

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

New Advertisements.—See new advertisements in our issue to-day.

The World.—The attention of all conservative, non-loving, law-abiding readers, is called to the fact in these columns that, since the death of Mr. Bogart, the store at the old stand, on the corner, has passed into other hands and is now under the exclusive charge of Mr. Theodore Ross. A large stock of entirely new Winter Goods, selected by Theodore, in propria persona, and with special care for the wants of the people, has been lately added. This store is now the most complete in its assortment, of any in our town; and Theodore, is the most obliging and pleasant of fellows, to deal with. Go and see for yourselves.

Serious Accident.—On the evening of the 24th inst., Mrs. Andrew SICKLER, while leaving the house of Lieut. G. H. Eastman, where she had been preparing his infant son which had died but a few hours before, for burial—fell from the platform at the door a distance of about three feet, breaking both bones of the leg just above the ankle. Doctors Smith and Bogart were promptly called and set the broken bones. Mrs. S. is now doing well, with a prospect, however, of confinement to the house during the present winter at least. Her presence will be missed in many a household of affliction. Her attentions to the sick, the dying and the dead were unceasing.

Revenue Commissioner.—We notice that MICHAEL MEYER, Esq., of Sullivan County, has received the appointment of Revenue Commissioner for this Judicial District. The business of the Board of Revenue Commissioners, which meets tri-annually, is to determine the amount of Revenues to be raised; the rate per cent; the quota of each county, &c. No man, better acquainted with the resources and interests of the different Counties in the district, than Mr.
Meyer could have been selected. He is a really able, and one of the most thorough, energetic and correct of business men. With his rare talents he cannot fail to take a leading part in the deliberations of the convention. The appointment is one of the best, if not one of the very best that could have been made.

Married.

GERMAN OSTERHOUT.—On the 30th inst. at the residence of the Bride's Mother in La Grange Wyoming County Pa., by the Rev. Wm. Fear, Mr. JOHN FOURNAY of Barton Tioga Co., N. Y. to Miss ANN OSTERHOUT of the former place.

It was our good fortune to be among the invited guests at the La Grange House, on this interesting and festive occasion. We hardly know what an elusive should do or say, when such a streak of sunshine falls across his path. A memento in the shape of a "big thing cake" has been accounted among the craftsmen, to bear the plighted vows, to partake of the rich repast, (not forgetting a generous supply of the much-coveted "cake," as a peace offering to the evil-Printer's inn, we mean,) is a streak of good luck that seldom falls to the lot of the printer.

We will only add our prayer, in the language of the poet, that:

From this day forth, in peace and joyous bliss, May they live together long, without debate; Nor private jars, nor spite of enemies, Shall shake the safe assurance of their state.

THE WORLD.

AN INDEPENDENT
DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEK-LY NEWSPAPER.

In soliciting for another year a continuance and increase of the favor which in so short a period has been bestowed upon the World, its present rank among American journals—a circulation, business patronage, and influence equalled by other journals only after the effort of many years—we renew to our old and new readers the promise that no labor or expense will be spared to make the World what it aims to be.

THE BEST NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA.

In politics, now as ever, the World is independent but never neutral. Its only creed is a national one—of which

THE UNION, THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE LAWS. AND FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OF THE PRESS, OF POLITICAL DISCUSSION AND ACTION

are the corner stones.

The political events of the past year have notably demonstrated the need of an able, fearless, and unbiased conservative journal, in the commercial metropolis of the country, which shall give constant, bold, and vigorous utterance to the conservative sentiments of the best men and the honest masses of the nation. Opposing every enemy to the UNION,

whether armed in rebellion in the South or insidi-ously planting the seeds of disunion at the North; Opposing every violation of the CONSTITUTION, the only bond and hope of union, the only ground-upon which we can exhort and compel the allegiance of the South; Opposing every infraction of THE LAWS, in high places or in low, believing that obedience to Law is service to God;
Opposing every violation of the FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OF THE PRESS, OF POLI-TICAL DISCUSSION AND ACTION, by whomsoever those violations are committed, whether by the executive in its Arbitrary, illegal and unjust arrests, its refusal of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, its denial of the rights and privileges of citizens, its arrests without warrant, its imprisonments without trial, its abrogation of state and federal laws, its illegal proclamation of an empty emancipation, or whether those violations are committed by the party in power, its orators and its presses, advocating measures which must under the Union for the sake of destroying slavery and demonstrating treason against all their political opponents.

Loyal to the government always, it will give to the administration a hearty and vigorous support whenever and wherever the administration itself is loyal to the bond, the principles, and the purity of the government.

The World will oppose all compromises which would barter away the principles or divide the Union for which alone the North is waging war; it will oppose peace itself till the success of the war assures the permanence of peace, and will urge the prosecution of the war with an energy which has not hitherto governed its expenditures, and a vigor for which the nation during a year has prayed in vain.

The same care will be exercised over the columns of THE WORLD to exclude everything which could offend a pure, Christian morality, and account will always be had to the sacred principles which should govern its columns as to guide its judgement of men and events

All the News will be found in the columns of the World from the various departments of human activity.

POLITICAL, AGRICULTURAL, AND COMMERCIAL, AS WELL AS IN LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

New Habitations, Inventions, Discoveries, and Works of Art will receive the same careful and thorough attention.

The latest and most important news from London, Paris, Turin, Rome, Syria, China, California, Japan, Egypt, and South America, our correspondents will promptly send to us.

visions of the army; will accompany them where-

PICTURE GALLERY

AMBROTYPES, PHOTOGRAPHS, ALBUMEN PRINTS, &c.

A NEW PICTURE GALLERY has just been established in Tunkhannock, which is supplied with entire new material for the taking of Pictures in the Photographic Art. The undersigned has re-fitted and furnished the Sky-Light Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block, and is now prepared to take Pictures in the latest and most improved style of the Art.

GOOD ASSORTMENT OF CASES.

He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Band Clasp, Octagon, Oval Gilt Frames, Gilt Trays, &c.,—very neat and desirable patterns—besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description.

The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Picture Gallery and secure one of those "faithful shadows"—

"Which light and art, with magic spell, By working together, can catch so well!"

If not, there are other considerations. How important that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives are it is too late. You have all experienced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid beneath the church yard mound, and felt that "No price could take from you A memento so cherished; For how sacred the shadow, Since the substance has perished!"

But you perchance have friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make it the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late.
Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block—third story—a few doors east of Wall's Hotel, and secure one of those "faithful shadows".
