Provided, That the white freemen citizens of the United States, between the ages of 21 and 22 years, and having resided in this State one year, and in the election district 10 days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

No persons shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners as aforesaid, unless first he produces a receipt for the payment within two years of a State or County tax assessed against him to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence either on his or on the affirmation of another, that he has paid such tax, or on failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof; or second, if he claims a right to vote by being an elector between the ages of 21 and 22 years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in his district as required by this Act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the said age, and give such other evidences as is required by this Act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of his having paid taxes, or the word "age," if he shall be permitted to vote on account of his age, and in either case the reason of such vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall mark in the list of voters kept by them.

Any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent an officer of an election under this act from holding such election or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interfere with him in the execution of his duty or shall block up or attempt to block the window or avenue or any window where the same may be held, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force, or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any time not less than one, nor more than twelve months; and if said shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offense shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township, where the offence was committed, and not entitled to a vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and be imprisoned not less than six months, nor more than two years.

Agreeably to the provisions of the sixty-first section of said Act, every general and special election shall be held on the third day after the expiration of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force, or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any time not less than one, nor more than twelve months; and if said shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offense shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township, where the offence was committed, and not entitled to a vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and be imprisoned not less than six months, nor more than two years.

Parsons to the provisions contained in the 76th section of the Act, the Judges of the aforesaid districts, respectively shall take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one Judge from each district, at the Court House, in the Borough of Tunkhannock, on the third day after the expiration of said election, being the 17th day of October next, then and there, to do and perform the duties required by law of said Judges. Also, that where a Judge, by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of Judges, then the certificate, or return, aforesaid, shall be taken charge of by one of the Inspectors or Clerks of election of said district, who shall do and perform the duties required of said Judge unable to attend.

Also, that in the 31st section of said Act, it is enacted that "when two or more counties shall comprise a district for the choice of a member, or members of the senate of this Commonwealth, or the House of Representatives of the United States or of this Commonwealth, or President Judge, the Judges of the election in each county having met as aforesaid, the Clerks shall make out a fair statement of all the votes which shall have been given at such election, within the county, for every person Judge, as such member or members, or President Judge, which shall be signed by said Judges and attested by the Clerks; and one of the said Judges shall take charge of said certificate, and shall produce the same at a meeting of one Judge from each county in such district as is or may be appointed by law for the purpose, which meeting shall be held the seventh day after the election."

Given under my hand and seal of my office, in Tunkhannock, this 17th day of September, A. D. 1862. LEVI H. STEPHENS, Sheriff. Tunkhannock, Sept. 17, 1862.
