

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY
 PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE POST BY ITS CORPS OF CORRESPONDENTS

VERDILLA.

W. H. Reigle of Nanticoke came to spend the winter with his father.
 Dan Stahl, who has been employed at Lancaster, came home to stay.
 Robert, Harry and Francis Auck and wife saw the Bloomsburg fair last week.
 Merchant A. S. Sechrist made a business trip to York last week.
 And still we have some people who hunt on Sunday.
 D. W. Stahl was to Sunbury on Saturday.
 Henry Scholl aged 68 yrs, 3 mos. and 4 days was interred at Grubbs church Monday.

KREAMER.

A good many people of this place went to Lewistown Wednesday to attend the fair and visit friends.
 Mrs. J. M. Maurer attended the fair at Bloomsburg Thursday and Friday.
 John Mitchell of Renova is visiting his parents since Wednesday and then went to Lewistown Saturday to visit his brother.
 Mrs. Harry Ritter of this place is on the sick list.
 The hunting season opened Thursday finding a good many hunters but no turkeys got shot.
 Rev. Womeldorf preached a very interesting sermon Sunday evening and in Duet. 7th chapt. 1-13 verses.
 Mr. Magee, wife and Miss Renner took a drive Sunday.
 Miss Lottie Maurer who spent the summer in Selinsgrove returned home last week.
 Fields and Yoder received a card of fine beeves last week.
 Miss Verdie Fields went to Lewistown last week to spend several months with her sisters.

MEISERVILLE.

Last Friday our town was shocked to hear of the death of Holmes Nicholas, one of our respected citizens. Mr. Nicholas, was a painter by trade, was industrious, loved and respected by all. He was a man whom we feel we cannot spare, it still willingly submit to the will of Him who doeth all things well.
 Albert Meiser, one of our promising young men has left for Canaan, here he is taking a course in a veterinary institute.
 The horse sale at Oriental was well attended Saturday.
 "Pappy" says he was fairly tight at the foot race up on the hill Saturday evening. Yes Pappy, you had better stay on the level.
 David Meiser, our merchant, made a trip to Georgetown; David an honest, upright man in his dealings, and any one can trust to deal with him.
 G. W. Portzline, who was employed as watchman in Trevorton, is at home again.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.

Wm. Yerger in improving his home by building a New Barn.
 B. F. Arbogast is visiting his mother, in Lewistown.
 The Spelling Bee held in Heisterly school-house, Friday evening was enjoyed by all who were there.
 Miss Sadie Stroup of Pallas is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Reichblach.
 Daniel Haas and wife, Harvey Haas and wife attended the funeral of Mr. Shrader at Mt. Patrick Sunday.
 J. M. Taggart, the life insurance agent, was in town last week.
 Abraham Mitterling, an old and respected farmer, died at his residence, three miles west of town.
 Dr. Rothrock's attended the funeral of Henry Sholl near Verdilla Monday.
 A number of our young folks were to Daniel's church Sunday evening.
 Harvest Home Services were held at St. John's church Sunday by Rev. Fetterolf.

PORT TREVORTON.

Dr. J. C. Orwig of Herdon passed through town last week.

Mrs. Mary A. Arnold and daughter, Miss Isora, left for Harrisburg Friday where they will spend a week with the former's daughter, Mrs. W. S. Lenhart and then leave for Washington, D. C. where they will spend the winter with Ed. L. Grant S., and Dr. J. S. Arnold.

W. M. Freeborn and wife of Sunbury mingled with relatives during the past week.
 Messrs. W. L. and J. P. Heffenstein of Shamokin and Gadsby of Washington, D. C. are among the sportsmen, who are hunting quail in our vicinity.
 Dr. J. E. Bogar of Herndon made several professional calls in town the past week.
 Miss Toledo Houtz, Mrs. J. E. Arnold and daughter, Ruth, of Shamokin returned home after having spent several days very pleasantly under the parental roof.
 Sheets Kelley of Sunbury spent last week in town.
 Miss Sue Gensamere returned to Selinsgrove Saturday after having spent several days at the homestead where she entertained her cousin, Miss Alha Earhart, Harrisburg.
 Miss Mayme Boyer was called home from Allentown on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. G. Clarence Faust.
 Mrs. Priscilla Brubaker of Mahantongo paid her relatives a visit Friday.
 J. C. Shaffer, our expert painter, is painting Wesley Flander's new house at Chapman.
 Chas. Bower and wife of Lebanon spent last week very pleasantly with his uncle, D. G. Stahl and wife.
 Harvey Shaffer, formerly one of our lads, but now one of Lebanon's promising young men, spent several days in town the guest of his father, H. L. Shaffer.
 Presiding Elder Ressler of Johnstown delivered an interesting sermon in the U. B. Church Thursday evening.

