

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN NEARBY VILLAGES OF SNYDER COUNTY

CHAPMAN.

Howard Reichenbach, of McKees Half Falls, was visiting in our vicinity, Sunday.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.

Miss Martha Rothrock, a student of Susquehanna University, at Seesgrove, and her friend, Miss Law, left a few days' vacation at her home.

SELINGROVE.

Mrs. Kate Kantner moved to Williamsport where her son, Will, is employed.

WEST BEAVER.

There is still a lot of corn to be husked at this end.

NEITZ'S VALLEY.

Benjamin, Edward and Jacob Shaffer passed through this valley with the new church bell for the Dreese's church Tuesday.

KREAMER.

Miss Lottie Maurer spent her Thanksgiving in Lewistown.

COURT HOUSE CHIPS.

D. N. App, Treasurer, to the County Commissioners, Howard Troxel tract, in Adams twp., $3.97.

FREEBURG.

Nathan Diehl built a new corn crib on his property last week.

HUMMEL'S WHARF.

Miss Mary Bailey and brother, Nathaniel, were callers in this place Sunday.

PALLAS.

The snow has caught some of our low farmers with their corn fields only half cleaned up.

WEST BEAVER.

John Garman has returned from a two years' stay in Nebraska, and reports old Pennsylvania good enough for him.

NEITZ'S VALLEY.

William Hoekenbroeck, who was on the sick-list, is up and about again.

KREAMER.

Monday the new barn at the church was ready for the shingles, but the fast falling snow prevented the completion of the job.

COURT HOUSE CHIPS.

D. N. App, Treasurer, to the County Commissioners, Howard Troxel tract, in Adams twp., $3.97.

FREEBURG.

A Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at W. H. Gordon's by relatives of that family.

HUMMEL'S WHARF.

Miss Mary Bailey and brother, Nathaniel, were callers in this place Sunday.

PALLAS.

The snow has caught some of our low farmers with their corn fields only half cleaned up.

WEST BEAVER.

John Garman has returned from a two years' stay in Nebraska, and reports old Pennsylvania good enough for him.

NEITZ'S VALLEY.

William Hoekenbroeck, who was on the sick-list, is up and about again.

KREAMER.

Monday the new barn at the church was ready for the shingles, but the fast falling snow prevented the completion of the job.

COURT HOUSE CHIPS.

D. N. App, Treasurer, to the County Commissioners, Howard Troxel tract, in Adams twp., $3.97.

FREEBURG.

A Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at W. H. Gordon's by relatives of that family.

HUMMEL'S WHARF.

Miss Mary Bailey and brother, Nathaniel, were callers in this place Sunday.

PALLAS.

The snow has caught some of our low farmers with their corn fields only half cleaned up.

WEST BEAVER.

John Garman has returned from a two years' stay in Nebraska, and reports old Pennsylvania good enough for him.

NEITZ'S VALLEY.

William Hoekenbroeck, who was on the sick-list, is up and about again.

KREAMER.

Monday the new barn at the church was ready for the shingles, but the fast falling snow prevented the completion of the job.

COURT HOUSE CHIPS.

D. N. App, Treasurer, to the County Commissioners, Howard Troxel tract, in Adams twp., $3.97.

May P. Landenslager, admx. of David W. Landenslager, deceased, to Francis Miller 5 acres, 47 perches in Penn twp., $800.

Francis Miller and wife to Elmer E. Miller, 5 acres, 47 perches in Penn twp., $800.

John F. Baily, et. al., to Henry Hunt released deed for 130 acres, 144 perches in Centre twp., $1125.

Wm. Wagner, et. al., heirs of Edward R. Wagner, to Amanda Wagner, 2 1/2 A. in West Perry twp., $200.

Sarah A. Bowersox, et. al., to Lizzie A. Graybill, house and lot in Paxtonville, $525.

M. K. Schoch and wife to Boyd H. Stetler, lot No. 3 in Franklin twp., $200.

Joseph S. Marks and wife to Middleburg Water Co., 4 A., 140 P. in Franklin twp. for two lots in Franklin twp.

Ellen Spotts and husband to William A. Kalfiter, lot in Fremont, $450.

Wills probated.

The last will and testament of James A. Jarett, late of Penn twp., deceased, was probated and letters administered to W. D. Jarett, who is named as executor. The children named in the will are:

James Jarett, son.

John Jarett, son.

Miss Ada Meyer and friend of Paxtonville, are spending the week at the Washington House for the purpose of attending institute.

W. K. Shook, teacher of subjects school in Union township, dropped on Monday, Friday for the celebration of his father, Solomon Shook and D. J. Nettie.

E. S. Obirlich, of Freedom, and Benjamin Graybill, two of the regular members of their districts dropped on Monday and became cash-in-hand members of the district.

Through some fault of the Express Co., a large double-column portrait of Supt. Walburn, failed to arrive before going to press. It will appear next week.

Jacob Rorer, merchant at Paxtonville, was at Middleburg, Monday evening. He says that the discontinuance of that post office is a great inconvenience to the people of that vicinity.

W. A. Hornberger, teacher of Gordon's school in West Perry township, and wife are being entertained by Geo. H. Walter and wife.

Lady teachers desiring photographs of the group taken Tuesday morning can leave their orders with Supt. Walburn or Mr. Hoekenberry.

THE OLD RELIABLE

There is no substitute.

Miss Elizabeth Knepp, wife of Geo. Knepp, died at her home in Paxtonville, on Monday, Nov. 22, 1903, aged 70 years, 11 months and 17 days.

The above notice is published in compliance with the provisions of the Pennsylvania Probate Act. The undersigned is the executor of the estate of the deceased.

Business notices in this paper are published at a special rate. The advertiser is requested to specify the number of insertions and the position of the advertisement.

Private printing and work with photographic plates and designs. Your own face is shown on the map of Snyder County, Pa., all for a little dollar. See particulars on fourth page of the Post.

Are You Planning For Christmas?

IT WILL BE WORTH IT

Ripple's Holiday Opening

And see the most magnificent ART DISPLAY ever seen.

A well chosen Picture is a Constant Companion that Soon Grows to be a Dear Friend.

You will have a wide selection to choose from in the great display line about to be placed on exhibition.

There will be Pastels, Oil and Water Colors. The ever popular Posters, Platinum Prints, Photo-Engravings, Linings, Fac-Similes or great paintings.

There is something more in

Framing

Than a nitre box and a glass cover.

A pretty picture is like a Pretty Woman.

Both must be well dressed to get the best effect, and

Dressing Pictures is Our Specialty.

We have all the LATEST and ARTISTIC designs in FRAMES.

Ovals, Squares and Circles,

EBONY, NATURAL WEATHERED & FLEMISH OAK, BLACK, GOLDS, and SILVERS, NOVEL DESIGNS IN BURNT WOOD.

If you see what you want ask for it. We've got it or can get it. We have cheap goods and dear goods, but they are all good goods.

RIPPLE ARTIST, No. 356 Market Street, Sunbury, Pa.