HARRIS-STEVENS-In this village, the 5th inst. by Rev. C. R. Lane, Mr. REVILO HARRIS of Auburn. Susq Co., to Miss ANNA M. only daughter of the late Nicholas Stevens.

We knew that getting married had not entirely gone out of fashion. but we had begun to think that the time nonored custom f remembering the printer on these occasions was entirely obsolete. Our fears have been most happily dispelled in this case ; and we are glad to announce a revival of the custom .-We greatfully acknowledge the receipt, with this notice, of a bountiful supply of wedding cake, and also, what was equally gratifying-a dollar!

To say that we are happy. does not express our feelings. We are more than happy, we are tickled Our kindest wishes and warmest congratulations are due Mr. Harris for this token of remembrance. are due Mr. Harris for this token of remembrance .-We fondly hope, for the Bride, that the partner of triumphs of faith, Mrs. ELIZABETH PLACE, a second consort of George Place. aged 38 years

A kind companion, mother, and neighbor. In her life, and last hours, she gave testimony for Holiness and that death was robbed of its terror. She bade her weeping family not to mourn for ber, but to save their tears for themselves, and left a message for all her friends to prepare to meet their God, for delays Bo were dangerous, and said "to-day is the day of salvation," then bade adieu, saying, " Farewell; family, friends, earth"-three times raising her voice, three times requested her daughter to sing

"Let me go, 'tis Jesus ealls me, Let me gain the realms of day; Bear me over Angels' pinions, Longs my soul to be away "

LINES COMPOSED ON THE HAPPY DEATH OF MRS. E. PLACE, BY A CLASSMATE.

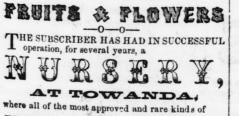

She hath gone to the realms where dwelleth the blest To the regions of love, where her kindred doth rest, To the regions above, she's transported away, To bask in the light of eternity's day.

'Tis true, she has left us, we will not com plain, For we know our loss is her infinite gain : The blest of that mansion forever to share, A convoy of Angels awaited her there.

Her spirit's rejoicing 'mid the glorified throng, She is swelling in triumph the rapturous throng Of praises to Jesus-whose name was her trust, And will raise her body immortal from dust.

The King in His beauty, she now doth behold, Who proffers a crown more shining than gold, The Lamb is the light of that city above, Its Sovereign and Ruler, Ounnipotent Love. R. L. B.

He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Band Clasp, Octagon, Oval Gilt Frames, Gilt Trays, Jc., -very neat and desirable patterns-besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description. The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Pieture Gallery and secure one of those "faithful shadows"-"Which light and art, with magic spell,

By working together, can catch so well !" If not, there are other considerations. How impor tant that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ore it is too late. You have all experi-enced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid be-neath the church yard mound, and felt that " No price could take from you A memento so cherished ; For, how sacred the shadow. Since the substance has perished."

But you perchance have friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make it the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late.