WEST BEAVER.

Clot Fisher, Jr., was home from Burnham to spend Sunday with his parents at Lowell.
 Our mail carrier Ammon Bowersox and family took a trip to Milton last week. He claims that is the country to get your schooners for a nickle.
 The few surviving members here of the 49th Regt. P. V., expect to attend the reunion of their regiment at Lewistown, Oct. 29 and 30.
 H. W. Knepp and Daniel Heeter is hauling lumber to McClure from the mill lately put up on the Henry Hassinger tract.
 Isaac Troxel was a visitor at McClure, Saturday.
 As usual it has been reported the

SCHNEE.

The Reif Bros. of Scranton are spending the week with their cousin Adam Reif.
 Presiding Elder Buck preached in the Ev. Church Saturday evening.
 Jacob Lenig of Milmont spent Sunday with relatives.
 Mrs. Ellen Kelly daughter Ellie and Daisy Neitz spent Sunday at Dry Saw Mill.
 Edwin Arnold and family spent Sunday with relatives in the country.
 Jas. Neitz has accepted a position with the Bell Telephone Co. at Sunbury.
 Geo. Troutman and wife, S. P. Stellen and wife Henry Stepp, Mrs. Jos. Bogar and Miss Katie Troutman attended the funeral Homer Nicholas at Mahantongo Sunday.
 Clarence, Harve and Charles Lenig of Milton spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Anna Lenig. Harve had been absent for nearly two years and received a hearty welcome from his host of friends.
 The festival which was held by the Mite Society of the U. B. church Saturday evening was a financial success. The weather was very inclement and the rain came down in torrents but the young folks could not be daunted when a festival was to be held and to these young folks the society owes its success.

SCHNEE.

Miss Sadie Teats of Pallas visited relatives here a few days last week.
 Insurance agent, J. M. Taggart of Harrisburg and three well known fellows of Fremont, H. C. Hass, H. Harding and lumberman W. H. Wendt, transacted business in town Friday.
 J. B. Woodling of Herndon with his flying horses had been in town for nearly two weeks, and left for Middleburg from here.
 Mrs. Wert Row and daughter of near Millintown are visiting her sister, Mrs. David Hoover.
 Levi S. Gelnet, wife and daughter Annie, attended church at Daniel's Sunday afternoon.
 Curt Barner of Shippensburg transacted business in town Thursday.
 Thomas G. Arbogast, wife and daughter, Miss M-e, of Freeburg, passed through town Sunday.

John Fields a well known gentleman of Kreamer, was in town on Monday looking up his political friends.
 Misses Grace and Emma Woodling of Milton, mingled among their friends in town a few days last week.
 Rev. Fetterolf held the harvest home service in St. John's Church Sunday.
 David Hoover, wife and daughter Stella, were shopping in Sunbury Thursday.
 Levi Gelnet and wife left Tuesday for the Eastern cities to buy fall and winter merchandise.
 Found—A brown pocket book about two weeks ago in Shaffer Stettle, containing coins. The owner can address Schner, P. O. Box 21.
 George Wagner and family visited friends in Buckwheat Valley Sunday.
 F. J. Kerstetter, our land lord, is busy improving his property there last few weeks.
 Steward Gelnet was at Aline Sunday to visit his better half.

RICHFIELD.

Ex-Senator Hartzler, his wife and son Boies, spent Wednesday and Thursday in our town.
 Wilson Strawder and family were in town Saturday.
 Harry Stahl and mother spent a few weeks in Shenandoah as the guests of Samuel Stahl, Mrs. Samuel Stahl accompanied them on their return home.
 Lee Winey of Swineford, was in town Saturday.
 While all our local sportman and many from a distance scoured the woods in our locality Thursday not one succeeded in bagging a wild turkey.
 The woods is arrayed in beautiful and gorgeous colors. The trees are already drooping for the long sleep of winter.
 The Mennonite Brethren held communion services Sunday fore noon.
 Abraham Mitterling, a valued citizen of West Perry Township departed this life last Thursday evening. That dreaded disease, consumption had fastened itself upon him and it was from a severe hemorrhage that he died on the said evening. He was laid to rest in the Richfield cemetery Monday. He was a member of the Reformed Church at this place and was respected by all for his many christian qualities. Aged 62 years.

WANTED—A trust worthy gentl man or lady in each county to manage business for an old established house o solid financial standing. A straight 2000 fide weekly salary of $18.00 paid by check each Monday with all expenses direct from headquarters. Money advanced for expenses. Enclose addressed envelope. Manager, 200 Caxton Bldg., Chicago. 10-1-10

Broke Into His House

S. Le Quan of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured, 25c at Middleburg Drug Co., Graybill and Gammie, Richfield and Dr. J. W. Sampsell Penns Creek.

