ROAD AND FARM IMPROVEMENT

HILLSIDE CULTIVATION.

An Idea from Switzerland That Might Be Modified for Use in This Country.

The cut, reproduced from a Swiss horticultural paper, shows how cultivation is accomplished in Alpine vineyards where the land is stacked up on its edge.

CULTIVATING STEEP HILLSIDES.

terior of Europe than here. A boy could manage the motive power, and otherwise inaccessible slopes of land, highly suitable for special crops can be well cultivated.

HOW TO GET GOOD ROADS.

Enemies of Mud Should Unite in a Campaign for a Principle, Not for Details.

One great reason for the prevalence of bad roads throughout the United States is lack of agreement and united action among the advocates of improvement.

If the results of the committee are to be made good within the lifetime of the present generation, it is plain that the advocates of more roads should unite in support of a few general propositions.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

Bishop Potter says: "We are getting to be in such a hurry in America that the ordinary civilities are disappearing out of our education and our life."

Politeness and the Street Cars. peering out of our education and our life.

Street car manners, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, soon spread to other relations of life.

Another speculator has wrecked a bank. The fact that a man speculates is sufficient indication that he is a good man to be allowed to handle his own money exclusively.

A New Yorker bequeathed his fortune of $100,000 to a young woman who had refused to marry him.

A New York judge has a vexed question before him to decide, the problem being whether one of two "coon songs" is copied from the other.

To plunge into this field of dispute seems a hopeless matter, for the multiplication of dinky songs written by white people has been so great that their resemblance can be detected without difficulty in a hundred instances.

Before encouraging any parasite that promises to kill mosquitoes it would be wise to be absolutely certain about the parasite's friendliness to human interests.

The Aaron Burr legion has been formed, its object being "the rehabilitation of the memory of Aaron Burr."
