We the undersinged auditors of Wyoming County, being met at the Countsioner's office in said county, do certify, that upon examination of the accounts of the Transurer of said county, we Is it if them correct as certify, that upon examination of the accounts of the Trousurer of sail county, we both I then correct as set forth in the foregoing statement another the account for a few in county are in a much better condition, as well extended to the armsistoners, than they were at last settlement. The expenditures of sail County have accessfully open larger than last year, on account of the amount paid to the families of Volunteers, now in the service of the United States. The account of the Treasurer shows that he has attended in the interests of the County. The indebtedness of said County, including Loan for the Relief of Volunteers, will not exceed Twenty-Three Hundred Dollars. Witness our Haads this 10th day of January, A. D. 1863.
