Slip-Renting .-- The slips in the Presbyterian Church will be let for the coming, Monday, April 13th, at 3 o'clock P. M.

Removed .- Miss Louisa Hepburn has removed her Millinery establishment one door further up street from the old stand. Her shop is still nearly piposite the Post Office, where her old friends and stomers will find her as ready and willing as ever o minister to their wants.

New Grocery and Provision Store .-- The grocery, Provision Store and Saleon on the cor-32f, which has been for some three years past under charge of E. H. Mitchel, has now been started under the auspices of Mr. A. G. Stark, whose thorough acquaintance with the business will enable him to make a first class establishment in that fine. Give him

The Nicholson Mills have been rented for a erm of years by our friend S. D. Bacon, lately of the Eaton Mills. While at this latter place he secured an enviable reputation as a Miller, and took the first premiums for superior work, at the Luzerne and Wyoming County Fairs. Our friends at Nicholson will find him well worthy of their patronage.

We have faith .- That Spring will com , though 70 do not now recollect the time, when the fair damsel has been quite so shy and coy in making her visit as at the present. We have had snow and mud, with a change only to mud and snow, until it has become pretty much a nuisance in the opinion of all right minded people-as the politicians say . "We're in tor a change."

In Town. Dr. J. C, Becker has removed to our town, with the intention, we learn, of making it his permanent residence. His reputation and practice as a Surgeon and Physician is now co-extensive with the County, and his residence at this place, will give him far greater facilities for usefulness in his profes-

It is his intention, also, to establish a Drug Store as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made The Dr. will he found when not professionally absent, at his residence opposite that of R. R. Little's.

Died.

TAYLOR .- In Lynn, Susquehanna Co., Pa., on Sunday, the 5th inst., S H. TAYLOR, aged 54 years.

Mr Taylor was a printer by profession, and for some time, edited and printed the Wyoming County Whig,, at this place. He subsequently removed to Mauch Chunk in Carbon County, and for several years edited the Gazette of that place. Six or eight years ago he removed to a farm near the line between this and Susq. Co., where he resided up to the time of his death. He was a man of good business qualifications-a ripe scholar and social companion. [From the Dubuque, Iowa, Herald ]

NORTHUP .- In this city, March 10th, 1863, JAMES S. NORTHUP, aged 36 years, son of H. W. and Elizabeth S. Northup, late of Wilkesbarre, Penn.

James S. Northup, the well known Conductor on the Dubuque and Sioux City Railroad, is no more ! He died yesterday morning after an illness of over a year, dating its commencement from the time when his train was so long blockaded by snow.

He came from Wilkesbarre, Penn., where his parents (H. W. and Elizabeth Northup) resided until recently.

He was well known among the Railroad men in the West, and was universally popular, never offending any one, doing his duty at all times, and ever a true, faithful, and generous friend. His good deeds stand as a monument to his memory more beautiful than marble columns lettered with gold.

He ran the pioneer train west of the Mississippi at this place, and never lost one day by sickness until the last six months. No more deserving tribute to his memory can be paid than that he was a good man, a true man, an honest man, and a friend to the poor.

The funeral will take place Thursday morning, at 101 o'clock, from the residence of the family, at the corner of Bluff and 4th streets. All his friends are invited to attend.

TO BE PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA. BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & Co. A. J. GLOSSBRENNER. FRANCIS J. GRUND.

WILLIAM H. WELSh "THE AGE" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, necessarily favor the restoration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States, are that of this Commonwealth.

It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including of course, and pre-emine ntly at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country.

It will fearlessly criticise the public acts of public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states, against assualts from any quarter.

It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the a tual condition of the Repub-lic—to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magni-tude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress-and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply THE REMEDY for our national ills.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party—the party of the Constitution and the Union—to power, in the legislative and executive governmenpower, in the regislative and executive gavernmental branches of the States and of the Union, we believe to be necessaryto avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our highest aim.

The News, Literary, Commercial, and other de-partments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "The Age" worthy of the support of the general reader.
The many difficulties now surrounding an en-erprise of the magnitude of that in which the under igned are engaged, require them to appeal to the for a generous support, and to ask for Age" a lineral patronage and extended circulation.

GOOD ASSORTMENT OF CASES.

He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Band Clasp, Octagon, Ocal Gilt Frames, Gilt Trays, &c.,—very neat and desirable patterns—besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description. The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Picture Gallery and secure one of those "faithful shadows"—

"Which light and art, with magic spell, By working together, can carch so well!" If not, there are other considerations. How impor-tant that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ere it is too late. You have all experi-enced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid beneath the church yard mound, and felt that "No price could take from you

A memento so cherished;
For, how sacred the shadow,
Since the substance has perished."

But you perchance have friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make it the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late. Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block—third story—a few doors east of Wall's Hotel, and secure one of those "faithful shadows" TunkhannockDec. 10, 1862,-v 2n18
