Wheat Destroyed by Fire .- About two hunred bushels of wheat, in the stack, belonging to Mr. Sigfrist, near Keiserville, we learn, was destroyed by e a day or two since. The fire originated from the burning of a fallow, which was adjacent to the wheat field, and was communicated to the stacks by the burning of the stubble, which could not be arrested.

Gody's bady's Book for September, has been received by us, and deserves a more flattering notice than we are able at this time to give it. Suffice to say that the Lady's Book is just the book for all those who wish to "keep up with the times and fachions." Its price $3 per annum. Address L. A. Godey, 323 Chestnut St. Phila.

Court is now in session and must furnish a sufficient excuse for us, for any deficiencies or errors in this fesue of our paper.

Quite a large number of new criminal cases came up, which will probably be disposed of, before adour ment. No cases on the civil list, were tried at this term. The Grand Jury were discharged to-day A brief account of the proceedings will be given in out hext issue.

House Burned .- The house of Henry Everett, who resides on Carney Flatts, in Washington Township, we learn, was entirely destroyed by fire, one night last week. Mr. Everett was absent at the time. His wife and children barely escaped with PENELOPE BLACKMAR, their lives, by jumping from a back window, not even saving the clothes of the children. No cause for the fire is assigned. Mr. Everett is said to be a poor and industrious man. The condition of his fam ily deserves substantial tokens of sympathy from his neighbors.

Recruiting Resumed .- Mr. I. S. Little has returned from Washington with assurances that, if a sufficient number enlist to make out the quota of this county, before the first of September, that a draft for soldiers will not be resorted to. A late order from Secretary Stanton to that effect, having been given.

Mr. Little is now engaged in the work of raising another company, in which we, and all others subject to military duty, hope he will be entirely suc-

War Meeting at Nicholson .- Alarge and en. thusiastic meeting was held in Nicholson, on Tuesday the 12th inst., for the aiding of enlistments. The meeting was called to order and organized as follows, viz: President, Mason Parker. Vice Presidents, Chas L Jackson, John Hinkley, Sherman Driggs, Chas. Bacon. Secretary, Chas. Baldwin. A Committee having been appointed to draft reso lutions, reported the following : Resolved That as we are now in the position that every man who can be spared, should at once enlist and hasten to answer the call of the President. Resolved, That we will each and every one of us provide for, as far as lays in our power, the comfort and wants, of those dependent on the absent volum Resolved, That we fully endorse the action of the Board of Relief, in giving bounties. Resolved, That we have unbounded confidence in Abraham Lincoln, and the officers placed over the army; that we will use our utmost endeavors to as sist the government with men and means. Resolved, That we fully endorse the proclamation of the President calling for men, in which he says it is to maintain the Constitution and the Laws, as given to us by our fathers. Resolved, That we regard all attempts to traduce, malign or disparage our generals now in the field, as disloyal, traitorous, and pronounce it treason-asking the President to punish the guilty.

Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting are tendered to the officers for their services.

Resalved, That the proceedings be forwarded to the county papers for publication
