

LOCALS.

The Very Latest arrival of fancy Dress Goods, for men and women, yankee notions, Ladies Shoes and Gaiters, Women Fur, &c., can now be found at the store of John Weil, one door below Walls Hotel.

The Lady's Book.—Godey for November, has been received by us, and is replete with good things. Now is the time to begin getting up clubs for the year.

The Draft.—Yesterday being the day for those drafted in this County to report themselves, large numbers of that unfortunate class were in town.

A Rare Chance is now offered to persons who wish to educate themselves or their children, at the High School now started at this place, by Professor W. La Monte, whose qualifications as a Teacher, are well known to many of the attendants of the Wyoming Seminary, where he has for some years, filled the post of Professor of Mathematics with honor to himself, and credit to that Institution.

Cash Store.—In the excitement and hurry of last week, we forgot to notice what appears in another column, the advertisement of Beemer's Cash Store in Falls. Mr. Beemer has just received at that place, a full and complete assortment of goods of every description, which he will sell at prices far below the market prices, for cash or ready pay—the best kind of pay in the world, both for buyer and seller.

The Fashions have changed greatly since last fall, it is all that we recollect out of a world of talk, while on a visit with our "better half," to the millinery establishments of Mrs. Caldwell, and Miss Hepburn, who have just received what is said to be "the very latest styles" of Fall and Winter goods from the city.

List of Persons Drafted in this Co., on the 16th Inst.—Bainbridge—Wm. A. Lee, Henry Platt, C. F. Lake, Frederick Arnold, Wm. B. Lacey, Philip Thomas, Martin Keeney, Julius Skiff.