COURT HOUSE CHIPS.

Deeds Recorded.
 Thomas M. Kessler to John Schuch 2 acres in Monroe twp., $85.
 John M. Moyer and wife to Catherine Weirick, J. A. in Adams township $50.
 Moses Specht and wife to Peter Bobb 90 acres in Beaver twp., $700.
 Sarah M. Fisher to Jacob Fisher roadway in Penn twp., $1.
 M. A. Grimm, et. al. to Albert Dreese, 47 acres in Beaver township, $1700.
 Isaac Leffler and wife to J. W. Hackenberg, house and lot in Spring twp., $400.
 Edward Bassler and wife to Emma J. Wiest, 4 acres in Washington twp., $800.
 F. J. Wagonseller to B. F. Kantz, lot in Union Cemetery, $25.
 Henry Hosterman and wife to Francis E. Hoke, 1 acres in Penns twp., $225.
 John J. Gill and wife to Mrs. Jane E. Troup, lot in Paxtonville, $450.
 Estate of N. T. Dundore, Maria' W. Dundore, Executrix and sol heir.
 Estate of John Brouse, late of Jackson twp., Franklin and Samuel Brouse Executors.

Millin county fair was well stocked with fakirs and swindlers.

Wm. Bartholemew of Sunbury spent a few days here on a hunting trip with a poor result.
 Joseph Beaver is home from Millin county to spend a few weeks with his family at Bannerville preparing for the winter.
 Mrs. Good, who has been making her home with Ammon Moyer, is on the sick list.
 Our old veteran, J. J. Mattern, and his friend John D. Howell are making preparations to sit behind hot stove this winter.
 The contest between John Hughes and Wm. Roush for big fogs is still going on. Hughes says he has not begun to feel strong yet. He feeds only 18 quarts of rye chop a day to his three fogs.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Marriage Licenses.

Charles A. Shaver, Pottsville and Pearl J. Goss, Pottsville.
 Charles O. Reminger, Selinsgrove and Emma Nace Selinsgrove.
 The G. Waggon West, Pottsville, and Myrtle H. Marston, Pottsville.
 Oct. 13, by Rev. A. D. Gumbler, Charles A. Shaver of Pottsville and Pearl M. Goss of Pottsville.
 Wm. H. Stadel is spending a few days in Shamokin having left Tuesday evening.
 John Bunkle and daughter Glad are in Philadelphia and husband purchasing goods.
 Mrs. E. P. Custer and children are visiting her mother Mrs. J. A. Hassinger.
 Miss Bertha Crouse left Wednesday for Phila., where she will resume her work as a dressmaker.
 Mr. and Mrs. Manteek of Leeburg paid a visit to Attorney H. H. Grinn and family this week.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—A number of illegal fishermen have been caught in the drax nets of the department of fisheries within a day or two.

Frank P. Martin of Johnstown, was fined by a Somerset county justice $15 a piece for 19 short trout, which he caught July 31 last, making a total fine of $360. John Peoples, of Lancaster, was arrested for using nets in the Conestoga, and Isaac Sechrist for using an eel basket in Chickies creek without a license. Over in Adams county a warden arrested C. W. Butt, E. B. Eisenhart and James Julius for running fish baskets without a license. They were fined $25 each.

INTERESTING FURNITURE OFFERINGS NOW. OAK BEDROOM SUITS.

$15.00 for 2 piece Suit, combination dresser and wash stand.
 $20.00, 3 piece suit, swell front in upper drawers, fancy tilting mirror, 7 piece set of same $24.75.
 $18.00 3 piece suit, $22.50, 7 piece suit, square bevelled mirror. $22.75 3 piece, $27.50, 7 piece upper drawers swell front large mirror.
 $38.75, 7 piece. Suits of quartered oak, full swell front, in dresser, carved frames holding oval plate glass mirror. Bedsteads have heavy raised carvings.

Spring and Mattresses.
 Mattresses all made of fancy striped ticking. Straw with cotton top, big bargain for $2.50. Pure cotton, clean and healthful, 2 parts. $7.00, 8.00, 10.00 $12.00, two parts, made of pure white cotton, best that can be made.
 Springs for $2.50 spiral springs, folding $3.00 ones have lace top of wire. Woven wire springs oak frame adjustable $2.25, 2.50, 3.00 to $6.00.

Kitchen Cabinets and Cupboards.
 Square Top Extension Tables all qualities and Styles.
 Morris Chairs—Large and Small.
 $2.50 LADIES' SHOE, $2.00.

TOYS IN BASEMENT. Opening up daily, imported and Domestic Toys ever bought in this town.
Carpet Buying Time Now, We have beautiful Patterns.

Schreyer Store Co.,
 Front Street. MILTON, Penna. Elby Street