The Finances of the county, notwithstanding increased expenditures of the past year, in aid of families of volunteers and for other purposes represented as in a very flourishing condition, ...

An Invitation.—Those of our readers who intend to pay their subscription in produce of any kind, respectfully invited to bring it along. This has been the usual season. Providence has abundantly blessed the raisers of estates; and, presuming that all our patrons believe in a hereafter, we think it would make a slight preparation in that direction as showing their gratitude to Providence by remembering (substantially) his needy children—the widows. Whether our logic is sound or not, we want the produce at any rate.

News Depot.—The subscriber having established a News Depot at Dr. Rhoads' Drug store calls the attention of the readers to his Daily, Weekly and other Newspapers and Magazines. If you want one hour later news take the Inquirer Press. You will also find a fine assortment of stationery Christmas presents which have just arrived. Call and see for yourselves. Inquirer Daily 15 cts per week, Press, " 20 " " W. E. WALTON.

Musical.—We are gratified to be able to announce the fact that Prof. T. E. Perkins, Principal of the Normal Musical Institute at Genesee N. Y. is expected here to conduct a Musical Convention, the first week in February. Prof. Perkins is admitted to be one of the best conductors of such Conventions in the county, and every person in the County interested in the cultivation and advancement of musical intelligence, will be pleased to learn that his services have been secured for the purpose mentioned. None who attended the first Convention held in the County, have forgotten the pleasure and profit derived from the ability with which Prof. Perkins conducted it. We hope every township in the county will be represented.

Hospital Directory.—The Sanitary Commission have established an office of information in regard to patients in the Hospitals of the District of Columbia, and of Fredrick City, Maryland. By a reference to books, which are corrected daily an answer can be had under ordinary circumstances by return call to the following questions: 1st. Is [giving name and regiment] at present in the hospitals of the District of Fredrick City? 2d. If so, what is his proper address? 3d. What is the name of the Surgeon or Chaplain of the hospital? 4th. If not in hospital at present, has he recently been in hospital? 5th. If so, did he die in hospital, and at what date? 6th. If recently discharged from hospital, was he discharged from service? 7th. If not, what were his orders on leaving? The Commission is prepared also to furnish more specific information as to the condition of any patient in the District hospitals, within twenty-four hours after a request to do so, from an officer of any of its corresponding societies. The office of the Directory will be open daily from 8 o'clock a. m. to 8 o'clock p. m., and accessible in urgent cases at any hour of the night. The number of patients in these hospitals is about 25,000. If found to be practicable, the duty here undertaken locally by the Commission will be extended to include all the general hospitals in the county. FRED. THE NEW YORK MERCURY

FOR THE NEW YEAR.

It is with no fear of War's effect upon their literary fortunes, that the publishers of THE NEW YORK MERCURY acknowledge the unwavering loyalty of their two hundred thousand subscribers, and announce to them, and to all that THE NEW YORK MERCURY for this year (1863) will be richer in every variety of Polite Literature than ever before. It is no upstart speculation, no temporary "speculation," but a first class literary weekly, which has been familiar to the United States for a quarter of a century; and while the wish-washy mushroom prints of yesterday are cutting down their tents even while they raise their subscription-price, THE NEW YORK MERCURY maintains all its great Staff of Romanesque Poets, Humourists, Essayists, Story-Tellers, and Editors, and promises to make it still greater for 1863. It is the only paper for every week. Its forty columns of reading matter per week constitute an unparalleled CONSERVATORY OF THE ENTERTAINING, and its Novels, Miscellaneous Tales, Romances, Verses, Gossip, Epigrams, and other literary productions, are all of a high order of merit, and are all of a high order of merit, and are all of a high order of merit.

VICTORIA.

—OR—

THE HEIRESS OF CASTLE CLIFFE.

BY COUSIN MAY CARLETON.

AUTHOR OF "GIBBY GOWAN," "SWEET CAMPBELL," "BERNICE," "LA MARQUESE," &c. &c.

The production of this distinguished authoress need no eulogy. Public opinion has long since pronounced them superior to any other novel published in this country, and the high reputation of their merit is borne in on the fact that they were so generally recognized as to be published in the Mercury by the English press. We would add that the new tale, "Victoria," is fully equal in interest and depth of plot to either of those which have secured so large a share of public approval, and we earnestly recommend it to all story-readers. The New York Mercury is sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers it is regularly mailed every Saturday morning for $2 a year; three copies for $5, six copies for $9; six copies for $12, with an extra copy free, to the getter up of the club. Six months' subscription received. Always write plainly the name of your Post Office, County and State. We take a note of all solvent banks and pay. Payment must invariably be made in advance. Specimen Copies sent free to all applicants. Address all letters and communications to CATHERINE & WHITNEY, Proprietors of the New York Mercury, 113 Fulton street, New York City.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1863.

