

AL AND PERSONAL. School Directors are reminded that the elec- tion of County Superintendent comes off at this place on Monday next. There should be a full attend- ance.

Hand.—All the new and elegant styles of Dress Goods, trimmings, women's and chil- dren's gentlemen's hats, caps, cassimere and other goods, have been received by Mr. J. W. Will, making the most complete stock in this town that can be found in town. Call and see.

New Goods.—We call attention to the new ad- vancement of Mr. Beemer, at Falls who has just re- ceived from the city, with the most complete assort- ment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Hats, Caps, Shoes, &c. ever offered to the people of that place which will sell for cash or ready pay, as the interest. Give him a call.

Paper Mill.—We have received a circular from the proprietors of the Pittston Paper Mill, which states that they will soon be prepared to manufacture all kinds of printing paper. These mills have been in operation for some time though not having the requisite machinery for the manufacture of some of that kind has been made.

Drug Store.—Dr. J. C. Becker & Co., are receiving a lot of Drugs, Medicines, Chemi- cals, &c. which will be found for sale at this office at the residence of R. B. Little. Our readers look out for an advertisement of this establish- ment next week. Meanwhile if any want Physic, will find it at the Dr's.

Entertainment.—Madame Julia White from the Academy of Music, N. Y., assisted by a troupe of singers and players, will give one Grand Parlor Entertainment, at Wall's Union on the evening. The programme embraces songs, recitations &c. From the flattering notices of this troupe of singers and players we feel confident in assuring a rich treat to all who attend. The most marvellous part of the entertainment is the exhibition of the rare oratorical powers of our Edwin Forest Melville—the Infant orator three years.

Open at 7 P. M. Admission 25 cts. Chil- dren 15 cts.

Potatoes.—We desire to call particular attention to the advertisement of various sorts of fine potatoes, by P. Sutton, of Ransom Luz. Co. It is now, we believe, pretty well established among potato growers, that a frequent change of soil is a resort to seedlings is the only sure preven- tive against the rot, in addition to the advantages of quality and quantity thereby secured.

Having some acquaintance with Mr. Sutton, we can testify to the correctness of his representations in relation to them. We ordered for our own use and just received a barrel containing four sorts, some of which can be seen, by calling at our office. Persons residing on the east side of the river, when this place and Pittston, can now get them by way of stage or canal.

New Wrinkle.—Our exchange say that a young man in Indiana county, Pa., has de- parted from the communion table all who, in opinion, are "disloyal." That is to say who are democrats. It must be very gratifying to good christians to be thus de- parted of communing with robbers, swin- dlers and bribers! It must be distressing not to enjoy the christian fellowship of a polit- ical person and of men whose labors have produced disunion and whose hands are soiled with the blood of brothers. Let the non thus excommunicated thank God for their deliverance. They have doubtless the nigger preached long enough, let us now seek some association where they listen to the blessed gospel of the Prince Peace.

Good Suggestion.—The Philadelphia Journal proposes that the so-called "Union leagues," which have been instituted to in- duce the next Presidential election, &c., under the auspices of the proprietor of the Philadelphia Press be called in his honor "Truce Leagues."

Gen. Neal Dow.—This Union officer, well known as the author of the main liquor law, was, according to a statement in the capsule, recently sued in a court at New Haven, by Bradish Johnson, for removing from his plantation a quantity of silverware, without the plea of "military necessity." Judgment was rendered against the General $1,454.

Correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes; "They say that Howel Cobb, who is a blue Presbyterian of the strictest sort, our men in one of the exchanges of pris- ers lately, under a flag of truce. Some of our officers took the opportunity, as is usual, to have a little friendly conversation with Mr. Cobb, and in the course of his remarks he said to have made this statement: "Only two things stand in the way of an amicable settlement of this whole difficulty; and then they listened eagerly for terms of accom- modation—only two things—the landing of the pilgrims, and original sin."

Edwards Barroll, Esq., editor of the Kent County, (Md) Conservator, and James Dwyer, Esq., editor of the Leonardtown (Md.) Beacon, have been arrested and sent South beyond the Federal military lines by order of General Schenck, on the charge of publishing an alleged disloyal article, crit- icizing the system of arbitrary arrest now prevailing in Baltimore.

Chickens—News from Ohio.—The local elections in Ohio, this Spring, have been con- sidered on strictly political principles. The Democracy there presented the clear issue of Democratic principles unadulterated, and the result has been a rallying of new forces to the Democratic ranks. For the first time since the formation of the Black Republican party, Dayton, Vandaligham's own city, has elected a Democratic Mayor. Columbus, Zanesville, and other cities have wheeled in- to line also. Even Toledo has gone Demo- cratic—though the telegraphic reports were to the contrary. The footings up of local Democratic majority of 30,000 in the entire State.

The election in Michigan has gone largely Democratic. The city of De- troit gives the Democratic State ticket for Judge of Supreme Court, and the regents of the University, about 700 majority, yet the telegraph is very quiet about it.

PROSPECTUS OF "The Age," A NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER TO BE PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & Co. A. J. GLOSSBRENNER, FRANCIS J. GRUND, WILLIAM H. WELSH.

"The Age" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will therefore, necessarily favor the restoration of the Union as it was and defend the Constitution of the United States, and that of this Commonwealth.

It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including of course, and pre-eminently at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country.

It will fearlessly criticize the public acts of public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states, against assaults from any quarter.

It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the actual condition of the Republic—to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnitude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress—and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply THE REMEDY for our national ills.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that party—the party of the CONSTITUTION and the UNION—to power, in the legislative and executive governmen- tal branches of the States and of the Union, we be- lieve to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restora- tion will be our highest aim.

The News, Literary, Commercial, and other de- partments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "The Age" worthy of the support of every general reader.

The many difficulties now surrounding an en- terprise of the magnitude of that in which the under- signed are engaged, require them to appeal to the public for a generous support, and to ask for "The Age" a liberal patronage and extended circulation.

The present state of the preparatory arrangements warrants the expectation, that the first number of the Daily will appear before the close of the coming month, (February, 1863.) The Weekly will be issued soon thereafter.

PICTURE GALLERY

AMBROTYPES, PHOTOGRAPHS, ALBUVEN PRINTS, &c.

A NEW PICTURE GALLERY has just been es- tablished in Tunkhannock, which is supplied with entire material for the taking of Pictures in the Photograph Art. The undersigned has re-fitted and furnished the Sky-Light Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block, and is now prepared to take Pictures in the latest and most improved style of the Art.

GOOD ASSORTMENT OF CASES.

He has purchased a splendid assortment of Cases, among which are the Union, Band Clasp, Octagon, Oval Gill Frames, Gill Trays, &c.—very neat and desirable patterns—besides a variety of plain and fancy Cases, of every size and description.

The foregoing, he thinks, are inducements sufficient for every one to come to the Picture Gallery and secure one of those "faithful shadows"

"Which light and art, with magic spell, By working together, can catch so well!"

If not, there are other considerations. How impor- tant that you secure a faithful likeness of your friends and relatives ere it is too late. You have all experienced something of the satisfaction afforded in gazing on the Picture of an absent friend; and some of you have known the sad pleasure derived from possessing the likeness of some loved one who has been laid be- neath the church yard mound, and felt that

"No price could take from you A moment so cherished; For, how sacred the shadow, Since the substance has perished."

But you perchance have friends still with you whose pictures you have not yet secured. If so make the business of to-day, to-morrow may be too late. Then come to the Picture Gallery in Samuel Stark's Brick Block—third story—a few doors east of Wall's Hotel, and secure one of those "faithful shadows"
