New Hampshire Election .-- The election for Governor, and members of Congress in New Hampshire came off on Tuesday of last week .-There being three candidates in the field for Governor, no choice was made, as the constitution requires a majority vote to elect. The Democratic andidate received the largest vote, and only lacks a few hundreds of a majority above all others.

Two Republican congressmen to one Democrat were elected. The Legislature is republican and will secure the choice of a woolly-head for Governor. There have been large Democratic gains since the last

The Connecticut election on the first Monday of April, will also show that the ball is rolling even in abolitionized New England.

cy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, nec-essarily favor the restoration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and jects of newspaper comment, including of course, and pre-emine ntly at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country. It will fearlessly criticise the public actsof public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states, a proper sense of the actual condition of the Repub-lic—to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnithe which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magni-tude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress—and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply THE REMEDY for our national ills.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party—the party of the Constitution and the Union—to power, in the legislative and executive governmental branches of the States and of the Union, we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restora tion will be our highest aim.

The News, Literary, Commercial, and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so onducted as to make "THE AGE" worthy of the terprise of the magnitude of that in which the under signed are engaged, require them to appeal to the public for a generous support, and to ask for "The Age" a liberal patronage and extended circulation. The present state of the preparatory arrangements warrants the expectation, that the first number of the Daily will appear before the close of the coming month, (February, 1863.) AMBROTYPES, PHOTOGRAPHS, ALBUMEN RRINTS, &C

A NEW PICTURE GALLERY has just been cesved in Tunkhannock, which is supriled with entire new material for the taking of Pictures in the Photographic Art. The undersigned has re-fitted and furnished the Sky-Light Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block, and is now prepared to take Pictures in the latest and most improved style of the NEW PICTURE GALLERY has just been cesy.

GOOD ASSORTMENT OF CASES.

He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Band Clasp, Octagon, Oral Gut Frames, Gitt Trays, &c.,—very neat and desirable patterns—besides a variety of plain and destrate patterns—besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description.

The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Picture Gallery and secure one of those "faithful shadows"—

"Which light and art, with magic spell, By working together, can catch so well!" By working together, can catch so well.

If not, there are other considerations. How important that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ere it is too late. You have all experienced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid be neath the church yard mound, and felt that "No price could take from you A memento so cherished; For, how sacred the shadow. Since the substance has perished."

But you perchance have friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make it the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late. Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block—third story—a few doors east of Wall's Hotel, and secure one of those "faithful shadows" ALVIN DAY.
