We the undersinged auditors of Wyoming County, being met at the Commissioner's office in said county, do certify, that upon examination of the accounts of the Treasurer of said county, we do find them correct as set forth in the foregoing statement and that the expenditures of said county are overet as set forth in this statement. The finances of said County are in a much better condition, as well as the accounts of commissioners, than they were at last settlement. The expensitures of said County have necessarily been larger than last year, on account of the amount paid to the families of Volunteers, now in the service of the United States.

The account of the Treasurer shows that he has attended faithfully to the interests of the County. The indebtedness of said County, including Loan for the Relief of Volunteers, will not exceed Twenty-Three Hundred Dollars. Witness our Hands this 10th day of January, A. D. 1363.

This alone will place the Lady's Book in a litertry point of view far ahead of any other magazine. Marion Harland writes for no other publication. Our other favorite writers will all continue to furnish articles throughout the year. The best Lady's magazine in the World, and the cheapest-The Literature is of that kind that can be read aloud in the family circle, and the clergy in immense numbers are subscribers for the Book. The Music is all original, and would cost 25 cents (the price of the Book) in the music stores ; but most of it is copyrighted, and cannot be obtained except Godey's immnese double sheet fashion piates con taining from five to seven full length Colored Fash ions on each plate-Other magazines give only two these immense plates, and they are such as to have excited the wonder of publishers and the public. The publication of these plates cost $10,000 More than fashion plates of the old style, and nothing but our wonderfully large circulation enables us to give them, Other magazine cannot afford it. We never spare money when the public can be benefited.

These fashions may be relied on. Dresses may be made after them, and the wearer will not subject herself te ridicule as would be the case if she visited 9 00 the large cities dressed after the style of the plates in some of our so called fashion magazines

ASSORTMENT OF CASES

He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Band Clasp, Octagon, Oval Gilt Frames, Gilt Trays, &c.,—very neat and desirable patterns—besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description.
The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Picture Gallery and secure one of those "faithful shadows"—

"Which light and art, with magic spell, By working together, can catch so well !" If not, there are other considerations. How important that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ore it is too late. You have all experienced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid beneath the church yard mound, and felt that

" No price could take from you A memento so cherished; For, how sacred the shadow, Since the substance has perished."

But you perchance have friends still with you ctures you have not yet secured. If so make whose pictures you may be too late.

Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's
Brisk Block—third story—a few doors east of Wall, Hotel, and secure one of those "faithful shadows"
