shores;
 If you have any doubt, you might,
 Just go and ask the second Moors.
 "He served us well" say I and Sam,
 "He did his duty every day";
 So help him boys, help all you can,
 When to the polls you make your way".
