[From the New York World.] THE ARRESTS AT READING Pa.

The Examination of the Prisoners before the U. S. Commissioner at Philadelphia.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT READING. The Philadelphia papers of yesterday contain reports of the examination before United States Commissioner Heazlitt, of the persons arrested at Reading, Pa., from which we compile the following. It ing, ra., the forgotten that the accounts, being takan from Republican papers, are not free from paren from the information upon which the arrest was made was the subjoined deposition of Detective personally appeared before the subscriber, a commissioner appointed by the Circuit Court United States for the Eastern District, Pennsylvania, Wiliam Y. Lyon, of the city of Reading, who, being duwaswern, according to law, deposes and says, that a ertain Phillip Huber, residing near the Black Horse Tavern, in Lancaster county, near the line of Berks auuty, Augustus F. Illig, Gabriel Filbert, George and Harrison Oxensider, have for some time past heen, to wit., since the first of February, 1863, and are now organizing and establishing in various parts of Berks county, sertain seditious and treasonable combinations, lodges and societies, the object of which is to create disaffection against the government of the United States, to prevent and resist the execution of the laws of the United States, and particularly the act of Congress providing for a conscription or draft of soldiers. Said lodges meet at night; the members pay an initiation fee, and take an oath, the tenor of which, as deponent is informed, and believes he is able to prove, is to resist the laws of the United States as above set forth. Members of said lodgershave openly and repeatedly stated their object to be as herein set forth, and also that their societies extend throughout the South, and exist in the army of the United States; that their members can travel with safety through the South ; that they are a mirlion strong, and that they will shortly proclaim themselves openly. Deponent is informed of the names and places of meeting of many of these lodges, consisting of from thirty to fifty, eighty and over one hundred members each, and scattered throughout and rapidly increasing in the various townships throughout Berks county. Deponent has been furnished with authentic lists of the names of many members of these lodges. A meeting was held o Saturday evening, March 21, 1862, at the house of Jacob Zeller, near Strouchsburg, Marion township, Berks county, which was addressed by said Huber, and eighty-three members reported as initiated. A. T. Illig and Gabriel Filbert took a prominent part .-Said Illig took the initiation fee. This dependent expressly charges that said lodges are treasonable and dangerous combinations, and that said Philip Huber is organizing the same, and that said Dr Augustus F. Lilig, Gabriel Filbert, and Harrison Oxensider are members of the same. And this deponent further says, that the said Phillip Huber, Augustus F. Illig, and Gabriel Filbert, Henry Sirdel, Joseph Muthart, George C. Reed, and Harrison Oxensider

W. Y. LYON. On Wednesday afternoon Deputy Marshals Shar. key and Schuyler and Government Detective Wm Y. Lyon arrived in this city from Reading, having in charge Phillip Huber, Dr. Augustus F Illig, Gabriel Filbert, and Harrisson Oxensider. The first named was arrested by Detective Lyon at the iron works of the Reading Railroad Company at Reading and the others at Starkstown, Marion township, Bucks county by Detectives Sharkey and Schuyler. These parties are charged with forming certain seditious and treasonable combination lodges or societies, the object of which is to create dissatisfaction against the government of the United States, to resist and prevent the execution of the laws of the United States and particularly the act of Congress providing for a conscripton or draft for soldiers. The said lodges meet at night. The members pay an initiation fee and take an oath, the tenor of which is to resist the laws of the country. These parties were first taken to Reading and confined in the jail there, when an attempt was made by a number of their comrades to release These men were brought before United States Com-

did, on or about the 1st day of February, 1863, in the Eastern district of Pennsylvania, and at times

missioner Heazlitt yesterday afternoon, at four o'clock for a hearing on the above charges, and after a number of witnesses had been examined a clear case was made out against Huber, who was proved to be a ringleader in the movement and was held by the commissioner in $4,000 bail for a further hearing. The others were held in their own recognizances in the sum of $3,000 to appear if required to do so, the evidence at present not bearing directly against them-Mr, Coffey appeared for the government, and J. Glancey Jones, Esq., and John P. O'Neill, Esq., for the defendants.

