An Illinois court has decided that when a man is sent to prison for the murder of his wife he is judicially dead, and the children are entitled to the insurance on the life of the murdered woman, even if it was taken out in favor of the husband.

No sensible man should ever does get angry because a man duns him for money. A dun is not an impeachment of subscriber's integrity, but is simply the outpouring of a publisher's necessities. For if 1,000 men owe from $1 to $10 each, he has to dun them in order to pay expense. Instead of getting angry and stopping the paper because the publisher asks for what is due him he should thank the editor for waiting waiting patiently, and pay up like a man.

The Allegheny observatory has just discovered a great sun spot that may bring magnetic disturbance to the earth. They are able to discover anything at Pittsburg, especially in the political sky.

A decisive slump in freight traffic on the Middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad has resulted in orders being issued for the reduction of the working force to a considerable extent. Five entire crews have already been taken off. Of these three were from the Altoona end of the division and the remaining two from the other. The reduction of forces has necessitated a general changing about of the other crews.

In some sections of Texas cotton-growing is being abandoned because of the boll weevil pest, and the land is being turned to other crops, while in some cases Texas cotton growers are moving to Oklahoma and Indian Territory, where the boll weevil has not yet reached.

The Jury Wheel

The events of last week's court in connection with the jury wheel is causing considerable comment. In order that the matter may be thoroughly understood, we will endeavor to explain. The election laws provide for two jury commissioners each political party to have one commissioner. Beyond their election by the various parties, politics shall have nothing to do with them or with their duties. In fact the law wants the jury wheel absolutely free from politics and it says that only one name shall be deposited at a time and by each jury commissioner alternately. This shows that the Democratic Commissioner must put in as many names as the republican commissioner.

While this is true, it is not supposed that the republican Jury Commissioner puts in names only of republicans nor the Democratic Jury Commissioner the names only of democrats. In fact, neither jury commissioner is supposed to put in the names of any one simply because they are democrats or republicans. The law wants the jury system exempted from politics and the names put into the box shall be those of good reliable citizens, no matter what their politics is. If each jury commissioner puts in the names only of members of their own political party, it will be seen that in Snyder County the democrats have a decided advantage, because there are less of the latter and their names would get into the box oftener than those of republicans.

The law was explained by Judge McClure last week. The jury is to be selected not because of their political affiliations, but because of their eminent fitness to serve as competent Judges involving the rights of men in the courts of justice.

We trust the Jury Commissioners will give the courts a clean Jury free from politics.

Take Millions to Repair Damages.

Easton, Pa., Oct. 12.—The Delaware river has begun to recede. It is impossible to estimate the loss or even approximate it, but in Easton and towns up and down the course of the Delaware it will take millions of dollars to replace the bridges and repair other damage. Only one bridge from the headwaters of the Delaware to Easton is standing, and that is an old covered structure at Portland.

Hundreds Homeless at Scranton. Scranton, Pa., Oct. 12.—Property valued at almost $1,000,000 was destroyed and hundreds of families were rendered homeless as a result of the flood which visited this section. The waters in some quarters are still rising, and the entire police and fire departments are engaged in rescuing the terror-stricken people. Traffic on the railroads is at a standstill, and it is an utter impossibility to reach New York from this city. The damage is due to the washing away of railroad tracks and of bridges and the flooding of cellars and of mines. The Delaware and Hudson railroad is the heaviest sufferer in this respect.