Great Literary and Pictorial Year!

The publisher of Godey's Lady's Book, thankful that public which has enabled him to publish a magazine for the last thirty-three years of a larger circulation than any in America, has made an arrangement with the most popular authoress in this country—Marion Harland. An horse of "Alone," "Hidden Path," "Miss Sides," "Neness," and "Miraun," which will furnish a story for every number of the Lady's Book for 1863. This alone will place the Lady's Book in a literary point of view far ahead of any other publication. Marion Harland writes for no other publication. Our other favorite writers will all continue to furnish articles throughout the year. The best Lady's magazine in the World, and the cheapest—The literature of that kind that can be read aloud in the family circle, and the clergy in immense numbers are subscribers for the Book. The Music is all original, and would cost 25 cents (the price of the Book) in the music stores (but most of it is copyrighted, and cannot be obtained except in "Godey.") Our Steel Engravings. All efforts to rival us in this have ceased, and we now stand alone in this department, giving us, as we do, many more and infinitely better engravings than are published in any other work. Godey's immense double sheet fashion plates containing from five to seven full length Colored Fashion on each plate—Other magazines give only two. For ahead of any Fashion in Europe or America—Godey's is the only work in the world that gives these immense plates, and they are such as to have excited the wonder of publishers and the public. The publication of these plates cost $10,000. More than fashion plates of the old style, and nothing but our wonderfully large circulation enables us to give them. Other magazine cannot afford it. We never spare money when the public can be benefited. These fashions may be relied on. Dresses may be made after them, and the wearer will not subject herself to ridicule as well be the case if she visited the large cities dressed after the style of the plates in some of our so called fashion magazines. Our wood Engravings, of which we give twice or three times as many as any other magazine, are often mistaken for steel.—They are so far superior to any others. Imitation. Beware of them. Remember publication and the cheapest. If you take Godey, you want no other magazine. Everything that is useful or ornamental in a house can be found in Godey. Drawing lessons. No other magazine gives them and we have given enough to fill several large volumes. Our receipts are such as can be found nowhere else. Cooking and all its variety—Confectionary—the Nursery—the Toilet—the Laundry—the Kitchen—Receipts upon all subjects are to be found in the pages of the Lady's Book. We originally started this department, and have peculiar facilities for making it most perfect. This department alone is worth the price of the Book. Ladies work table. This department comprising, engravings and description of every article that a lady wears. M.-L.I. Cottages. No other magazine has this department. TERMS CASH IN ADVANCE.—One copy one year, $3. Two copies one year, $5. Three copies one year, $6. Four copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $11. Eight copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club $20. And the only magazine that can be introduced into the above clubs in place of the Lady's Book is Arthur's Home Magazine. Special Clubbing with other Magazines.—Godey's Lady's Book and Arthur's Home Magazine, both one year for $3.50. Godey's Lady's Book and Harper's Magazine both one year for $4.50. Godey Harper and Arthur, will all three be sent one year on receipt of $6.00. Treasury Notes and Notes of all solvent banks taken at par. Be careful and pay the postage on your letter. PICTURE GALLERY

A NEW PICTURE GALLERY has been erected at Tunkhannock, which is situated with entire new material for the taking of Pictures in the Photographic Art. The undersigned has refitted and furnished the See-Light Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block, and is now prepared to take Pictures in the latest and most improved style of the Art. GOOD ASSORTMENT OF CASES. He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Grand Clasp, Octagon, Oval, Gilt Frames, Gilt Trays, &c.—very neat and durable patterns—besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description. The foregoing, he thinks, are in all respects sufficient for every one to come to his Picture Gallery and secure one of these "faithful shadows"—"Which light and art with magic spell, By working together, can catch so well!" If not, there are other considerations. How important that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ere it is too late. You have all experienced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likenes of some loved one who has been laid beneath the church yard mound, and felt that "No price could I take from you A memento so cherished; For, how sacred the shadow is, Since the substance has perished!" But you perchance have friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make it the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late. Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block—third story—a few hours and of Wall's Hotel and secure one of these "faithful shadows." ALVIN DAY. Tunkhannock Dec. 10, 1862.—v 2115