THE EXCITEMENT AT READING The following letter in the Inquirer gives an account of the scenes in Reading, immediately after the arrests became known:

READING, Berks Co., April 9. It has been currently reported for some weeks that secret societies to resist the draft were in existence in Berks, Montgomery, Lancaster, Lebenon, and other counties, and within three days past four arrests have been made of alledged leaders, all of whou were sent to Philadelphia on Wednesday, and had a hearing before the 1 nited States authorities. These arrests became known in Berks and Lebanon counarrests became known in Berks and Leganon counties on Wednesday evening, and created the greatest excitement. The associates of the gailty parties immediately called meetings of the ledges, and at these meetings, held on Wednesday night, it was decided that a delegation of the members of the secret societies should proceed early on Thursday mersing to Bending the phicae being to display the charge of to Reading the object being to display the force of the associations, and to take such measures migh be deemed necessary to resone the four who had been arrested, who were supposed to be still to prison

Accordingly, about 8 o'clock on Thursday morning about two hundred and eighty farmers, residing with-in ten miles of Reading, assembled on the tumpike and marched to the city. When they arrived within one mile they halted and waited for the committee, which they said had promised to go from Reading to meet them. No committee came, and they merched watch they said had promised to go inch they merched had reading in procession, four abreast, and halted in front of the court-house, on Sixth street, about ill state. in front of the court-house, on Sixth street, about 11 o'clock. The procession was headed by one man in every whose name is unknown. An immense crowd assembled, and the confusion increased. Many of the spectators showed a determination to have a conflict with the members of the secret order, and there were lond cries of "Stone them!" and "Hang them!" loud cries of " Stone them !" and " Hang them !"-

Finally the mayor was sent for. Finally the mayor was sent for.

It was currently reported that the intruders were to seize a number of citizens and retain them as hostages until their four friends were given up. Mayor Hoyer, who is a Democrat, and recently elected, ascended the court house steps and spoke in German to the crowd. He said that whatever grievance they might have, or whatever inquiries they wished to make this was not the more course to purely the make, this was not the proper course to pursue. He had no doubt but that their motives were good, but had no doubt but that their motives were good, but he wished and ordered them to disperse in ten minutes. Mr. J.S. Richards, a prominent Republican lawyer, then addressed them. He said that he understood the objects of their coming was to ascertain what had become of their friends. He thought they had a right to know this; they had been arrested by the government for organizing a secret association to oppose the law, and were now in Philadelphia in prison. Their lawyers had gone with them, and they would have a full hearing and a fair trial.

At this point there was some cheering and much

The New U. S. Stamp Dutles .- Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, have just issued a new card, containing the official list of the "New Stamp Duties," imposed by the Act of Congress, on March 3d, 1863. The card will e found very convenient for reference by all, and should be at the side of every storekeeper, merchant manufacturer, broker, banker, attorney, or any man of business, as it shows at a glance the amount of stamp duty or tax to be paid on everything in everyday business, as well as the Penalties of the Law and Fines for trying to evade each and every one of the Stamp Taxes imposed by Congress, on March 3d, 1863. It is entirely different from the old Stamp Duties, and this eard is copyrighted, and i the only orrest and official edition published to the country to meet the wants of the community. It will save a world of trouble to every store-keeper and business man to have a reference at their side Price Ten Cents a copy, or three copies for twenty-five cents; or one hundred copies for Six Dollars. Copies will be sent by mail everywhere on remitting the price for quantity wanted, to T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

TO BE PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & Co. A. J. GLOSSERENNER. PRANCIS J. GRUND.

"Tue Age" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, nco-essarily fewor the restoration of the Union as it was, and detend the Constitution of the United States, and that of this Commonwealth.

It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including of course, and pre-emine only at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our ountry. It will fearlessly criticise the public netsof public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states, against assualts from any quarter.

It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sease of the a tual condition of the Repub-lio—to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnitude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress—and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply THE REMEDY for our national iils.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to the fatta-ful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic par-ty, noder whose Auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party party of the Constitution and the Union power, in the legislative and executive governmental branches of the States and of the Union, we be-the practice of the States and of the Union, we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our highest aid.

The News, Literary, Commercial, and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "The Age" worthy of the support of the general reader. support of the general reader.
