Apples for the Hospitals. CENTRAL OFFICE, SANITARY COMMISSION, WASHINGTON, October 2d 1862. The inquiry being frequently made whether the Commission wishes to receive apples for the use of the wounded, it should immediately be published, as widely as possible, that dried apples cannot be sent to its depots in too large quantities. Town and village Relief Societies are requested to make arrangements for paring, cutting and drying by their members, and such volunteer assistance as they can enlist, and to notify farmers that they will receive such good fruit as they may be disposed to offer and are unable themselves to properly prepare. Dried apples may be sent in barrels or boxes, or in strong bags marked "to be kept dry." Dried fruits of other kinds, and all good canned fruits, will be very acceptable. FRED. LAW OLSTED, General Secretary.

No MORE LIST WANTED.—The following is an extract from the letter of the Secretary of the United States Sanitary Commission, Washington, October 7th to the Superintendent of the Philadelphia depot:—

"Linen bandages and old linen have reached us in such enormous quantities that we have been obliged to hire a store-room for no other purpose than to store away the surplus five hundred barrels. Please, therefore, discourage their further manufacture in your district, and endeavor to turn the energies of the people toward the making of under clothes and the knitting of socks instead."

OBITUARY NOTICE.

FACTORYVILLE, Pa., Oct 6th, 1862.

The funeral of 2nd, Serg't, J. H. Teneyek, who fell at the battle of Antietam, Sept. 17th, took place Oct. 20th. A large concourse of people were in attendance, and among them, formed in procession, with appropriate badges of mourning were the fraternities of Free Masons and Odd Fellows, of both of which Orders the Deceased was a member. Rev. J. Lauer, preached an eloquent and impressive discourse, from 1st Timothy, 4th, 7th, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept my faith." After which by appointment of the secret Societies present, Dr. A. T. Branlage, delivered an address to them and the mourners present.—The two societies in conjunction then passed resolutions of condolence with the immediate relations and friends of the deceased, and appointed the undersigned to prepare a notice of the proceedings on the occasion, to be forwarded to the Co. papers. Brother Teneyek was well known in this society, and his loss will be severely felt in our village. But it is a source of consolation to all that he died at his post, fearlessly fighting for the rights of Humanity. While in that terrible cross fire, under which so many of Capt. Ingham's Co. fell, he received a ball in the foot, and turning to Ingham he said: "Capt. I am wounded, and must leave the field. At the same time commencing to hobble off, he had not proceeded far, before a ball struck him in the knee, and soon after another pierced his breast, when he fell and expired. But though he died on that field of strife, with no wife or sister near to whisper words of comfort into his dying ear, yet, he doubtless had a friend with him, who was nearer still, for he was a Christian, and He who has said, "I will never leave nor forsake thee," never deceives. After the battle his body, together with that of First Serg't. Warner, who fell on the same bloody field, were interred in a common grave, and there let them repose, until the sound of the last trump, louder than the world's artillery, shall awake the sheeted tenants of the narrow house. Then we shall meet them again in a world where the din of battle, and the groans of the dying will not be heard. Till then, ye martyrs in the holy cause of Liberty, farewell!" A. T. BRANLAGE.

Married.

BEUDE-COOPER—On Saturday, Sept. 13th, by Wm. Emery Esq., Mr. J. C. BEUDE, to Miss CALIE A. COOPER, all of St. Croix Falls, Wis.

PICKETT—EDINGER—On the first inst., by Rev. D. D. Gray, Mr. CARLES D. PICKETT, of Laceyville, and Miss MARY JANE EDINGER, of Tuscarora.

Died.

SQUIER—On the 7th inst., at her father's residence in Nicholson, DELIA, wife of Arsh Squier, and daughter of Elijah and Nancy Ball.

Little did Della and her parents think when she met them, it was for the last time, but so it proved. Notwithstanding the aid of a skillful physician, and the attention of kind parents, who watched over her, and spent the midnight oil in ministering to her wants, all proved of no avail; for in less than one month after meeting with her parents, her spirit took flight, and has gone to the God who gave it. Deep is the grief of her husband, who has been called the second time to part with a kind companion; but while her husband and friends mourn, they mourn not as one that is lost, for she has left a bright evidence, that she has gone to reap her reward in heaven. She has gone—the faithful wife—the affectionate mother—the reliable Christian—gone to her heavenly rest. May grace sustain and sanctify the bereaved family, until all are gathered into the fold of Christ, and admitted into heaven at last. Kedron, Oct. 8, 1862. SPACELING.

SINGER & CO.'S LETTER "A" FAMILY SEWING MACHINE

With all the Recent Improvements, Is the Best and Cheapest and Most Beautiful of all Sewing Machines. This Machine will sew anything, from the running of a tack in Tulle to the making of an overcoat—anything from Pilot or Beaver Cloth, down to the softest Gauze or Gossamer Tissue, and is ever ready to do its work to perfection. It can felt, hem, blind, gather, tuck, quilt, and has capacity for a great variety of ornamental work. This is not the only Machine that can hem, felt, blind, and so forth, but it will do so better than any other Machine. The Letter "A" Family Sewing Machine may be had in a great variety of cabinet cases. The Folding Case, which is now becoming so popular, is as its name implies, one that can be folded into a box or case which, when opened, makes a beautiful, substantial, and spacious table for the work to rest upon. The cases are of every imaginable design—plain as the wood green in its native forest, or as elaborately finished as art can make them.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk twist, thread, needles, oil, etc., of the very best quality. Send for a copy of "Singer & Co.'s Gazette." I. M. SINGER & CO., 478 Broadway, N. Y.
