Died.

BOWMAN.—In Meshoppen, Wyoming Co., Pa., Feb. 7th, of Diphtheria, ALDEN M. son of Erastus and Elizabeth Bowman, aged 12 years and 5 months. That dreadful disease that has taken away so many loved ones came among us and laid its relentless hand upon our much loved ALDEN, we feel that Death has been here and borne away A loved one from our side, Just in the morning of his day, Our ALDEN dropped and died. We watched beside his pillow, We stood around his bed; We tried to calm his sorrows, And soothe his aching head. Why weep, fond parents, for him, For he has gone to rest. To heaven, to live with Jesus, And dwell among the blest.

J. C. E.

BOWMAN.—In Meshoppen, January the 8th, of Diphtheria, JONSON C., aged 5 years, 9 months and 27 days, JANUARY 29th, MARY E., aged 2 years, 3 months and 15 days, FEBRUARY 2nd, CHARLES O., aged 7 years, 9 months and 9 days, only children of James P. and Amanda M. Bowman. The loss of these lovely children fall with great weight upon the fond parents, but The young and lovely pass away, Ne'er to be seen again, Earth's fairest flowers too soon decay, Its blighted treasures remain. Full oft we see the brightest things, That lift their heads on high; Smile in the light then droop their wings And fade and die. And kindly is the lesson given, Then dry the falling tear, They came to raise our hearts, They go to call us to heaven.

PROSPECTUS OF "The Age,"

A NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER TO BE PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & Co. A. J. GLOSSBRENNER, FRANCIS J. GRUND, WILLIAM H. WELSH.

"The Age" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, necessarily favor the restoration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and that of this Commonwealth. It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including of course, and pre-eminently at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country. It will fearlessly criticize the public acts of public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states, against assaults from any quarter. It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the actual condition of the Republic, and to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnitude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress—and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply the REMEDY for our national ills.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party—the party of the Constitution and the Union—to power, in the legislative and executive governmental branches of the States and of the Union, we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our highest aim. The News, Literary, Commercial, and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "The Age" worthy of the support of the general reader.

PICTURE GALLERY

A NEW PICTURE GALLERY has just been opened in Tunkhannock, which is supplied with entire new material for the taking of Pictures in the Photographs Art. The undersigned has re-fitted and furnished the Sky-Light Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block, and is now prepared to take Pictures in the latest and most improved style of the Art. GOOD ASSORTMENT OF CASES. He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Band Clasp, Octagon, Oval Gilt Frames, Gilt Trays, &c.—very neat and desirable patterns—besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description. The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Picture Gallery and secure one of those "faithful shadows." "Which light and art, with magic spell, By working together, can catch so well!" If not, there are other considerations. How important that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ere it is too late. You have all experienced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid beneath the church yard mound, and felt that "No price could take from you A memento so cherished; For, how sacred the shadow." Since the substance has perished. But you purchase have your friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make it the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late. Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block—third story—a few doors east of Wall's Hotel, and secure one of those "faithful shadows" ALVIN DAY. Tunkhannock Dec. 10, 1862.—v2r18

No Trouble to Show Goods. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed on him, he will, by strictly honest dealing, and hereafter, a close attention to business, try to merit a continuance of the same.
