BREAKING STEERS.

The following sensible remarks on the management of young cattle for the yoke were read before the Farmer's Club of Concord, Mass., by Chas. A. Hubbard.

I have found that by far the best time to train steers is when they are calves... The following sensible remarks on the management of young cattle for the yoke were read before the Farmer's Club of Concord, Mass., by Chas. A. Hubbard.

CURE FOR FOUNDER.

As soon as you discover that the horse is foundered take him to the nearest branch or stream of water and tie him in it, standing nearly up to his belly—his head so high that he cannot drink.

If the weather is cold when the horse is foundered, that is in winter, the horse must not be allowed to stand in the water more than twenty minutes at a time, when he should be taken out and his legs rubbed diligently till they become dry and warm.

REMEDY FOR SMALL POX.—A great discovery is reported to have been recently made by a surgeon of the English Army in China, in the way of an effectual cure for this terrible and loathsome disease.

BONE DUST FOR BEANS.—Probably there is no manure that can be applied to the bean crop more decidedly beneficial in its effects, than bone dust.

YOUTH vs. $300.—Quoth Jack unto his uncle John—"The draft is passed—what's to be done? I'd give a hundred, as I'm alive, Where I like you—past thirty-five."

REMEDY FOR RINGWORMS.—The North British Agriculturist says that the disease locally known as ringworm or tetter, which shows itself about the head and neck of young cattle, in the form of whitish dry scurfy can be removed by rubbing the parts affected with iodine ointment.

Wise and Otherwise.

SEVEN FOOLS.

- 1. The envious man—who sends away his mutton because the man next to him is eating veison.
2. The jealous man—who spreads his bed with stinging nettles, and the sleeps in it.
3. The proud man—who gets wet through sooner than ride in the carriage of an inferior.

WHAT A BOYS POCKET CONTAINED.—An urchin of seven summers growth invited his mamma, the other day to repair a slight accident to a pantaloons pocket, and to do this it became necessary to upset the contents upon the floor, an inventory of which we proceed to note down as follows:

India rubber, a bottle cork, an old gas burner, one nine-pin, a dart of an exploded fire-cocker, an old match box, one old envelope, a bag of marbles, one hickory nut, a piece of silk cord, several pieces of twine and strings, the lid of an old pill box, pieces of chestnut hull, a piece of tin, a piece of gingerbread, some pieces of fancy colored paper, two old nails, a small picture book, a slate pencil, a broken jews-harp, the remains of a pocket handkerchief, a penny whistle, a piece of shoe string, two grams of corn, pocket knife-handle, half a peach stone, two spotted chicken feathers, a piece of brickbat, a spinning top, a dead mouse, an assortment of buttons, with crumbs of bread, candy and a mixture of sand, pebbles, and dirt generally.

ODD LETTER ADDRESSES.—The last number of Holbrook's U. S. mail contains the following batch of curious addresses on some letters recently carried by the mails:

Hokey pokey winkey wang, Take this letter to Billy Strang. Who lives at Bristol, R. I., He's a bully boy, and has a glass eye.

Hurry up as fast as you can, And carry this letter to my Marry Ann; She lives in Lancaster, State of Pa. And her tother name (I believe) is McKay.

To the care of Mick Mullen for Dennis Kilfale America New York or Bostane at the stone cutting or else-whether for his cousin Bernard Geraty.

Lucinda Jones, a fair young miss, Will find a note inside of this; On swiftest wings then let it fly, To a place called Gouverneur, N. Y.

Soldier's letter, and na'ry red. Hard tack in place of bread. Postmaster shove this through. I've na'ry a stamp, but 7 months due.

A SERENADE.—A gentleman who recently put up at a log tavern in Wisconsin, was awakened by a young man who commenced a serenade thus:

"Oh, Sally Rice, I've called you twice, And still you lie and enore; I pray you wake, And see your Jake, And open to him the door, or winder, I don't care a darn which, for— It makes but little difference To either, you or I— Big pig, little pig, Root hog or die!"

An old bachelor who edits a paper somewhere in the Western country, puts "Melancholy Accidents" as a heading for marriages in his paper

Do you retail things here?" asked a green looking specimen of humanity as he poked his head into a store on Main street, the other day. "Yes was the laconic reply. Well I wish you would re-tail my dog—he had it bit off about a week ago."

SIX LINES OF TRUTH. Abolition tracts—Contracts. Abolition sense—License. Abolition joy—Lovejoy. A hard lot for the Republicans—Ballot. The Abolitionists and Secessionists wish to suspend the Constitution, for fear it will suspend them.

POPKINS suggests that if the price of white paper goes up much lighter, and the reputation of shiplasters descends much lower, it will not be long before more can be made out of a bill by bleaching it white, and selling it for paper, than by attempting to pass it.

The Abolitionists and Secessionists wish to suspend the Constitution, for fear it will suspend them. The next flax crop will be the largest ever grown in this country, and we doubt not the profitable one. Flaxseed is every-where increasing in price on account of the great demand for sowing.

SOMEbody said the other day that a stick thrown at a dog in front of a Washington hotel hit five Brigadier Generals.

AYER'S PILLS.

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for Constipation, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Pains in the Head, Gout, Headache, Nervousness, Irritability, Female Complaints, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. &c.

This is alike true of Colds, Febrile symptoms, Bilious derangements. They all tend to become chronic, and produce the deep seated and formidable diseases, which load the bowels all over the land.

Among the many eminent gentlemen who have testified in favor of these Pills, we mention Prof. J. M. Locke, Analytical Chemist, of Cincinnati, whose high professional character is endorsed by JOHN McLEAN, Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are the most complete which the present state of science can afford. They are compounded of the most pure and medicinal vegetable matter, and are perfectly safe in their operation.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he cannot be consulted, I have prepared a remedy without knowing its composition, which I have named Ayer's Pills.
